THE UCLA EXPERIENCE

UCLA - The Complete Package

"UCLA has the most complete athletic program in the country"

(Sports Illustrated On Campus - April '05)

The Nation's No. 1 Combined Academic, Social & Athletic Program

Winner of more NCAA championships then any other school; one of the nation's top public universities; centrally located to beaches, mountains.

An Outstanding Head Coach

Rick Neuheisel has won 65% of his games in nine years as head coach. He has earned seven bowl bids and his teams have finished in the Top 10 nationally on three occasions.

Talented & Experienced Coaching Staff

One of the top coordinators, Norm Chow, highlights an experienced staff with diverse backgrounds. Six of Coach Neuheisel's assistants have coached in the NFL and two others played on Sundays.
The goal of the staff is to develop greatness in UCLA's student-athletes, both on and off the field.

Academic Support

Learning specialists, tutoring aid, counseling and general assistance that is second to none.

The Bruin Family

UCLA provides a prosperous outlook for the future with internships, workshop mentoring programs and access to one of the world's meccas of business, entertainment, media and networking.

Media Rich Southern California

USA Today, Fox Sports Net, NFL Network and ESPN have offices in LA. Seven local television stations and 13 area newspapers provide unparalleled exposure.

The Next Step

Over 25 Bruins populate NFL rosters on a yearly basis. At least one former Bruin has been in 28 of the last 30 Super Bowls and 27 of the last 28 Pro Bowls.

Leading The Way

Jackie Robinson, first African-American to play major league baseball ... Troy Aikman, first quarterback to win three Super Bowls in four years ... Kenny Washington, first African-American to play in the NFL ... Gary Beban, Heisman winner ... Jerry Robinson and Kenny Easley, the only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pac-10 Conference history.

The Bruin Family

The goal of the UCLA Football Program is to reconnect with Bruin players from all eras. Head coach Rick Neuheisel's theme is "UCLA Football - Then...Now...Forever." In April of 2008, over 125 former players attended a practice at Spaulding Field, followed by a reunion dinner with players from at least six different decades. At this year's spring game, over 200 former players and coaches were in attendance to celebrate Bruin football and visited the "Then...Now...Forever" tent prior to the game. UCLA also honors players as honorary captains on game day, where they participate in the pre-game coin toss and speak to the team.

Among the Bruin alumni who have returned to campus in recent years are head coaches Terry Donahue and Dick Vermeil, Cade McNown, Manu Tuiasosopo, Kenny Easley, Jerry Robinson, Troy Aikman, James Washington, Freeman McNeil, Maurice Jones-Drew, Marcedes Lewis, Bruce Davis, Chris Horton, Roman Phifer, Mike Lodish, Derek Ayers, Danny Farmer, John Peterson, Ricky Manning, Jr. and J.J. Stokes. Some of them, as well as other alumni, are pictured on this page.

Bruins In The Community

Head coach Rick Neuheisel stresses involvement with the campus and the community. Whether it's volunteering at an inner-city youth clinic, speaking to children at elementary and middle schools in the area or assisting in campus programs such as 'Marathon Kids' and 'I'm Going to College,' community service is an important aspect of being a Bruin.

Maximum Media Exposure

For The Fourth Consecutive Season, All Of UCLA's Games Were Televised Live On Various Channels Including ABC, NBC, ESPN, FSN, FSPT & Versus

239	UCLA football games have been televised live 239 times in the last 22 years
118	Current and former Bruins have been featured on 118 Sports Illustrated covers
13	Thirteen local newspapers cover the Bruins at the Rose Bowl throughout the season
7	Seven local television stations cover the Bruins - KCBS, KNBC, KTLA, KABC, KCAL, KTTV & FS Prime Ticket
3	The Los Angeles area is home to three local sports talk radio stations

Radio Broadcasts

All of UCLA's games are on Southern California's No. 1 sports station, as well as nationally on satellite radio and internet.

Award-Winning Website

www.UCLABruins.com is one of the most recognized websites in the world

Media Training

"Staged" videos and print interview sessions are used to prepare student-athletes on how to deal with the media

Bruins in the NFL

Year in and year out, UCLA is well represented in the National Football League.
In addition to being among the leaders in schools that produce NFL players, UCLA is also at the forefront in the area of former players and coaches working in the NFL.
Some prominent members of the NFL include former All-American defensive tackle Floyd Reese (Senior Football Advisor for New England), former defensive back George Paton (Director of Player Personnel for Minnesota) and former running back Eric Ball (Director of Player Relations for Cincinnati).

Developing the NFL's Best

UCLA's coaching staff has coached some of the top players in the National Football League, either in college or in the NFL. Included among the 50-plus current or former NFL players coached by the current Bruin staff are numerous All-Pro and Pro Bowl selections as well as NFL MVPs, Super Bowl MVPs and NFL Rookies of the Year. In addition, the UCLA staff has coached seven Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy winners, four Walter Camp or Maxwell Award winners, as well as too many All-Americans to count. Just a few of the NFL standouts are listed below and featured on this page.

UCLA NFL Pro Combine

Every March, the UCLA football staff hosts UCLA's "Pro Day" - where NFL scouts and team representatives come to see draft eligible athletes participate in combine tests and drills. The NFL personnel are greeted by Coach Neuheisel and head athletic performance coach Mike Linn. Various other UCLA staff members associated with football are available throughout the day to assist. Testing includes - 225 lb bench press, height and weight, wing span and hand spread measurements, vertical and standing long jump, the 40-yard dash, pro shuttle, "L" drill and long shuttle, followed by individual workouts within each position group.

Multi-Sport Stars

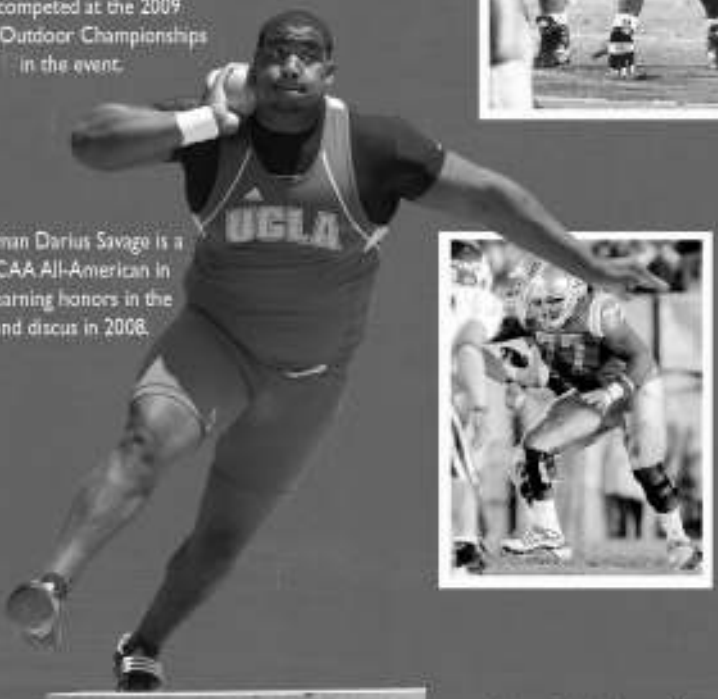
Many Bruins have excelled in other sports aside from football while playing at UCLA. Below are a few of those multi-sport athletes.

Jackie Robinson, the first African-American to play in MLB, began UCLA's multiple sport tradition, starring in football, basketball, track and baseball.

Wide receiver Nelson Rosario is one of UCLA's top long jumpers and competed at the 2009 NCAA Outdoor Championships in the event.

Jonathan Ogden, one of the greatest left tackles in NFL history with the Baltimore Ravens, won the 1996 NCAA Indoor shot put crown and was a 4-time NCAA All-American in the throws.

Jarrad Page also played baseball at UCLA, and was drafted by both the NFL and MLB. Today, he plays safety for the Kansas City Chiefs.



Offensive lineman Darius Savage is a two-time NCAA All-American in the throws, earning honors in the shot put and discus in 2008.

Danny Farmer, UCLA's career receiving yardage leader, won two NCAA Championships in volleyball.

Running back James Owens competed in the 1976 Olympic Games in the high hurdles.

UCLA in the Bowls

When it comes to winning bowl games, UCLA is one of the most successful programs in the nation. Since 1982, no Pac-10 school and only 10 programs in the nation have won more bowl games than UCLA.

The Bruins have won 11 of their last 19 bowl appearances and their eight straight wins (from 1982-1991) were one shy of the national record.

The 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl was UCLA's 29th bowl appearance.

On January 2, 1982, UCLA set an NCAA record for bowl victories in consecutive seasons by beating Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. That was UCLA's seventh bowl triumph in as many seasons. Those UCLA post-season victories included the 1983, '84 and '86 Rose Bowls, the 1985 Fiesta Bowl, the 1986 Freedom Bowl and the 1987 Aloha Bowl.

The J.D. Morgan Center

UCLA's commitment to comprehensive academic support services and a desire to expand existing resources to best serve the Bruin student-athlete of today and tomorrow remains constant. In an effort to support this ideal, UCLA's J.D. Morgan Athletic Center underwent a major expansion that upgraded the former facility into a high-tech building for the 21st century.

The project increased office space for both administrative and coaching staff, improved the student academic support services, and provided a "state of the art" Athletic Hall of Fame exhibiting the illustrious Bruin history and highlighting current events. Below are some highlights of the J.D. Morgan Center.

Academic & Student Services (AS2)

Mission Statement

"Student-athletes Understand that Character Creates Educational Self-Sufficiency"

The mission of the UCLA Academic & Student Services office (AS2) and its S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program is to provide an interactive learning environment that emphasizes life-long learning habits, goal setting, teamwork, leadership and character. Centered on the idea of the self-sufficient, independent learner, the S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program features academic counseling, academic and student support services, and student-athlete development programs that support and encourage student-athletes to reach their full potential academically and personally. The AS2 team promotes a healthy balance between academics and athletics and embraces UCLA's "True Bruin" philosophy setting forth the ethical standards of integrity, excellence, accountability, respect and service. Our commitment is to assist student-athletes in their transition to the university, earning their UCLA degree, and develop their skills and confidence to be champions in life.

COMMUNITY OF LEARNERS PROGRAM

The Community of Learners (COL) is a year-long academics support program for incoming student-athletes, which provides resources, guidance, and leadership training. Our community is made up of the football academic coordinator, learning specialists, college counselors, academic mentors, peer learning facilitators and support staff.

COL meets three times a week to offer an interactive learning environment that emphasizes learning styles, goal setting, close reading skills, and teamwork to foster independent learning and future leaders. The community also uses John Wooden's Pyramid of Success to motivate students and build leadership and character.

Our COL program features writing tutorial support, learning strategies sessions, community service opportunities and quarterly leadership and team-building events. By participating in COL, student-athletes understand to invest in academics is to invest in themselves.

DIRECTED LEARNING PROGRAM

The Directed Learning Program is an intensive, strategic academic support program that helps student-athletes make a successful transition to college. The program is coordinated by the AS2 Learning Specialists and includes one-on-one academic support services that identify student-athletes' strengths and weaknessess, focus on increasing skills to improve academic performance and enrich the student-athletes' university experience.

Student-athletes participating in the Directed Learning Program will work directly with their assigned AS2 Learning Specialist and will work collaboratively with campus resources to provide a holistic approach to learning through life skills, wellness and accountability. This enhanced learning environment provides an opportunity for student-athletes to perform to their highest ability.

STUDENT-ATHLETES SHARE THEIR ACADEMIC GOALS

"I want to succeed and optimize my learning responsibilities."

"Stay in touch with my goals on a day-to-day basis so I can know where I am in my progress."

"Work as hard as I can and put in the extra hours to achieve these goals."

"Manage my time wisely and plan it all out."

"Staying focused and not letting the little things get to me."

"Work hard and stay determined...{goals are a} stepping stone to my future success."

"I want to graduate with honors; it will prepare me for life after college."

First Class Facilities

The UCLA campus is home to numerous first class facilities for student-athletes of all sports.

Spaulding Field - practice home for the Bruin football team, features SPRINTURF field, along with one natural grass field

Rose Gilbert Learning Center - located in the J.D. Morgan Center, has 24 computers and numerous printers for all of the academic needs of student-athletes

Acosta Center - houses locker rooms, the Athletic Performance Center and Sports Medicine Center

Easton Stadium - houses the 10-time NCAA Championship softball team

Drake Stadium & Marshall Field - home to the nationally-ranked soccer and track and field teams

Jackie Robinson Stadium - home to the Bruin baseball team and was recently renovated with new batting areas and playing surface

Pauley Pavilion - home to the Bruin basketball, gymnastics and volleyball teams

Spieker Aquatic Center - opening in the Fall of 2009, this state-of-the-art aquatics center will be home to the water polo and swimming and diving teams

The Rose Bowl: Home Of The Bruins

The Bruins play their home games at the historic Rose Bowl in Pasadena, the most picturesque college football stadium in America.

In 2007, new spacious state-of-the-art home and visiting lockerrooms made their debut at the Rose Bowl. There are also new interview and photo workrooms.

ESPN's Game Day Show made its first-ever West Coast appearance at a Bruin home game in 1998. In 2008, the crew filmed live from the UCLA/Tennessee game.

The Acosta Sports Training Center

UCLA student-athletes have the use of the three-story Acosta Sports Training & Conditioning Center, which is the home for Sports Medicine, Athletic Training & Rehabilitation, Athletic Performance Center, Varsity Locker Rooms, and The Bud Knapp Football Center.

The Bud Knapp Football Center is on the first floor, South Wing of the Acosta Center. It houses the players' locker room that features wood lockers, a coaches' locker room and an expanded equipment room. Nine position meeting rooms featuring state-of-the-art digital equipment, an auditorium-style team meeting/viewing room and a lobby highlighting the tradition and history of Bruin football.

The Acosta Sports Training Center

The Acosta Sports Training Center features an 8,000-square foot athletic training and rehabilitation facility with private offices for all of the certified athletic trainers, as well as a doctors' suite and a nutritionist. The facility includes three hydro pools, a large rehabilitation area with stationary bikes, treadmill and elliptical machines and private examination areas.

UCLA Student Life & Activities

UCLA offers many on-campus locales to relax, like the Sunset Canyon Recreation Center, which houses numerous pools, volleyball and tennis courts and picnic areas. Bruins can get their workout in at The Wooden Center, which was remodeled in the summer of 2005 and features cardio equipment with flat screen tv's and increased workout space. The Wooden Center also features a rock climbing wall and basketball courts.

UCLA Student Life & Activities

The UCLA campus is home to 13 different residential buildings, ranging from suite design to hall lay-out. There are a multitude of dining options including four dorm cafeterias, late-night food options and a Coffee Bean. Ackerman Union also offers a multitude of dining options including Taco Bell, Jamba Juice, Carls Jr., Rubio's, Panda Express, Sbarro, and The Green House - a salad, pasta, soup and potato bar. The Union also features the UCLA Store, where students can shop for anything including adidas gear, books, gifts, school supplies, computers and food.

This Is Los Angeles

Art and culture are a very vibrant part of Los Angeles. The Getty Center is just one of many museums in the area.
The Disney Concert Hall is also a short drive from campus.
Westwood, a suburb of Los Angeles, offers UCLA students and the surrounding communities many entertainment options. Movie premieres are a common occurrence as stars often visit the Fox Theater for opening night. Westwood is home to numerous coffee shops, stores and retaurants and is just minutes from campus.

This Is Los Angeles

The city of Los Angeles is internationally recognized as America's leader in the entertainment and communications industries, as well as tourism and recreation. Los Angeles and surrounding Orange County offer numerous options for fun and entertainment. Southern California is home to two NBA, NHL, MLB and MLS teams. Los Angeles also has played host to numerous sporting events including the XGames, World Cup, Super Bowl and Olympics. Southern California also has three amusement parks - Knotts Berry Farm, Magic Mountain and Disneyland.

RICK NEUHEISEL

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH :: 2ND SEASON :: UCLA '84

Rick Neuheisel, who quarterbacked UCLA to victory in the 1984 Rose Bowl and who enjoyed success as a head coach at two other BCS conference schools, is in his second year as head coach at his alma mater.

The energetic and personable Neuheisel returned to UCLA last season and brought energy and excitement to the program. Twice last season, the Bruins rallied late in the fourth quarter for victories, including versus Tennessee on national television on Labor Day evening. Despite the team's final record, he laid a solid foundation to build upon and in February signed a second straight Top 10 recruiting class. Neuheisel is "relentlessly positive" and sees great things for the future of Bruin football.

This past Spring, he participated in the second annual Coaches Tour to the Middle East, visiting U.S. troops at various bases.

"Rick has enjoyed great success throughout his career and we believe he is the coach who can take our program to the next level," said athletic director Dan Guerrero at the time of Neuheisel's hiring. "His teams at Colorado and Washington continually challenged for conference championships and national rankings and that is what we are looking to do at UCLA.

"Rick is an outstanding coach and recruiter. He is outgoing and personable; and can motivate our players, fans and supporters. We believe he is well-equipped to lead the program and attain the success all Bruin fans wish to achieve."

"I am thrilled to be returning to my alma mater as its head coach," said Neuheisel. "UCLA is a special place and I want to thank Dan Guerrero and Chancellor (Gene) Block for the opportunity to come home. We are going to build a program our supporters will be proud of, both on and off the field. I can't wait to get started."

Neuheisel, 48, returned to the collegiate ranks after spending three seasons (2005-07) as an assistant coach for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. He served as quarterbacks coach in 2005 and 2006 and in January of 2007, was promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. With the Ravens, he worked with quarterbacks Kyle Boller, Steve McNair and, most recently, 2006 Heisman Trophy winner Troy Smith.

In his eight years as a college head coach at the University of Colorado and the University of Washington, he fashioned a record of 66-30, winning at least 10 games on three occasions and finishing in the Top 10 on three occasions, and led his teams to seven bowl games.

During his four seasons (1999-2002) as head coach at the University of Washington, Neuheisel led the Huskies to a record of 33-16 (.673) and four bowl games (one Rose Bowl, two Holiday Bowls and one Sun Bowl). His Pac-10 record was 23-9 (.719) and Washington won one league title and finished second twice in those four seasons. The Husky offense averaged over 390 yards per game in each season, topped by a 420.7 mark in 2002 (17th in the nation) and 407.9 in 2000 (35th).

In his final season, the Huskies finished 7-6 and tied for 4th in the Pac-10 while ranking fourth nationally in passing offense (346.2 yards per game) and earning a spot in the Sun Bowl.

In 2001, Washington finished 8-4 overall and second in the Pac-10 with a 6-2 mark, earning a trip to the Holiday Bowl. The Huskies faced five teams ranked in the final AP Poll that season, winning three of those games.

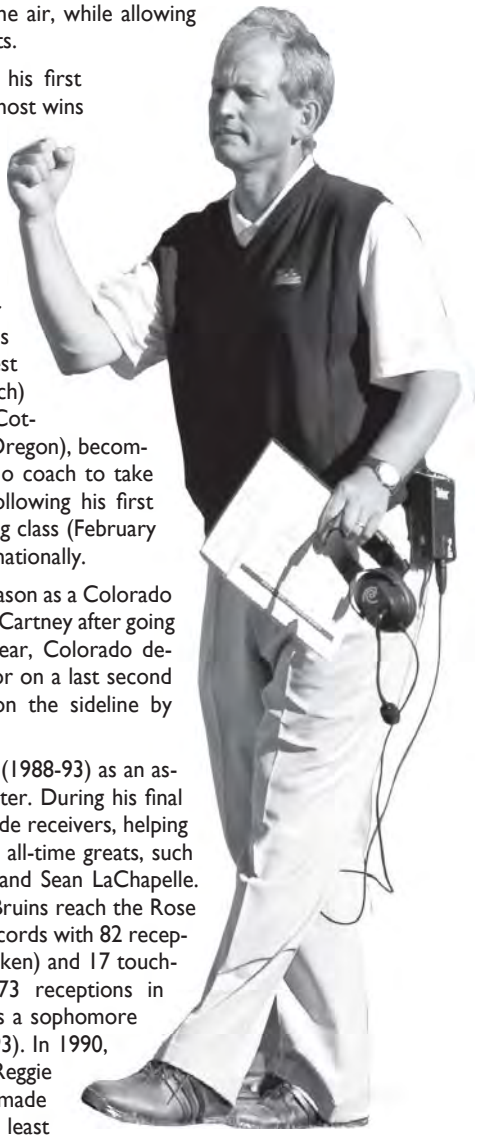
Rick Neuheisel was the MVP of the 1984 Rose Bowl

In 2000, Neuheisel led the Huskies to an 11-1 record, a first-place Pac-10 finish and a victory in the 2001 Rose Bowl. It was a year of great comebacks as Washington trailed in eight of its 11 wins and recorded five straight fourth-quarter comebacks. It marked the first time Washington had won 10 games since 1991 and the school's first Rose Bowl title since that same season.

In 1999, his first season in Seattle, Washington finished 7-5 but finished second in the Pac-10, earning a trip to the Holiday Bowl. Neuheisel became the first coach in school history to lead a Husky team to a bowl berth in his first season.

During his four seasons (1995-98) as head coach at the University of Colorado, Neuheisel won 33 of 47 games (.702) and won all three bowl appearances. In his final season, Colorado finished 8-4, including a 51-43 victory over Oregon in the Aloha Bowl, and the Buffaloes ranked 13th nationally in total defense that year. In 1997, Colorado finished 5-6 but still led the Big 12 in passing offense (232.4). Neuheisel then signed a recruiting class that formed the nucleus of Colorado's 2001 Big 12 championship team.

During the 1996 season, Neuheisel recorded his second straight 10-2 season, including a 33-21 victory over Washington in the Holiday Bowl, and finished second in the Big 12 North. The Buffaloes were ranked eighth on both polls and outscored opponents 319-199 while setting a school record by winning 10 consecutive road games. That team produced three All-Americans, including Butkus Award winning LB Matt Russell, and averaged 452.1 yards of offense, including 303.5 in the air, while allowing just 315.5 yards to opponents.



Neuheisel's 20-4 record in his first two seasons were the fifth-most wins at the time for a first-time head coach in the Football Bowl Subdivision (Division IA).

In his first season as a head coach (1995), Colorado finished fifth on both major polls. He guided the Buffaloes to a 10-2 record (the best ever by a first-year CU coach) and an appearance in the Cotton Bowl (a 38-6 win over Oregon), becoming the first rookie Colorado coach to take a team to a bowl game. Following his first season, he signed a recruiting class (February 1996) that was rated No. 2 nationally.

Neuheisel spent the 1994 season as a Colorado assistant coach under Bill McCartney after going to CU from UCLA. That year, Colorado defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor on a last second touchdown play modified on the sideline by Neuheisel.

Neuheisel spent six seasons (1988-93) as an assistant coach at his alma mater. During his final four years he tutored the wide receivers, helping to develop some of UCLA's all-time greats, such as J.J. Stokes, Kevin Jordan and Sean LaChapelle. In 1993, Stokes helped the Bruins reach the Rose Bowl while setting school records with 82 receptions, 1,181 yards (since broken) and 17 touchdowns. LaChapelle made 73 receptions in 1991 and Jordan made 45 as a sophomore in Neuheisel's last year (1993). In 1990, three Bruins – Scott Miller, Reggie Moore and LaChapelle – all made at least 35 receptions for at least 600 yards.

Neuheisel joined the UCLA staff full-time in 1988 and coached quarterbacks for two seasons, including future NFL Hall of Fame quarterback Troy Aikman's senior year (1988). Aikman earned consensus All-America honors and finished third in the Heisman Trophy race, completing a school record 228 passes (since broken) for 2,771 yards, a .644 percentage and a school record 24 touchdowns (since broken). Aikman was the No. 1 selection in the 1989 NFL Draft.

In 1986, he served as a volunteer coach and his major assignment was to teach the offense to a transfer from Oklahoma who had to sit out the 1986 season – Aikman.

The Bruin head coach also played some professional football. In 1987, he played in three games with the San Diego Chargers and started twice. He completed 40 of 59 passes for 367 yards and one touchdown and also ran for a score. Against Tampa Bay, he completed 18 of 22 passes for 217 yards and a touchdown, setting a team record for completion percentage in a game (81.8%).

He also spent two seasons (1984 and 1985) in the United States Football League (USFL), playing with the San Antonio Gunslingers. In his rookie season, he completed 211 of 385 passes (.548) for 2,544 yards and 14 touchdowns.

Neuheisel began his collegiate career at UCLA (1979-83) as a walk-on, holding for place kicker John Lee, and earned the starting quarterback job during his senior season (1983). He led the Bruins to the Pac-10 title after a 0-3-1 start, earning honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors while completing 185 of 267 passes for 2,245 yards and 13 touchdowns. His completion percentage of .693 that season is still a school record. In a classic game against Washington, he completed 25 of 27 passes for a then-NCAA record .926 completion percentage in a 27-24 victory. That mark is still a UCLA record and a Pac-10 conference record by a quarterback with a minimum of 20 completions in a game.

In his final game as a Bruin, he overcame food poisoning to lead UCLA to a 45-9 victory against Illinois in the 1984 Rose Bowl. He was named the game's MVP after throwing for 298 yards and four touchdowns. In 1998, he was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame for his efforts.

During his career, he completed 198 of 290 passes for 2,480 yards and 15 touchdowns and his completion percentage of .683 is also a school record.

Neuheisel earned his Bachelor's degree in Political Science in 1984. In 1986, while he was tutoring Aikman as a volunteer, he attended law school at USC and earned his degree in May of 1990.

Born February 7, 1961 in Madison, WI, he grew up in Tempe, AZ, attending McClintock High School. He and his wife Susan, a UCLA graduate, have three children, Jerry, Jack and Joe.

CHUCK BULLOUGH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR-1ST SEASON/LINEBACKERS-4TH SEASON
MICHIGAN STATE '92

Chuck Bullough (BULL-ah), who had five years of NFL coaching experience with the Chicago Bears prior to coming to Westwood, is set to begin his fourth season as coach of the Bruin linebackers and his first as the defensive coordinator.

Last season, his linebacker group once again excelled as a group. Reggie Carter led the team with 83 tackles and three fumble recoveries while redshirt freshmen Steve Sloan and Akeem Ayers gained valuable experience for the future. Carter's 20 tackles at BYU were the most by a Bruin since 1989.

The 2007 Bruin defense ranked 14th in the nation in rushing defense (109.2 yards per game) and 29th in total defense (343.23 yds/g). Leading the way for the linebacker group was the foursome of Christian Taylor (third on team in tackles), Kyle Bosworth (5th), Reggie Carter (t-6th) and Aaron Whittington (9th). Taylor ranked second on the team with 12.5 tackles for loss, while Carter was third with a total of 12.0. In a game at Washington State, Bosworth recorded 19 tackles.

In 2006, the Bruins tied for ninth in the nation, and for first in the Pac-10 conference, in rushing defense (91.08 yds/g) with a young group of linebackers. Taylor, Carter and Eric McNeal helped to lead the Bruin defense. Taylor ranked second on the team with 83 tackles and fifth (tied) in the Pac-10 in tackles (1.04/g) for loss and 16th in tackles (6.38/g).McNeal made a game-saving tip and interception against USC to seal a Bruin victory. Carter earned Freshman All-America honors after tallying 48 tackles, including 6.0 for loss.

Bullough, 41, has been a member of two staffs on which the head coach earned "Coach of the Year" honors. In 2001, Dick Jauron was named NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Bears to a 13-3 record (Chicago was 4-12 in the season prior to that staff's arrival). In 2005, Western Michigan improved from 1-10 to 7-4, the biggest turnaround in MAC history, and first-year head coach Bill Cubit was named MAC Coach of the Year.

Bullough has coached numerous players to post-season honors. Reggie Carter earned second-team All-Pac-10 honors from the league's coaches in 2008. He garnered first-team Freshman All-America acclaim in 2006 from rivals.com; second-team honors from both collegefootballnews.com and scout.com; and third-team accolades from The Sporting News. In 2005, Bullough was linebackers coach at Western Michigan when Ameer Ismail earned first-team All-MAC honors. Ismail ranking sixth (tied) nationally with 20 tackles for loss and 34th with eight sacks that season. In 2004, he worked as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Lake Forest College.

For the five previous seasons (1999-03), Bullough coached every defensive position and special teams on the staff of the Chicago Bears. In 2003, he was assistant defensive backs coach and cornerback Charles Tillman was named the NFL Rookie of the Year. In 2002, he was assistant defensive line coach when defensive tackle Ted Washington earned a Pro Bowl berth. From 1999-2001, he was assistant linebacker coach and Brian Urlacher was a Pro Bowl selection. During the entire five seasons, he was assistant special teams coach, tutoring Larry Whigham and Jerry Azumah to the Pro Bowl.

A two-time All-Big Ten selection (first team in 1991 and second in 1990) and second-team All-American linebacker at Michigan State University, Bullough set an MSU single-season record with 175 tackles. He was a member of three bowl championship teams, including the 1987 Rose Bowl squad, and MSU won two Big Ten titles during his career. Bullough was selected in the eighth round of the 1992 NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles and had a five-year career in the National Football League. He played for the Miami Dolphins (1993-95) and attended camps with the Eagles (1992) and Indianapolis Colts (1996). He began his coaching career at his alma mater, assisting with defensive backs in 1997 and the offensive line in 1998.

His father, Henry, rose from the steel mills of Canton, OH, to become known as the "Doctor of Defense" as an NFL defensive coordinator for 23 years for multiple teams. He served as the head coach of the Buffalo Bills for parts of the 1985 and 1986 seasons. Henry earned a Super Bowl championship ring as an assistant coach with the Colts in 1970 and won national collegiate football championships at Michigan State, as a player in 1952 and as the defensive coordinator of the Spartans' 1965 and 1966 teams.

NORM CHOW

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS-2ND SEASON
UTAH '68

Norm Chow, who is considered one of the top offensive coaches in collegiate football history, is in his second season as the Bruin offensive coordinator and quarterback coach. In 2008, quarterback Kevin Craft completed 232 passes, the second-highest total in school history.

Chow came to UCLA in January of 2007 from the NFL's Tennessee Titans, where he had served as offensive coordinator for the previous three years. He is credited with helping Vince Young's transition from college to pro football. In 2007, the Titans earned a spot in the NFL playoffs and finished the regular season with a record of 10-6.

In 2006, Young, a rookie quarterback from Texas, took over the offense during the fourth week of the season. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earned Rookie of the Year honors (only the second quarterback to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year) and became the first rookie quarterback to play in the Pro Bowl.

Young earned all of the headlines, but it was the running game that drove the offense as the Titans finished fifth in the league in rushing, amassing the sixth-highest rushing total in franchise history (2,214 yards) and the highest yards per carry in franchise history (4.7).

In 2005, Chow adapted to the pro game with ease despite an offense that relied on a youthful cast of players and encountered numerous injuries. Tennessee ranked ninth in the NFL in passing and ranked 17th overall in offense. The group of rookie receivers (WR Brandon Jones, WR Roydell Williams, WR Courtney Roby and TE Bo Scaife) became the first quartet of rookie receivers since the 1968 Buffalo Bills to each record at least 20 receptions in a season. Scaife would also establish a new rookie tight end franchise mark for receptions with 37.

Before joining the Titans, Chow spent 32 productive years coaching at the collegiate level, tasting every form of success at that level, including three national titles (BYU, 1984; USC 2003, 2004), tutoring three Heisman Trophy winners (Ty Detmer, Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart), participating in 27 bowl games, and three times being named national Assistant Coach of the Year. He left an indelible mark on the college game as he worked with many of the NCAA's top career passing efficiency leaders. Chow has mentored six first-round NFL draft picks (Palmer, Leinart, Philip Rivers, Steve Young, Jim McMahon, Marc Wilson) and one Pro Football Hall of Fame member (Young).

Chow, 63, joined the Titans in February of 2005, after spending four seasons as offensive coordinator at the University of Southern California. At the helm of USC's offense, Chow directed an attack that ranked in the nation's top 20 in total offense in each of his final three seasons, tutored two Heisman trophy-winning quarterbacks (Palmer in 2002 and Leinart in 2004) and won two national titles. The Trojans were 42-9 during his four seasons, 36-3 in the final three.

In his final season at USC, the Trojans ranked sixth nationally in scoring offense (38.2), seventh in passing efficiency, 12th in total offense (449.1) and 13th in passing offense (271.7). Quarterback Matt Leinart was the Heisman Trophy winner, Walter Camp Player of the Year, repeated as a first team All-American and was the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. In 2003, Leinart set Pac-10 season records for touchdown passes (38) and consecutive passes without an interception (212). He also had the highest passing efficiency rating (164.5) of any USC quarterback in history. USC was fifth nationally in passing efficiency and scoring offense, 13th in passing offense (291.6) and 14th in total offense (447.5). The offense set Pac-10 season records with 534 points and by scoring 40-plus points in seven consecutive games.

In 2002, quarterback Carson Palmer won the Heisman Trophy and Unitas Award en route to becoming the NFL's number one overall selection and the Pac-10's career leader in passing yards and total offense, while USC led the Pac-10 in total offense and scoring offense. Nationally, the offense ranked sixth in passing efficiency, eighth in passing offense (306.8) and total offense (449.2) and ninth in scoring offense (35.8).

Chow spent the 2000 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Carolina State. The Wolfpack passing offense was ranked 15th nationally (292.6). His quarterback, Philip Rivers, was a Freshman All-American who completed 53.7% (237 of 441) of his passes for 3,054 yards with 25 touchdowns and ranked 12th nationally in total offense (269.9). Rivers is now the starting quarterback for the San Diego Chargers.

Prior to joining the N.C. State staff, Chow spent 27 years (1973-99) at BYU. At various times, he was the Cougars' assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, co-offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach, receivers coach, recruiting coordinator and graduate assistant (1973 and 1974). The Cougars posted a 244-91-3 record during his time in Provo, appeared in 22 bowls and saw 21 offensive players earn All-America honors. In 12 of his 18 years as offensive coordinator at BYU, Chow led the offense to a place in the NCAA's top 10 in total offense. Chow was with coach LaVell Edwards for all but two (1972 & 2000) of his 29 years at BYU.

Chow began his coaching career as the head coach at Waialua (HI) High, serving for three seasons (1970-72).

He was a two-year starter and three-year letterman at guard for Utah (1965-67). In 1967, he earned All-Western Athletic Conference first team and All-American honorable mention honors. He was selected to Utah's All-Century Team. He then played briefly with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League in 1968 before a knee injury ended his playing career.

In his years of coaching, Chow has garnered numerous accolades, including: the Broyles Award (2002) as the nation's top assistant coach, National Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Foundation (1999) and Athlon (1993), and the NCAA Division 1-A Offensive Coordinator of the Year (1996 & 2002) by American Football Monthly. In 2006, FOX's Terry Bradshaw named Chow the NFL's Top Assistant Coach. Additionally, Chow served as the grand marshal of the Golden Dragon Parade celebrating the Chinese New Year in Los Angeles' Chinatown in 2004.

FRANK GANSZ, JR.

SPECIAL TEAMS-2ND SEASON
THE CITADEL '85

Frank Gansz, Jr. is in his second season in charge of the UCLA special teams. Gansz, who has an extensive background at the professional and collegiate levels, was the special teams coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens in 2006 and 2007, coaching with UCLA head coach Rick Neuheisel.

This past season, Aaron Perez led the Pacific-10 Conference in punting (45.2), Kai Forbath tied for the league lead in field goals (19 in 12 games) and Terrence Austin set UCLA marks for all-purpose yards (1,878) and kickoff return yards (1,109). UCLA also blocked two punts for touchdowns and scored a defensive PAT.

In 2007, the Ravens placed ninth in the NFL in punt returns (9.7 yards) and 10th in the league in kickoff returns (23.5). Place kicker Matt Stover made 27 of 32 field goals and all 26 PATs. His 27 field goals tied for 10th in the league. In 2006, Stover led NFL kickers with a 93.3% field goal conversion mark (28 of 30), and ranked fourth among kickers with 121 points. He was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl. In addition, linebacker Gary Stills led the NFL with 44 special teams tackles, the second-most in NFL history, and was also named a Pro Bowl first alternate. Rookie punter Sam Koch produced just three touchbacks, 30 punts inside the 20 (fifth in NFL). He was second in the league with 12 punts inside the 10.

Gansz, 46, spent the 2001-05 seasons as special teams coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs. During that span, Stills became the Chiefs' all-time leader in special teams tackles (148). Dante Hall was named to the Pro Bowl in both 2002 and '03 as a kick returner and led the NFL in most returns for touchdowns (10, six on kickoffs and four on punts). Gansz-led units excelled in blocking punts and kicks, recording four blocked punts from 2001-02 and Kansas City batted away three field goals in two seasons (2002-03). In 2005, the Chiefs' special teams units ranked fourth in average drive start (30.7) and eighth with 1,591 kickoff return yards. Kicker Lawrence Tynes converted two 50-yard FGs for the second time in two years. Hall scored a TD on a kickoff for the fourth straight year. In 2004, Hall scored two kickoff return touchdowns for the second straight year and Tynes made two 50-yard FGs in his first season. Kansas City set single-season franchise records in kickoff returns (75) and yardage (1,820).

In 2003, Gansz's units excelled, leading the NFL with four special teams touchdowns, as Hall scored on two kickoff returns and two punt returns, en route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance. Hall became the first player in NFL history to record a score on a kickoff return in four straight games. His touchdown in the divisional playoff game vs. Indianapolis gave him five overall returns on the season. Hall also broke a single-season franchise record with 2,446 combined net yards. Kansas City led the league in both punt return average (16.4) and kick return average (25.4), the first team to do so since Washington in 1995. The 16.4 punt return average broke a 43-year-old team record. In Gansz' second season with the Chiefs (2002), Hall scored on three kick returns (two punts and one kickoff) to earn his first Pro Bowl berth. In 2001, the Chiefs blocked two punts and partially blocked a third.

Prior to his tenure in Kansas City, he coached special teams for the Oakland Raiders for two seasons (1998 and 1999), tutoring standouts Desmond Howard, Darrien Gordon and Napoleon Kaufman. He also coached in the 1999 Senior Bowl.

Gansz spent five seasons (1993-97) as tight ends and special teams coach at the University of Houston, setting a school record for kickoff return average in 1996. His units set another school record with an 87-yard punt return vs. SMU en route to the Conference-USA championship and a trip to the Liberty Bowl vs. Syracuse.

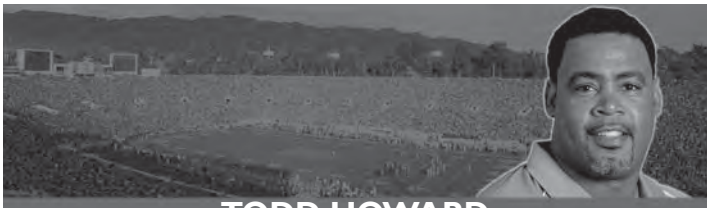
He spent one season (1992) with the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League (NFL Europe). The Knights led the league in punt returns, kickoff returns, kickoff coverage and special teams touchdowns (four).

Gansz spent two years (1990-91) as tight ends/special teams coach at West Point, two years at the University of Pittsburgh, coaching special teams and the offensive line in 1988 and special teams and the secondary in 1989, and one season (1987) as a graduate assistant at Kansas, working with the wide receivers.

Gansz was a four-year defensive back at The Citadel.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Bay Area, Central Coast.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from The Citadel, 1985; At UCLA: Second year (joined the staff in February of 2008); Family: Gansz is single. His father, the late Frank Gansz Sr. coached at UCLA for two seasons (1976-77) and was a longtime NFL coach.



TODD HOWARD

ASSOC. HEAD COACH - DEFENSE/DEFENSIVE LINE-4TH SEASON
TEXAS A&M '91

Todd Howard, who possesses both NFL playing and coaching experience, is in his fourth season as UCLA's defensive line coach. In 2008, sophomore Brian Price earned first-team All-Pac-10 and Sophomore All-America honors and ranked seventh in the Pac-10 with 14.0 tackles for loss. Senior Brigham Harwell was a second-team All-Pac-10 pick (coaches) and Korey Bosworth ranked seventh in the Pac-10 in sacks (7.5), averaging 0.62/g.

In 2007, UCLA ranked 14th in the nation in rushing defense (109.2 yds/g) and 29th in total defense (343.23). In addition, the defense ranked second nationally in tackles for loss per game (8.77) and tied for 15th in sacks per game (3.0). Defensive end Bruce Davis led the team with 12.0 sacks (tied for first in Pac-10) and 15.5 tackles for loss. Davis' two-year total of 24.5 sacks is second only to Dave Ball (27.5 in 2002,2003) for the most-ever by a Bruin in back-to-back seasons. Kevin Brown added seven tackles for loss and four sacks.

In 2006, his first season at UCLA, the line showed marked improvement over previous years. The Bruins were ranked ninth (tied) in the nation and first (tied) in the Pac-10 in rushing defense (91.08) and 33rd nationally in total defense (304.83). His two ends, Justin Hickman, a consensus All-American, and Davis, who also earned first-team All-America honors, tied for first in the conference and fourth in the nation with 12.5 quarterback sacks. Tackles Brigham Harwell and Brown also flourished under the new coach.

Howard had spent the previous three seasons (2003-05) in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars, serving as assistant defensive line coach. He assisted the defensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, the statistical analysis of opponents' tendencies and the preparation of playbooks.

He, along with defensive line coach Ray Hamilton, oversaw the Jaguars' defensive line. In 2005, Jacksonville led the NFL in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (four). In addition, the Jaguars ranked third (tied) with 47 quarterback sacks, sixth in total defense (290.9 yards) and 14th in rushing defense (106.8 yards). Defensive tackle Marcus Stroud earned a Pro Bowl appearance for the third straight time and defensive tackle John Henderson was an alternate in 2005 after making the team in 2004.

Howard, 44, has 14 years of experience coaching in college and five in the NFL, in addition to having played in the NFL for two seasons. For one month prior to joining the Jaguars, he was the associate head coach and co-defensive coordinator at Southwest Texas State. Howard spent three seasons (2000-2002) as the linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech, helping that school win the 2001 WAC title. Prior to that, he was a defensive assistant for two years (1998-1999) with the St. Louis Rams, who won the Super Bowl in Howard's second season. With the Rams, he assisted with the linebackers in the area of pass-rushing techniques, as well as working on defensive game preparation, film evaluation and quality control.

Howard began his coaching career in 1991 at Texas A&M and was a member of three Southwest Conference championship coaching staffs. He coached at Grinnell (Iowa)

College from 1994 through 1997, and served as the defensive coordinator in 1996 and 1997. In addition, he was a member of the NFL's minority coaching program with the Washington Redskins in their 1997 training camp, helping on defense. He also did a minority coaching internship with the San Diego Chargers in 2002.

Howard was a third-round draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1987 and played in the NFL for two seasons as an inside linebacker and on the special teams. He played for the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1991 and was on injured reserve throughout the 1992 season. Howard was an all-conference and honorable mention All-America at Texas A&M, where he started at linebacker for three seasons (1984-86) on teams which won a pair of conference titles.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Los Angeles, Central Valley.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Sociology from Texas A&M, 1991; Master's in Human Resources from Texas A&M, 1995; At UCLA: Fourth year (joined the staff in February of 2006); Born: February 18, 1965 in Bryan, TX; Family: Todd has three children, Trey, David and Ava.

TIM HUNDLEY
SECONDARY-1ST SEASON
WESTERN OREGON STATE '74

Tim Hundley, who has a long association with head coach Rick Neuheisel, rejoined the UCLA football staff in February of 2009. He will coach the secondary along with Carnell Lake. The new Bruin assistant spent seven seasons on Neuheisel's staffs at Colorado and Washington and both were assistants together at UCLA for four seasons.

In 2008, Hundley served as Assistant Head Coach/Defense at SMU. He spent the previous four years (2004-07) as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Texas – El Paso. In 2007, UTEP ranked 17th in the nation in turnover ratio at plus-nine and placed two players on the All-Conference USA squad. During his four-year stint, his Miner players captured a total of 10 All-Conference honors and one Defensive Player of the Year award. In 2005, Hundley was recognized by Scouts, Inc., as one of five coordinators nationally with the "best head-coaching potential."

Hundley, 58, has coached in 12 bowl games, including two Rose Bowls, and groomed 14 players who moved on to the National Football League, including Marquis Cooper (Seattle), Thomas Howard (Oakland), Michael Lewis (49ers), UCLA alum Ryan Neufeld (Buffalo Bills), Alex Obomese (Dallas) and Zach West (New England). In addition, Hundley recruited six players who garnered All-America honors at the collegiate level - David Kilson (Nevada), Andre Gurode (Colorado), Michael Lewis (Colorado), Cade McNown (UCLA), Sam Merriman (Idaho) and Jamir Miller (UCLA). He has also served as coordinator for two Coach of the Year selections – Dave Kragthorpe of Oregon State (Pac-10) in 1989 and Mike Price of UTEP (AFCA Region Four) in 2004.

Hundley's coaching resume includes 18 years as a defensive coordinator - two at Clackamas Community College (1975-76), one at Idaho (1979), six at Oregon State (1984-89), five at Washington (1998-03) and four at UTEP.

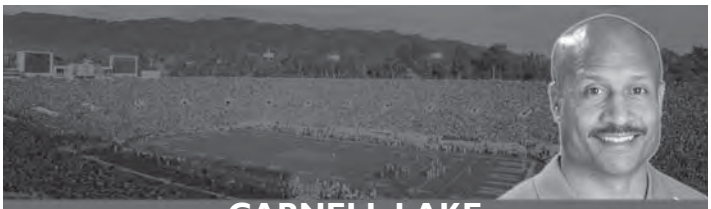
Hundley served as the defensive coordinator at Washington under Neuheisel from 1999-02, and as co-defensive coordinator for the Huskies in 2003. He tutored the outside linebackers from 1999-02 before overseeing the entire linebacking corps in 2003. He also supervised the punt coverage unit during his final season with the Huskies.

He began his coaching career in 1974 as a graduate assistant at Western Oregon State, his alma mater. He went on to stints at Clackamas Community College (1975-76), Idaho (1977-79) and Nevada (1980-81). In 1978, he coached the running backs at Idaho, marking the only time in his coaching career that he has spent time on the offensive side of the ball. In 1982, he began a long-running association with the Pac-10 Conference. He worked at Oregon State for eight years before enjoying six seasons (1990-95) at UCLA as inside linebackers coach and, in the latter three years, special teams coordinator. The 1993 staff also included Neuheisel, offensive line coach Bob Palcic and running backs coach Wayne Moses. Following three years on Neuheisel's staff at Colorado (1996-98), he followed Neuheisel to Washington.

Hundley was inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame after an All-America football career at Western Oregon State. He was a three-time All-Conference selection in college. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Western Oregon State in 1974, and added a master's degree in education from Idaho in 1978. Hundley lettered in football, baseball and basketball at Forest Grove High School.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES —San Diego, Pacific Northwest.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Education from Western Oregon State, 1974; Master's in Education from Idaho, 1978; At UCLA: First year of second term (joined the staff in February of 2009); Born: May 1, 1951 in Portland, OR; Family: Tim and his wife Pam, have two sons, Jake and Nick. Nick was a catcher on the Arizona baseball team that reached the 2004 College World Series. He is currently a member of the San Diego Padres. Jake earned his Doctorate in engineering at UCLA in 2009.



CARNELL LAKE
SECONDARY-1ST SEASON
UCLA '93

Former NFL All-Pro and Bruin All-American standout Carnell Lake will coach the secondary along with Tim Hundley in his first season on staff. Lake played on four straight bowl-winning teams at UCLA from 1985-88 and went on to enjoy a 13-year career as a player in the NFL with the Steelers, Jaguars and Ravens.

Lake, 42, was a three-year (1986-88) starting outside linebacker at UCLA and excelled both on the field and in the classroom. In Lake's senior campaign (1988), UCLA was 10-2 and Lake earned first-team All-America and All-Pac-10 honors on the field while making 78 tackles, including 12.5 for losses. He was named a semifinalist for the Butkus Award and Lombardi Trophy. Off the field, he earned a National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete award.

In his junior season (1987), UCLA also went 10-2 and Lake led the Pac-10 with 13.0 sacks, a UCLA school record total at the time, and earned first-team All-Pac-10 and second-team All-America acclaim.

During his four-year career, he made 45.5 tackles for loss, the No. 1 total in school history, and 25.5 sacks - No. 4 on that UCLA career chart. UCLA compiled a record of 37-9-2 during Lake's career and won all four bowl games (Rose, Freedom, Aloha, Cotton) in which he played.

Following his Bruin career, Lake was a second-round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1989 NFL Draft (No. 34 selection overall). He went on to play 13 seasons in the National Football League as a standout strong safety and cornerback, the first 10 with the Steelers plus one each with Jacksonville (1999, plus 2000 on injured reserve) and Baltimore (2001). While with the Steelers, he played in five Pro Bowls and earned first-team All-Pro acclaim in the 1997 season and second-team honors in four other seasons. He also played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys.

In Lake's first 11 seasons in the NFL, he missed just six regular-season games while starting all 170 games in which he played. Overall, he made 819 tackles, including 25 sacks, forced 15 fumbles and recovered 17, and made 16 interceptions. He scored five touchdowns, three on interceptions and two on fumble returns.

During his professional career, he played for four head coaches who each have led their teams to victory in a Super Bowl - Chuck Noll, Bill Cowher, Tom Coughlin, Brian Billick. While at Pittsburgh, the Steelers advanced to the NFL playoffs six times --- 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1997. Pittsburgh earned AFC Central titles in 1992, 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1997. The Steelers captured the AFC title in 1995. When he was with the Jaguars, Jacksonville won the AFC Central title in 1999 and lost in the AFC title game.

Prior to attending UCLA, Lake played football at Culver City, CA High School where he was a running back and linebacker. At one point in his senior prep season, Lake led the state in rushing after gaining 956 yards and scoring 12 touchdowns in four-and-one half games. He was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

Since his retirement from professional football following the 2001 season, Lake has worked in private business. He and his wife, Monica, have three children.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Los Angeles, Nevada.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Political Science from UCLA, 1993; At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in January of 2009); Born: July 15, 1967 in Salt Lake City, UT. Family: Carnell and his wife, Monica, have three children, Siena, Quentin and Austin.

REGGIE MOORE
WIDE RECEIVERS-2ND SEASON
UCLA '91

Former UCLA standout receiver Reggie Moore joined the staff in January of 2008 and is beginning his second season as wide receivers coach. This past season, Terrence Austin made 53 receptions, the most by a Bruin wide receiver since 2002, and several other young receivers continued to develop. Taylor Embree set UCLA true freshmen records for most receptions and most receiving yards in a game and for a season.

Prior to his return home, Moore spent four years (2004-07) coaching the wide receivers at North Dakota State University. The Bison posted an overall record of 35-9 during his tenure, including a 20-2 mark his last two seasons, highlighted by a 14-game winning streak. In three of the four seasons, NDSU averaged over 30 points per game, including a best of 39.5 ppg while on its way to a 10-1 mark in 2007.

The Bison notched wins over Central Michigan and Minnesota during that 2007 campaign, their first as a Division I program, on the way to earning a No. 9 national ranking in the Football Championship Subdivision Coaches and Sports Network final polls. The 2006 Bison team also won 10 games, including a victory at Ball State in which it passed for a school record total of 451 yards. NDSU captured the Great West Conference football championship and was ranked No. 5 in the nation in both final polls. The only blemish on the 2006 record was a one-point loss to Minnesota. In 2005, the Bison recorded a 7-4 mark. North Dakota State went 8-3 in 2004 and was ranked 23rd nationally in the final polls.

In the summer of 2004, Moore served an internship with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Washington (he was hired by Neuheisel but coached for Keith Gilbertson), working with the wide receivers. The Huskies went 6-6 and tied for fifth in the Pac-10 that season.

During his Bruin playing career (1987-90), Moore was a three-year starter at wide receiver, catching many of his balls from two of the top quarterbacks in UCLA history, Troy Aikman and Tommy Maddox. Moore still ranks No. 18 on UCLA's all-time list with his 92 career receptions and his 1,483 yards. He averaged 16.1 yards per catch and scored 10 touchdowns.

In 1990, Moore, 41, earned the Kenneth S. Washington Award for outstanding senior after leading the UCLA team with 40 receptions for 643 yards and three touchdowns. He had a big game in a win versus Stanford that season, catching eight balls for a career-best 133 yards. Reggie had a total of three 100-yard games in all, including a 122-yard effort in a 1988 win at California and a 105-yard game in a win at Washington, also in 1988. He earned honorable mention on the 1989 Pac-10 All-Academic team after catching 12 passes (tied for fifth on the team) for 181 yards and a touchdown. Moore was named to the 1988 first-team sophomore All-America squad by The Sporting News following a 38-catch (second on team) season in which he gained 627 yards and scored six touchdowns. His 48-yard touchdown reception from Aikman, with just 1:28 remaining in the game, was the winning margin in a 24-17 victory over Washington that season. Moore went on to play in the 1990 Blue-Gray Football Classic.

Following his collegiate career, Moore was a member of the New York Jets (1991-93) and the Los Angeles Rams (1993) as a wide receiver and return specialist. He then coached in the high school ranks at James Madison High School in Houston, Texas, for four seasons (1999-2002). He also served as a fire fighter and paramedic with the Houston Fire Department from 1996 to 2003 before joining the staff at the University of Washington.

Moore earned his BA in History from UCLA in 1991.

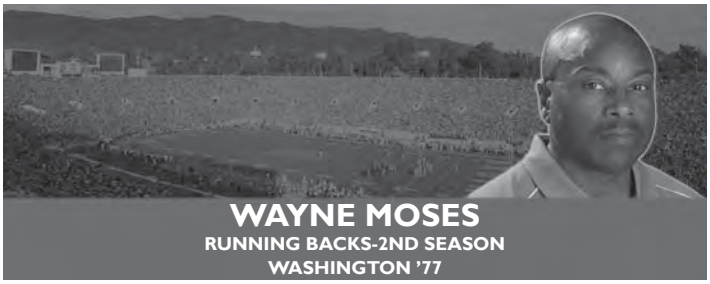
PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from UCLA, 1991; At UCLA: Second year (joined the staff in January of 2008); Born: March 23, 1968 in Houston, TX; Family: Reggie is single. Father, Zeke, played for the Houston Oilers from 1967-78 and appeared in two Pro Bowls.



WAYNE MOSES
RUNNING BACKS-2ND SEASON
WASHINGTON '77

A familiar coach in the Pac-10 Conference and to Bruin fans (1990-95 seasons in Westwood), Wayne Moses is set to begin his second season as UCLA's running backs coach. This area was hit hard by injuries last year, but the Bruins have several talented young backs ready to compete for playing time in 2009.

Moses spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the NFL as running backs coach for the St. Louis Rams. In 2007, Steven Jackson rushed for 1,002 yards. In 2006, Jackson earned his first Pro Bowl berth after rushing for a career-high 1,528 yards (third in the NFC, fifth in the NFL). Jackson also caught 90 passes, a total that led NFL running backs and was fourth in the NFC (tied for seventh in the NFL). Jackson's 2,334 yards from scrimmage led the NFL and his total of 105 first downs led the NFC and was second in the NFL. His 96 points tied for the NFC lead, and tied for third in the NFL, in scoring for non-kickers.

Prior to joining the Rams, Moses had a 28-year college coaching career, working with running backs at five Pacific-10 schools starting in 1990. He had tours of duty at UCLA (1990-95), California (1996), Washington (1997-2000), USC (2001), and Stanford (2002-03 and 2005). Moses spent 2004 at the University of Pittsburgh. Some of the great Pac-10 players who have worked under Moses include Karim Abdul-Jabbar, Kevin Williams, Skip Hicks, and Shawn Wills at UCLA, Deltha O'Neal and Tarik Smith at Cal, Willie Hurst and Rashawn Shehee at Washington, and Kenneth Tolan and Kerry Carter at Stanford.

Moses, worked with Bruin head coach Rick Neuheisel as fellow assistants at UCLA from 1990-93 and also worked for Neuheisel at Washington in 1999-2000. In their final year together, Washington won the conference title, went to the Rose Bowl and finished No. 3 in both of the final polls. In addition, he worked with offensive coordinator Norm Chow at USC in 2001. He also worked with offensive line coach Bob Palcic and secondary coach Tim Hundley at UCLA in 1993 when the Bruins won the Pac-10 title and played in the 1994 Rose Bowl.

In 2004, Moses was part of a Pittsburgh team that won the Big East Championship and advanced to a BCS Bowl for the first time in school history. The Panthers won six of their final seven regular season games to earn a Fiesta Bowl berth versus Utah.

While working at USC in 2001, he helped the Trojans finish 5-3 in the Pac-10 (6-6 overall) and advance to their first post-season bowl game after a two-year absence.

From 1997-2000, Moses was the running backs coach at his alma mater, Washington. The Huskies led the Pac-10 in rushing in 2000 (16th nationally) and went on to play in a bowl game each year (1997 Aloha Bowl, 1998 Oahu Bowl, 1999 Holiday Bowl and 2001 Rose Bowl).

He spent the 1996 season handling the running backs at California, helping the Golden Bears to their first bowl appearance in six years. Under head coach Steve Mariucci, the Bears finished the regular season 6-5 and played Navy in the Aloha Bowl.

Moses was the running backs coach at UCLA under Terry Donahue for six seasons (1990-95) and worked with coach Neuheisel for the first four. Abdul-Jabbar and Williams led the Pac-10 in rushing under Moses' tutelage while Hicks went on to earn All-America honors later in his career. In 1995, Abdul-Jabbar set UCLA's single-season rushing records and was named first-team All-America with Moses as his coach. The Bruins played in the 1991 Sun Bowl, 1994 Rose Bowl and 1995 Aloha Bowl while Moses was on staff. Five Bruin backs coached by Moses were selected in the NFL draft (Maury Toy, Kevin Smith, Williams, Abdul-Jabbar and Hicks).

Before moving to UCLA, he was the wide receivers coach at New Mexico in 1989. His top receiver that season, Terance Mathis, set NCAA career records for receptions and receiving yardage. Mathis went on to play 13 seasons in the NFL. From 1986-88, Moses coached at San Diego State. During his time there, Paul Hewitt led the nation in scoring in 1987 and the Aztecs played in the 1986 Holiday Bowl. In 1984-85, he worked for two seasons at Rutgers. Prior to that, Moses served as the running backs coach at Bowling Green University from 1981-83. BGSU played in the 1982 California Bowl.

Moses was at North Carolina State in 1980, where he worked with the defensive backs. In 1979, he was the running backs coach at Chaffey Junior College in Rancho Cucamonga, CA. Moses began his coaching career in 1978 as a graduate assistant at Cal State Fullerton, working with the defensive backs.

He was a coaching intern with the NFL's Los Angeles Raiders, Seattle Seahawks and Denver Broncos during the summers of 1990, 1993 and 1999, respectively.

Moses was a four-year (1973-74, 1976-77) letterman at Washington, where he started at cornerback his last two seasons. He was a member of the Huskies' 1978 Rose Bowl championship team.

He received his bachelor's degree in political science from Washington in 1977. He spent some time out of football when he was hired by the FBI to train as an agent at Quantico, Virginia. Moses played football and basketball at San Dimas (CA) High.

BOB PALCIC

ASSOC. HEAD COACH - OFFENSE/OFFENSIVE LINE-2ND SEASON
DAYTON '71

Bob Palcic is in his second season at UCLA after joining the coaching staff in January of 2008. In his first year, he helped develop a young group and worked through numerous injuries, starting nine different combinations in 12 games. Palcic spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons coaching the offensive line at the University of Wisconsin after 12 years in the National Football League.

Palcic possesses 39 years of coaching experience. He also coached in Westwood in the 1993 season when UCLA won the Pacific-10 championship and played in the 1994 Rose Bowl. The Bruin offensive line that season featured seniors Vaughn Parker and Craig Novitsky, both of whom earned All-America honors and played in the NFL. It also included sophomores Jonathan Ogden, 1995 Outland Trophy winner and NFL All-Pro, and Mike Flanagan, who was an NFL star for over a decade. UCLA head coach Rick Neuheisel was an assistant on that Bruin staff, as were current assistants Tim Hundley and Wayne Moses.

In 2007, Wisconsin finished 9-4 overall and played in the Outback Bowl. Led by the offensive line, the Badgers averaged 201.5 yards on the ground during the regular season (22nd in the NCAA). Center Marcus Coleman was a first-team All-Big 10 selection by the media, guard Kraig Urbik was a consensus second-team choice and tackle Gabe Carimi earned second-team Freshman All-America acclaim.

In 2006, he coached Outland Trophy winner and consensus All-America left tackle Joe Thomas at Wisconsin, which won 12 of 13 games. Thomas was the No. 3 pick in the 2007 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

Palcic, 61, went to Wisconsin from the NFL's New Orleans Saints, where he coached tight ends from 2000–05. His previous professional stops included coaching offensive line for the Cleveland Browns (1999), tutoring the tight ends for the Detroit Lions (1997–98) and coaching the offensive line for the Atlanta Falcons (1994–96).

Palcic went to the Falcons after spending 19 of the previous 21 seasons coaching offensive linemen at seven different universities, including Wisconsin. He coached the 1993 UCLA offensive line that matched up against the Badgers in the 1994 Rose Bowl. Palcic tutored the Southern California offensive line in 1992 and helped the Trojans to a Freedom Bowl appearance. He was offensive line coach at Ohio State from 1986–91, a period during which the Buckeyes played in two Hall of Fame Bowls, a Cotton Bowl and a Liberty Bowl.

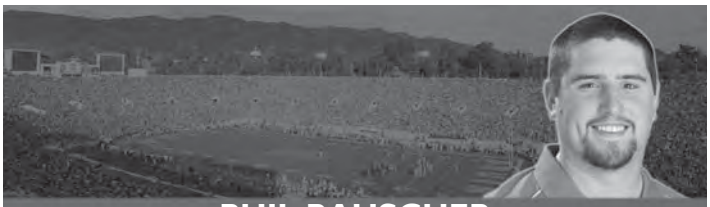
The University of Arizona's offensive line was under Palcic's direction from 1984–85 (the Wildcats played in the Sun Bowl during that time). A two-year stint (1982–83) with the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts (1983 Grey Cup title) was preceded by a four-year (1978–81) stop as Wisconsin's offensive line coach under head coach Dave McClain.

Palcic was Ball State's offensive line coach in 1976–77 (he went to Wisconsin with McClain, who was Ball State's head coach) and Dayton's linebackers/offensive line coach in 1974–75. He got his college coaching start guiding Ball State's linebackers as a graduate assistant in 1973.

Among the college players Palcic has coached are: former Baltimore Raven All-Pro tackle Jonathan Ogden (No. 4 pick in the 1996 NFL Draft), third-team All-American and NFL veteran (Green Bay and Houston) Mike Flanagan and first-team All-American and 11-year NFL player Vaughn Parker (all of UCLA); All-America tackle Tony Boselli (USC); first-team All-Big Ten offensive linemen Bob Maggs, Jeff Uhlenhake, Joe Staysniak, Jeff Davidson and Alan Kline (all at Ohio State); All-American Ray Snell and 2006 Outland Trophy winner Joe Thomas (Wisconsin).

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Orange County.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Education from Dayton, 1971, Master's in Education from Dayton, 1974; At UCLA: Second year of second tenure (joined the staff in January of 2008); Born: July 2, 1948 in Gowanda, N.Y. Family: Bob and his wife Theresa, have three children: Joe (currently the defensive coordinator at Indiana); Amy (Director of Marketing and Public Relations for Premier Sports & Entertainment) and Monica, who is married to New Orleans Saints LB Mark Simoneau.



PHIL RAUSCHER

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT-2ND SEASON
UCLA '07

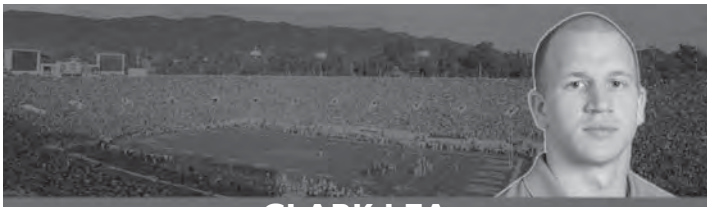
Phil Rauscher is in his second year as a graduate assistant coach. This season, he will again assist offensive coordinator Norm Chow and also work with the tight ends. His duties will include breaking down opponents' game video, aiding the coaches with game preparation and directing the defensive scout team.

Rauscher, who graduated from UCLA in June of 2007 with a degree in History, served as an intern in 2007, working with the offensive coaches and helping recruit a Top 10 class to Westwood this past February. In 2006, he served as an undergraduate assistant coach, working with the offensive line. That year, UCLA upset USC 13-9.

He entered UCLA in the Fall of 2003 and was a member of the football team for three seasons as both an offensive and defensive lineman before becoming an undergraduate student coach.

Rauscher played several positions, including linebacker, defensive end, offensive line and running back at LaCosta (CA) Canyon High School, earning various honors. He graduated from LaCosta Canyon in 2003.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from UCLA, 2007; At UCLA: Third year on staff, second as a graduate assistant coach; Born: June 2, 1985 in Fontana, CA; Family: Phil is the son of Ken and Debbie Rauscher and he has one brother, Glenn, who is a redshirt sophomore tight end for the Bruins.



CLARK LEA

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT-2ND SEASON
VANDERBILT '05

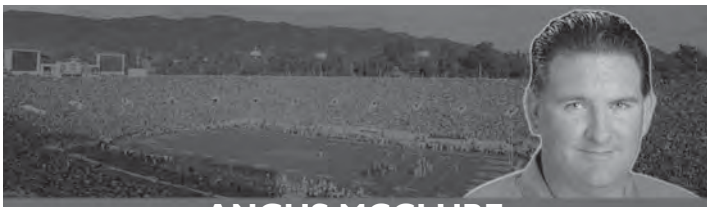
Clark Lea is in his second season as a graduate assistant with the football program, having worked as the defensive graduate assistant during the 2006 season. His duties include working with the linebackers and aiding the coaches with game preparation.

For the past two seasons (2007 and 2008), he served as linebackers coach at South Dakota State University and was recruiting coordinator the past year. He also coached the kickoff coverage unit and assisted with other special teams units. In 2008, the Jackrabbits finished 7-5, playing six teams ranked in the Top 25, and placed third in league play with a 6-2 record. Lea also oversaw the efforts that yielded a recruiting class of 18 in February. In 2007, his three starting linebackers ranked among the top four tacklers in the league and South Dakota State won the Great West Football Conference championship. Two of his players were first-team All-League selections and the third was a second-team choice.

In 2005, he served as an intern for the UCLA staff and was also an assistant football coach at Harvard-Westake High School.

Prior to UCLA, Lea served as an offensive graduate assistant (running backs) at Vanderbilt University in the Spring of 2005. Lea was a three-year letterwinner at Vanderbilt University from 2002-04, the final year as a graduate student, and was a baseball letterman at Belmont University in 2001-02 and Birmingham Southern College in 2000-01. During his collegiate career, Lea was a member of the SEC Honor Roll and an All-Academic SEC honoree. He was also a John Wooden Cup finalist, a trophy awarded by Athletes for a Better World, and a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame honoree.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Political Science from Vanderbilt University, 2005; Master's in Political Science from Vanderbilt University, 2007; At UCLA: Second year on staff (began second tenure in February of 2009); Born: November 11, 1981; Family: The son of Clark and Pam Lea, he has two sisters, Eva and Elizabeth.



ANGUS MCCLURE

DIRECTOR OF ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING-3RD YEAR
SACRAMENTO STATE '95

Angus McClure is in his third season as a member of the Bruin staff and his second in an administrative position. In 2009, he is again serving as the Director of On-Campus Recruiting for football. He coached the Bruin tight ends in 2007.

In his current position, McClure's duties include recruiting administration and organization; current roster and scholarship management, managing all official and unofficial visits; tracking all recruiting paperwork, including transcripts, serving as liaison to college All-Star game representatives; liaison with pro scouts; and other assignments from the head coach.

This past February, UCLA's recruiting class was ranked in the Top 10 by most recruiting services, including a No. 5 ranking from Scout.com.

McClure came to UCLA after serving as the offensive line/run game coordinator on Turner Gill's staff at the University of Buffalo during the 2006 season. Buffalo scored more points (201) in conference games than any other member of the Mid-American Conference East Division. Running back James Starks earned second-team All-MAC honors in 2006 and was an honorable mention Freshman All-American by The Sporting News. Center Jamey Richards, whom he coached, was drafted in the seventh round by the Indianapolis Colts and started at left guard and center as a rookie.

McClure spent the two previous seasons (2004-2005) as an assistant on Bill Callahan's staff at the University of Nebraska. McClure assisted with the offensive line, coaching the offensive tackles, as well as serving in several special teams roles. During that time, Nebraska defeated Michigan in the Alamo Bowl. He coached lineman Matt Slauson, who earned Freshman All-America honors and became a sixth-round draft choice of the New York Jets. He also coached lineman Lydon Murtha, a seventh-round selection by the Detroit Lions.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, McClure played a major role in record-breaking offenses at Sacramento State University, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive line coach from 1997-2003. During his tenure at Sacramento State, the Hornets set 52 NCAA Division I-AA, Big Sky Conference or school records. He coached 20 All-Big Sky conference honorees and had six of his players sign NFL contracts. One of McClure's pupils, Lonie Paxton of the New England Patriots, has collected three Super Bowl rings since moving to the NFL, while Marko Cavka was a sixth-round selection by the New York Jets. In addition, five Sacramento State players earned All-American honors and four were chosen to participate in college all-star games. In his seven seasons at Sacramento State, the Hornets led the Big Sky in rushing four times (1998, 1999, 2000, 2002).

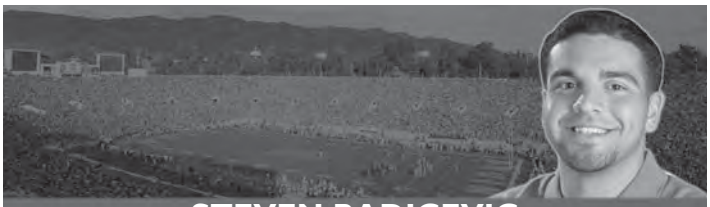
In 1996, McClure coached tight ends at the University of Nevada. He helped the Wolfpack to the Big West title, a 9-3 record, and the Las Vegas Bowl championship. His tight ends produced a school record 13 touchdowns during the season. That year, Nevada led Division I-A with 527.3 yard per game of total offense and topped the Big West Conference in both rushing and passing.

From the winter of 1995 to the spring of 1996, he served as offensive line / run game coordinator at American River College. McClure helped create the offensive playbook and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

In addition, McClure has served as a guest coach in several NFL camps over the years, including the Buffalo Bills (2007, 2006), San Francisco 49ers (2002, 2000, 1999, 1998, 1997, 1996), Seattle Seahawks (1998) and San Diego Chargers (1997).

A graduate of Sacramento State, where he played football from 1987-91, McClure also served as a member of the faculty there from 1997-2004. He was a member of the 1988 Hornet team that advanced to the NCAA Division II championship semifinals with an offense which averaged 486.0 yards per game. He began his coaching career at McClatchy High School in Sacramento as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1992-95 while also coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Liberal Studies from Sacramento State, 1995; At UCLA: Third year/second in administration (joined the staff in June of 2007); Born: December 9, 1968 in San Francisco, CA; Family: Angus and his wife Erin have two sons, Hamish (10) and Malcolm (5).



STEVEN RADICEVIC

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS-2ND YEAR
UCLA '07

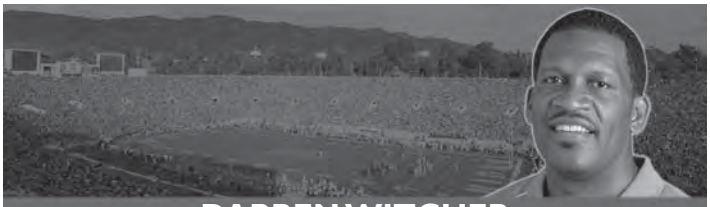
Steven Radicevic (formerly Steven Urrutia) is in his first season as director of football operations after serving as assistant director of football operations in 2008. His duties include overseeing all day-to-day operations for the football program; arranging camps, clinics, pro day and the daily schedule; serving as the football liaison with the athletic department and handling all issues pertaining to incoming student-athletes (transcripts, applications, housing). He will also work with assistant coach Reggie Moore on alumni-player relations.

In 2007, he worked as an undergraduate coach after having his playing career end due to a back injury. He assisted the defense, working with the line, coached the scout team offensive line and also directed offensive scout team meetings. He also helped organize recruiting efforts in Florida, Texas, Louisiana and Southern California.

Radicevic redshirted in 2006, practicing on the defensive line. He transferred to UCLA in January of 2006 from UC Davis, where he played offensive tackle for two (2003 and 2004) seasons. He did not play in 2005 prior to his transfer.

Radicevic grew up in Culver City, CA and attended El Segundo, CA High. As a senior, he earned All-CIF and All-League honors and was his team's co-MVP. He also played basketball and served as captain in both sports. As a junior, he helped lead El Segundo to a record of 27-4, as well as the CIF finals and the second round of the State tournament.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Psychology from UCLA, Dec. 2007; At UCLA: First year in current position; Born: February 10, 1985 in Key West, FL; Family: Son of Alexandra Radicevic; has one sister, Stephanie, a sophomore at Arizona.



DARREN WITCHER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT-2ND YEAR
WASHINGTON '84

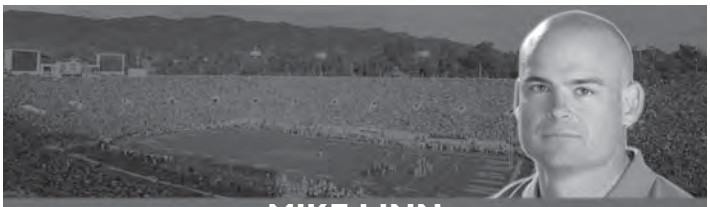
Darren Witcher joined the UCLA football program in May of 2008 as Director of Football Operations and is now Director of Player Development. He works with the players, coaches and athletic department staff in the implementation of the team's player development program. His duties include handling all off-field issues for the players, such as housing and jobs for graduating seniors, and serving as liaison with the academic services areas, community service and student-athlete development. In short, he is a one-stop resource for the players.

Witcher, a longtime high school assistant football coach in the state of Washington, had worked in the Seattle area for over 18 years as a project manager for aerospace giant Boeing prior to coming to UCLA. A former student-athlete at the University of Washington, Witcher kept his love of football alive while serving as an assistant coach at Seattle area high schools (Franklin, Garfield and Rainier Beach).

Prior to coming to Westwood, Witcher coached for the previous nine seasons at Rainier Beach High and also headed up the school's National Football Foundation-sponsored "Play It Smart" program. "Play It Smart" seeks to transform the student-athlete's passion for their sport and dedication to their team into a force for greater good in their lives through a combination of academic assistance, mentoring and community service.

Witcher played defensive back at the University of Washington for coach Don James during the 1979-82 seasons. The Huskies posted an overall record of 39-9 and appeared in four straight bowls in that stretch, including the 1981 and 1982 Rose Bowl games. He suffered a career-ending knee injury as a senior.

PERSONAL — Education: Fulfilled degree requirements from Washington, 1984 (Sociology), Master's Certificate in Project Management from George Washington, 2001; At UCLA: Second year, started May 2008; Born: December 21, 1960 in Philadelphia, PA; Family: Darren and his wife, Grace, have three girls, Aysia, Kaysha and Kiarra.



MIKE LINN

HEAD ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE COACH-12th YEAR
UCLA '93

Mike Linn is in the second year of his second tenure as UCLA's head athletic performance coach. The Bruins made great strides last year thanks to Linn's training methods and use of cutting-edge technology.

Linn, who has both collegiate and corporate experience, previously served as the Bruin head strength and conditioning coach from 1999-2002. The 1993 UCLA graduate was a two-year starter along the offensive line on the Bruin football team and a member of two Bruin bowl teams.

In addition to working directly with football, he oversees all operations in UCLA's 15,000-square foot weight room. He is joined by a highly-accredited staff, including assistant coaches Craig Sowers, Ray Weisenbarger, Jon Fussell, Jill Robinson and Wes Long.

Linn is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength Coaches Association, as well as a Level One weightlifting coach. A national speaker in his field, he is also a published author in the field of human performance.

Linn rejoined the Bruin program in February of 2007 after serving as the Vice President of Performance for Velocity Sports Performance since 2006. While at Velocity Sports Performance, he worked to develop training programs for its 63 franchise locations and over 20,000 athletes nationwide. In addition, Linn supervised the training and professional development for a network of over 700 coaches. Linn was also instrumental in launching several key initiatives with Velocity's national partners Gatorade, Nike and the National Strength and Conditioning Association during his tenure.

From 2005-2006, Linn served as the Director of the Velocity Sports Performance franchise in St. Louis, MO. While at the St. Louis location, he collaborated on the training, injury prevention and rehabilitation of over 500 area athletes. He also directed professional athlete development programs for numerous NFL, MLB, NHL and MLS athletes.

Linn's collegiate experience includes a stint from 2002-2005 as the Director of Strength and Conditioning at St. Louis University. At SLU, he was responsible for all aspects of athletic performance for the over 350 student-athletes at the university that participated in 16 Division I sports.

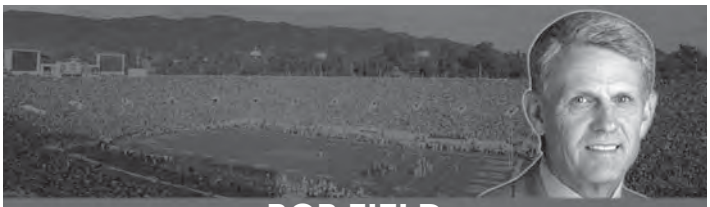
Mike previously served as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at UCLA from 1999-2002. While managing all areas of the strength and conditioning department for over 700 student-athletes, Linn designed and administered weight training, conditioning, agility, plyometric and speed development programs for football and basketball.

Prior to becoming the head of the UCLA program in 1999, he worked with the Olympic sports teams as an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 1992-99. Five of his Bruin teams captured national championships during his tenure as an assistant (men's volleyball, men's water polo (2), men's soccer and women's softball). In addition, the women's basketball team won its first Pac-10 Championship and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA tournament.

Linn came to UCLA as a freshman recruit in 1987 after starring as an offensive lineman and track and field performer at Esperanza High School in Orange County, CA. He was named the No. 17 prep lineman in the country by one publication and earned Tacoma News Tribune and Long Beach Press Telegram Best in the West team honors. Linn was also a school record-holder and All-CIF performer in the discus.

The 1993 UCLA graduate was a member of two bowl teams and a starter in two seasons. The Bruins averaged 164 yards on the ground during Linn's starts at right guard, including one of UCLA's all-time best efforts of 358 yards versus Arizona in 1991. He also was a starter for UCLA's stunning upset at No. 2-ranked Washington in the 1990 season. One of the top Bruins in the weight room as a player, Linn set a team-high in the three main lifts -- squat, bench, and clean -- of 1,366 pounds during his junior season. Following the conclusion of his playing days, Mike served as a undergraduate assistant coach during the 1992 season at UCLA.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's of Arts, UCLA, 1993; At UCLA: Second year of second tenure (joined staff in February, 2007) - 12th year overall; Born: November 7, 1969; Family: Linn is married to the former Karen Nelson, a UCLA gymnast who was a two-time All-American in the Vault and the 1994 Pac-10 Vault champion. They have two children, Kylie and Ryker.



BOB FIELD

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL-31ST YEAR
ARKANSAS '71

Bob Field is an associate athletic director and has served as a member of UCLA's athletic administration since January of 2001.

Field oversees men's and women's golf and women's rowing and serves as an aide to Dan Guerrero in all football matters. He was instrumental in the coaching search that resulted in the selection of Rick Neuheisel. Field also oversees housing, parking, training table, video services, agent relations and coaches' development.

Prior to his switch to administration, Field spent 22 seasons as an assistant coach with the Bruin football team. He was the assistant head coach during his final five seasons (1996-2000) and served as defensive coordinator for 16 seasons (1982-95 and 1999-2000) while tutoring outside linebackers, place kickers and defensive backs at various times in his career.

Field has been at UCLA since 1978, with the exception of the 1980 season. Over the years, he tutored some of the top athletes in school history and crafted numerous defenses ranked in the Top 20 in various categories.

He began his coaching career under the legendary Bear Bryant at Alabama (1971-72) and moved to Mississippi State in 1973. During his five-year tenure at MSU, he coached the secondary and served as defensive coordinator in his final four seasons with the Bulldogs.

Field earned a Bachelor's degree in Science Education at Arkansas in 1971 and was named to the All-Southwest Conference Academic Team his senior year. He was a three-year varsity letterman and two-year starter in the secondary. In his three varsity seasons, the Razorbacks were 28-5. As a player and coach, Field participated in 20 bowl games, including one Orange, two Sugar, three Cotton, two Fiesta and five Rose Bowls. During his tenure at UCLA, the Bruins recorded eight consecutive bowl wins, eight straight wins over USC and won or tied for seven Pac-10 championships.

PERSONAL — He is married to Valorie Kondos Field, UCLA's current women's gymnastics coach. He has three sons: Kyle, Brian and Michael. Brian and his wife Carmell have a daughter, Selah, 1.

TONY PERRI

DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS-25TH YEAR
UCLA '84

Tony Perri is in his fourth year as the Director of Equipment Operations at UCLA and his 25th as a full-time staff member in the equipment room (Feb. 1985). He also worked part-time as a student employee. He is responsible for overseeing the purchasing, fitting, maintenance, and distribution of equipment for all 24 of UCLA's athletic teams. Perri works primarily with the football and men's basketball squads.

In addition, Perri supervises the student manager program along with his equipment staff - Pete Maglieri, Sean Markus, Phil Hollenbaugh, Scott Whittum and Eddie Valencia.

Perri is also responsible for managing an annual equipment budget of over $1.5 million. He and his staff are in charge of coordinating the equipment and apparel needs for the football program's practices, games and travel.

Perri is a certified member of AEMA and was the AEMA District Equipment Manager of the Year in 1999. A former Bruin baseball player (1980-83) who earned his BA in 1984, Perri and his wife Lenora have two children, Bryan and Laureen.

KEN NORRIS
VIDEO COORDINATOR-21ST YEAR

Ken Norris is in his 21st year as UCLA's Director of Video Operations. Norris and his staff are responsible for recording the practices and games of the UCLA football team. They work with the coaching staff and provide them with specialized footage or "cut-ups" of the team and opponents for coaching, scouting, and game-planning purposes.

Ken "The Godfather" Norris is considered one of the most innovative and respected minds in his profession and was named National Video Coordinator of the Year by his peers in the Collegiate Sports Video Association. One of Norris' latest projects has been the development and implementation of the I2 Internet Exchange Program in the Pacific-10 Conference. This venture now allows the Conference's 10 football programs to exchange coaching films through the internet, bypassing the use of videotape. This rapid exchange of film means teams can now acquire the opposition's films more quickly, providing coaches with valuable additional time to scout and prepare for upcoming games. Norris is currently assisting other sports and other athletic conferences in implementing the I2 Program in their respective sports.

Norris and his staff are also responsible for filming instructional and highlight footage for almost every UCLA Athletic program. They create many of the teams' year-end highlight films. He is assisted by full-time staff members Eric Kowal and Tony Gentile and students Ethan Tussey, Phil Izdebzki, Eddie Kim, David Godoy, Forrest Lockwood and Robert Ledo.

Norris began his career working for the NFL's Los Angeles Rams at age 13 splicing and editing 16mm film. Norris came to UCLA in 1989, replacing legendary cinematographer Stan Troutman after his retirement from the university.

He and his wife, Joan, have two children, Travis (age 18) and Chelsea (16).

SCOTT MITCHELL
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR-MARKETING & NEW REVENUES
26TH YEAR-UTAH '81

Scott Mitchell oversees the UCLA Marketing Department, which consists of full-time staff members Jana Suko, Ryan Eklund and Sei Furutani; several full-time interns; 12 graduate and undergraduate students and 10 to 15 telemarketing representatives.

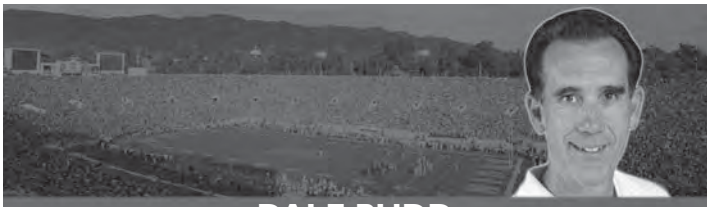
Mitchell's areas of responsibility include UCLA ticket sales, alternative revenue generation, brand marketing, advertising and promotion for 24 Bruin sports teams, website overview, liaison with licensing and apparel, liaison with spirit support and the band, and oversight for UCLA's community relations programs "I'm Going To College", "Athletics for Youth", "Adopt A Classroom" and "Read to Succeed".

Both football and men's basketball revenues have increased to record numbers in each of the past five years. Season ticket sales and attendance have increased dramatically during Mitchell's tenure. The 2008 season marked the first time in UCLA history that over a half-million fans watched the Bruins play at the Rose Bowl.

Mitchell is the founder of the "I'm Going To College" program, the nation's largest collegiate community outreach program, which now impacts 50,000 youngsters annually. He was the creator of the "Supershot", the student promotion that runs at halftime of every UCLA basketball game, and behind the formation of "The Den", UCLA's student/fan support group. Mitchell is responsible for the tagline, "Champions Made Here", which UCLA has built into a multi-year branding campaign.

Mitchell is the Chair of Marketing for NCAA Football's Promotions and Brand Marketing Committee. He has been a member of the five-person Pac-10 Properties Board since its inception. He has served in a number of leadership and administrative roles on behalf of UCLA and the Pac-10 Conference over the past 20 years.

Mitchell, a 1981 graduate of the University of Utah and a former student athlete (baseball), is the father of three children, Windy, Courtney and Kelsey.



DALE RUDD
DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE-14TH YEAR
CAL STATE NORTHRIDGE '75

Dale Rudd, who has more than 30 years of experience in intercollegiate athletics, is in his 14th year as UCLA's Director of Sports Medicine. He oversees the operation of UCLA's men's and women's coed training room.

Rudd leads a center that offers Bruin athletes a comprehensive program entailing injury prevention; recognition, evaluation and management of injuries; rehabilitation and reconditioning following injury or surgery; and education and counseling. In addition, the staff and facilities of the UCLA Medical Center, one of the world's best medical teaching facilities, are heavily utilized in the treatment of the student-athletes.

In Spring of 2003, the athletic training staff moved into a new state-of-the-art facility as part of the Acosta Center project.

Rudd returned to UCLA in May of 2003 from the University of California, where he served as head athletic trainer for one year. Prior to that, he was an athletic trainer and rehabilitation specialist with El Dorado Physical Therapy in El Dorado Hills, CA for a year. He also served as head athletic trainer at Stanford from 1997-2001, head athletic trainer at UCLA from 1990-97 and head athletic trainer at Pepperdine from 1988-90.

In addition, Rudd has had management positions on athletic training staffs at Purdue (1985-88), Cal State Northridge (1982-85), UNLV (1978-82) and U.S. International (1977-78).

He served on the NATA Appropriate Medical Coverage Task Force, and he is past chair of the Pac-10 Athletic Trainer Committee (1994-96) and past co-chair of the Pac-10 Student-Athlete Health Care Conference (1999).

The Athletic Training and Rehabilitation Center is a coed facility staffed by Certified Athletic Trainers, including Steve Agee, Lorita Granger, Tandice Hawkey, Kristin Lage, April McKinney, Laef Morris, James Smuda, Tony Spino and head football trainer Anthony Venute. They are assisted by 30 student athletic trainers.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's (Magna Cum Laude) from Cal State Northridge, 1976; Master's of Science in Exercise and Sport Science from Arizona, 1977; At UCLA: Seventh year (named head trainer in May of 2003; previously UCLA's head trainer for seven years - June 1990 - Spring 1997); Born: February 4, 1953 in Tucson, AZ; Family: Wife, Stacie; Daughter, Caitlin.

ANTHONY VENUTE
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL-1ST SEASON
UCLA '02

Anthony Venute joined the UCLA athletic training staff in May of 2005. A UCLA graduate, he is set to begin his fifth season working with Bruin football and his first as the head athletic trainer for the team.

While his duties at UCLA have been primarily with the football team, Anthony has also worked with the women's water polo squad and the women's golf program. He was a student athletic trainer at UCLA as an undergraduate while pursuing his degree in Physiological Science and assisted with the football and softball teams from 1999-2001.

Venute earned his Masters degree in Kinesiology with an emphasis in Athletic Training from Michigan State where he served as a graduate assistant from 2002-04 on the athletic training staff for the sports of football and baseball. He then went on to perform an intership with the Buffalo Bills training staff during the 2004-05 NFL season. Venute gained additional NFL experience during the summer of 2001 when he was an intern on the training staff of the Cleveland Browns.

Anthony has been NATA (National Athletic Trainers' Association) certified since 2002.

The Bruins begin year two of the Rick Neuheisel Era by adding a second consecutive Top Ten recruiting class to a mix which features 45 returning lettermen, including 18 starters. Neuheisel and his coaches are anxious to get on the field to begin shaping the 2009 squad.

"I expect us to be much improved on offense this season," said the Bruin head coach. "While our record was not what we wanted it to be a year ago, a lot of players saw action and most of them are back. With a year in the system and our offensive staff, led by coordinator Norm Chow, intact, we feel we are ready to move forward. There was great competition at virtually every position during Spring drills and it will be fun to watch it all come together this Fall.

"Defensively, our philosophy and system remain basically the same as the past three years, although new coordinator Chuck Bullough will add his personal nuances. We have six returning starters plus several other players with starting experience. I know we are going to be stronger and faster than a year ago.

"Special teams should be a strength for us again in 2009. We have perhaps the top kicker in the nation in Kai Forbath and one of the best kick returners in Terrence Austin. Frank Gansz, Jr. is one of the top special teams coaches at any level and we will continue to grow in this area."

Offensively, UCLA returns several major contributors from last season. The top two wide receivers in terms of receptions -- Terrence Austin (53) and Taylor Embree (40) -- are back as is tight end Ryan Moya, who made 38 catches while starting just two games. Austin ranked seventh in the Pac-10 with 4.4 receptions per game. Kevin Craft started all 12 games at quarterback and completed 232 passes, the second-highest total in school history.

In the backfield, Derrick Coleman was the team's second-leading rusher (284) and Chane Moline ranked third (118). On the line, six players who started at least five games -- Jeff Baca, Jake Dean, Nick Ekbatani, Mike Harris, Micah Kia and Darius Savage -- return more experienced, although Harris and Savage were unable to compete during Spring drills. In addition, 2007 starters Logan Paulsen (tight end) and Trevor Theriot (fullback) are expected to return to the lineup following injuries. A top candidate at right tackle, Sean Sheller, enjoyed a very productive Spring. Numerous youngsters will also compete for playing time and starting jobs at various positions during Fall drills.

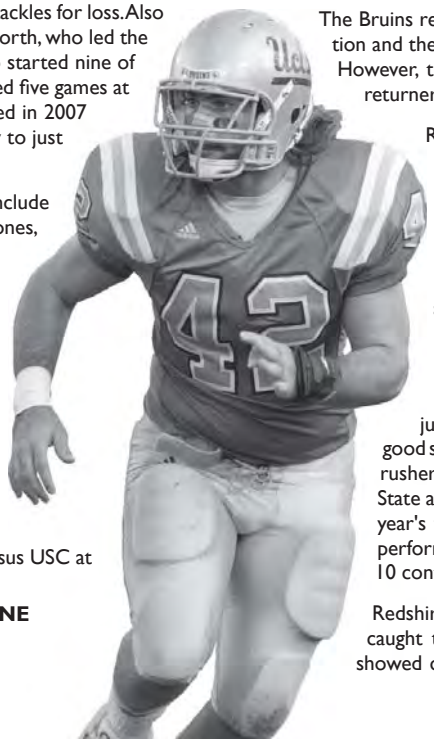
Defensively, UCLA returns six starters, plus a 2007 starter and several other key performers from a unit that ranked eighth nationally in pass defense (167.67) and 47th in total defense (337.4).

Among the returning starters are three players considered to be among the best to play their positions in the country -- senior linebacker Reggie Carter, who made 83 tackles, including 20.0 at Brigham Young; senior cornerback Alterraun Verner, who led the nation in passes defensed and ranked second on the squad with 73 tackles; junior tackle Brian Price, who led the team with 14.0 tackles for loss. Also returning to help key the defense are senior end Korey Bosworth, who led the team with 7.5 sacks; sophomore linebacker Steve Sloan, who started nine of the final 10 games; and junior end Reginald Stokes, who started five games at end. In addition, senior linebacker Kyle Bosworth, who started in 2007 and made 74 tackles, is also back after being limited by injury to just two games in 2008.

Other players set to return who possess starting experience, include sophomore linebacker Akeem Ayers, sophomore end Datone Jones, junior tackle Jess Ward and senior safety Aaron Ware.

On special teams, junior Kai Forbath, who ranked ninth (tied) in the NCAA in field goals per game (1.58), and Terrence Austin, who set a school record for all-purpose yards a year ago, lead the returnees. The Bruins ranked second in the conference in kickoff returns and third in net punting last season.

The schedule features a trip to Tennessee of the SEC and home games versus Kansas State of the Big XII and San Diego State from the Mountain West Conference in the first three weeks. Five of the nine Pac-10 conference games are on the road this season, beginning with a game at Stanford on October 3 and culminating with the regular-season finale versus USC at the L.A. Coliseum on November 28.



CHANE MOLINE

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACK

The Bruin coaching staff is looking for the quarterback position to provide a consistent level of production and efficiency in the second year in the system.

Redshirt freshman KEVIN PRINCE (6-2, 219) emerged from Spring Practice leading the competition at quarterback. He performed well during the session, showing a fine grasp of the offensive playbook. Prince also displayed the strongest arm and the most consistency among the candidates and possesses a bit of mobility. Although he redshirted in 2008 and has no game experience, he was an active participant at all of last season's practices, moving up to the second unit at one point before a decision was made to preserve his season of eligibility.

Redshirt senior KEVIN CRAFT (6-4, 211) went from junior college transfer in April of 2008 to starting quarterback in September after injuries sent Patrick Cowan and Ben Olson to the sidelines. Learning the system on the fly, he started all 12 games. Craft led exciting comeback victories against Tennessee and versus Stanford and went on to complete 232 passes, the second-highest total in school history. On the flip side, he set a UCLA record with 20 interceptions and had six returned for scores. He will battle the other challengers at the position for playing time.

True freshman RICHARD BREHAUT (6-2, 222) entered school for Spring Quarter and was able to participate in Spring drills. He played well throughout the four-week session, working hard to learn the playbook. One of the top prep quarterbacks in the 2008 class, Brehaut completed 165 of 261 passes for 2,406 yards and 19 touchdowns with just four interceptions at Los Osos High School as a senior. He also ran for 525 yards and six scores.

Redshirt freshman NICK CRISSMAN (6-3, 207) figures to add depth to the position. He was sidelined last season due to a torn labrum in his throwing shoulder that required surgery. He was able to participate in Spring Practice, although he was somewhat limited during the session. As a prep senior in 2007, he totaled 2,048 yards passing.

"We have to play the quarterback position better than we did a year ago and I am confident that we will," said coach Neuheisel. "Kevin Prince was impressive at times in Spring Practice. We put him through the paces and he responded well. It will be interesting to measure his progress and growth as he digests it all when we return in the fall. Kevin Craft was a warrior last year. He did everything we asked of him and I am sure that a year's experience will benefit him going forward. Having Richard here in the Spring enabled us to jump start his development. He was thrown right into the fire and showed he has what it takes to play the position. We will also keep an eye on Nick's progress."

RUNNING BACK

The Bruins return several scholarship candidates at the tailback position and the competition figures to be intense right through the fall. However, the tailbacks total just one start between them. Three returners are back at fullback.

Redshirt junior CHRISTIAN RAMIREZ (6-2, 222) has impressed the coaching staff in practices, but saw his Spring action limited by a hamstring injury. A gifted athlete with size and speed, he missed the 2008 season due to academic issues. In the Fall of 2007, Ramirez made the move from safety and rushed for 98 yards on 19 attempts (5.2 average). He gained 55 yards on five attempts at Stanford and 26 yards on four carries in the Las Vegas Bowl.

True sophomore DERRICK COLEMAN (6-0,235) is the most experienced of the tailback candidates, despite having just one year in the program. Coleman, who also offers a good speed and size combination, was the team's second-leading rusher in 2008 with 284 yards, including 86 yards versus Fresno State and three other games of at least 40 yards. He missed the year's first two contests while recovering from knee surgery performed early in 2008 Fall camp and went on to see action in 10 contests and make one start (Washington).

Redshirt freshmen JOHNATHAN FRANKLIN (5-10, 201) caught the eye of the coaches with an impressive Spring. He showed quickness to the point of attack and an excellent burst.

Franklin was named co-offensive winner of the 2008 Charles Pike Memorial Award for Outstanding Scout Team Player and earned high school All-America honors.

Redshirt freshman MILTON KNOX (5-8, 202) will also compete at tailback. Knox, who played well during Spring Practice, was co-offensive winner of the 2008 Charles Pike Memorial Award for Outstanding Scout Team Player. In 2007, he earned prep All-America honors.

Redshirt senior CRAIG SHEPPARD (6-0, 205), who rushed for 133 yards and two touchdowns in 2007, is also in the mix for playing time.

True senior CHANE MOLINE (6-1, 247) shifted to fullback early last season and enters the Fall as the leader at that position. He ranked third on the squad with his 118 rushing yards. He also made 11 receptions for 98 yards and one score and saw action in UCLA's one-back alignment. Moline totaled a career-best 72 yards rushing on 11 carries in last season's contest versus Arizona.

Redshirt senior TREVOR THERIOT (6-0, 235) filled the role of starting fullback in 2007 but suffered a knee injury in practice that sidelined him for the 2008 season after just three games. He is expected to be at full speed for the Fall. Redshirt junior TOBI UMODU (5-11, 236), who made the move from linebacker last Spring, figures to provide depth at fullback after seeing action in two games in 2008.

Fullback JAYSON ALLMOND (6-0, 266) from Fontana, CA and tailbacks DALTON HILLIARD (6-0, 194) from Honolulu, HI and DAMIEN THIGPEN (5-8, 170) from Gainesville, VA, will join the team in August. Allmond is a bruising blocker and runner. Hilliard is an all-purpose performer and Thigpen has great speed.

"We have a lot of talent and depth in the backfield and it will be fun to watch them continue to push each other each day at practice in the battle for playing time," Neuheisel said. "We do not have a lot of experienced players at tailback, but we think Christian has the ability to become a special back. Derrick played very well as a true freshman and Milton and Johnathan both performed well on our scout team. It will be interesting to evaluate this group every day leading up to the season. At fullback, Chane and Trevor give us a nice combination with a ton of experience."

WIDE RECEIVER

The wide receiver position returns multiple players with experience, including two who made at least 30 receptions a year ago.

True senior TERRENCE AUSTIN (5-11, 172) enjoyed a breakout junior campaign and became one of the nation's top all-purpose threats in 2008. He enters his senior year with 72 career receptions (No. 26 on UCLA career list). His 53 catches were the most by a Bruin wide receiver in a season since 2002 and ranked No. 10 (tied) on UCLA's single-season list. Austin made eight catches versus BYU and Arizona State and seven against Washington State. He also set school records for all-purpose yards in a season (1,878), kickoff returns (46) and kickoff return yardage for a game (206) and a career (1,109).

True sophomore TAYLOR EMBREE (6-3, 205) enjoyed a spectacular freshman season. He ranked second on the squad with 40 receptions and led the team with 531 yards -- both UCLA records for a true freshman -- while producing a team-high 28 first downs. He started eight games, the most of any wide receiver and played in all 12 games, making five or more receptions on four occasions. For his efforts, he earned second-team Freshman All-America honors. He did not participate in Spring drills due to off-season shoulder surgery, but is expected to be cleared for the fall.

Redshirt senior GAVIN KETCHUM (6-5, 211) made six receptions for 61 yards last season while appearing in 11 games and making one start (Fresno). He has proven to be an excellent down-field blocker. He returned to action in 2008 after missing most of the 2007 season due to a stress fracture.

Two true sophomores -- NELSON ROSARIO (6-5, 211) and ANTWON MOUTRA (6-2, 188) -- and redshirt freshman JERRY JOHNSON (6-4, 204) used Spring Practice to help play their way up in the wide receiver rotation. In 2008, Rosario made 11 receptions for 169 yards in his nine games and his average of 15.4 yards was the highest on the team. He made some key fourth quarter catches in come-from-behind wins over Tennessee and Stanford. Moutra made one reception in 10 games and Johnson redshirted. All three have the potential to be big contributors.

Several walkons will compete to add depth at the position.

A pair of talented freshmen will join the receiving corps in August. RANDALL CARROLL (5-10, 184) from Los Angeles, CA, earned All-America honors and was the 2008 and 2009 California State 100 and 200 meters champion. RICKY MARVRAY (5-11, 187) from Corona, CA, earned All-Region acclaim while leading Centennial to a State championship. Both are expected to add a speed element to the receiver group.

"This group has a nice combination of experienced talent and youthful potential," said the head coach. "Terrence, Taylor and Gavin all played well last season. Our other young receivers continue to develop and I am looking forward to gauging their improvment in the Fall."

TIGHT END

This could be the deepest position on the Bruin offense. All of last year's tight ends return, plus the starter from 2007. Since many of the offensive formations utilize two tight ends, the depth at this position is key. The top two returnees have made over 100 career receptions between them.

Redshirt senior RYAN MOYA (6-3, 243) made 38 receptions last year, the fifth-highest total ever for a Bruin tight end and most by a Pac-10 tight end in 2008. He was awarded All-Pac-10 second-team acclaim while serving as an H-back (tight end in motion) despite starting just two games. He enters his senior year with 60 career receptions.

Redshirt senior LOGAN PAULSEN (6-5, 264), who made 39 receptions during the 2006 and 2007 seasons, was injured in last year's season-opener against Tennessee and has been granted an additional year of eligibility due to medical hardship. In 2007, he started every game, blocked well and made 12 receptions for 144 yards, including a 36-yard catch-and-run late in the Las Vegas Bowl. In fact, he had started 23 consecutive games at the time of his injury.

True sophomore CORY HARKEY (6-5, 254) enjoyed a successful freshman campaign. Big and athletic, Harkey appeared in all 12 games last season and started seven contests. He made the game-winning touchdown reception in the comeback win against Stanford. On the season, he made five receptions.

Redshirt junior JEFF MILLER (6-5, 240) transitioned from the defensive line and played the final 10 games of the 2008 season as a key reserve, starting twice (Stanford, Oregon State) and scoring a touchdown at Oregon.

True freshman MORRELL PRESLEY (6-4, 219) enrolled at UCLA for Winter Quarter (Jan. 5, 2009) and participated in Spring Football. Considered the No. 1 tight end in the high school class of 2008, he possesses the size and speed to become a factor in the Bruin offense and was able to begin the transition process to playing at the college level.

Redshirt sophomore NATE CHANDLER (6-5, 270) figures to add depth at this important position. A year ago, he shifted between tackle and tight end due to injuries at both positions. He began Spring Practice at offensive tackle but injuries once again necessitated a move to tight end, where he will spend 2009. In 2008, he saw action in every game on special teams and also played four contests in multiple tight end formations.

Third-year sophomore walk-on GLENN RAUSCHER (6-3, 224) will also compete at this position.

"I am excited about our tight ends," said Neuheisel. "This is the deepest position on our offensive unit. Ryan and Logan are both proven performers. Cory, Jeff and Nate also did a nice job for us a year ago. Morrell is a great addition to our team and it will be fun trying to create mismatches with him."

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line returns six players who started at least five games a year ago and adds several quality newcomers. For the first time since 2005, the linemen will have the same position coach and this should help them build on last year's experience. The key to this unit will be the come-through performances by inexperienced players as both starters and reserves.

Redshirt senior NICK EKBATANI (6-5, 306) was the only lineman to start all 12 games a year ago and he played virtually every snap in those contests. He started the first six games at right tackle and the final six at right guard. He saw action primarily at the right guard position during Spring ball.

True sophomore JEFF BACA (6-4, 306) overcame pre-season surgery to become a fixture at left tackle, starting eight of the final nine games at the position. He did a fine job, given his lack of experience, and enters Fall camp as the top contender at that position. He also spent some time at guard and center during Spring drills and could move back inside depending on the development of other tackle candidates.

True senior guard MICAH KIA (6-5, 313), who has started 15 games in the last two seasons, could see action at guard in 2009. Last year, he started seven games, five at tackle and the final two at left guard.

Redshirt junior DARIUS SAVAGE (6-4, 339) is another candidate at the guard position. Darius was unable to participate in Spring Practice while rehabbing from surgery on his foot which he injured in the 2008 Washington game. At the time of the injury, he had started seven contests at left guard.

Redshirt junior SEAN SHELLER (6-5, 294) emerged from Spring drills as a frontrunner for the starting spot at right tackle. He was in a similar situation a year ago only to be sidelined for the 2008 season due to a knee injury suffered in a June vehicle accident. Sheller has no game experience but possesses good all-around skills.

Redshirt sophomore MIKE HARRIS (6-5, 326) figures to be in the mix at a tackle position. He sat out Spring drills due to a fractured bone in his foot. Last season, after recovering from an ankle sprain, he started the final five games at right tackle and did a fine job. Harris was named the offensive winner of UCLA's Most Improved Player award at last season's banquet.

Redshirt sophomore KAI MAIAVA (6-1, 309) and redshirt junior JAKE DEAN (6-4, 303) battled all Spring at the center position. Maiava, who redshirted last season, started nine games as a true freshman at the University of Colorado, earning Freshman All-America honors. He is listed as the starter heading into the Fall drills. Dean was thrust into action a year ago due to injury and did a solid job while starting seven of UCLA's final 10 games at center.

Redshirt junior BRANDON BENNETT (6-4, 330) will also compete for playing time at tackle. He saw the first action of his career in 2008, playing in nine contests on special teams.

Redshirt junior RYAN TAYLOR (6-3, 295) also figures to add depth along the line. A transfer from Tyler (TX) College, he enrolled in Spring Quarter and participated in Spring Practice mostly at a guard position but could also compete at center.

Redshirt freshman CONNOR BRADFORD (6-5, 285) and redshirt freshman walkon BRETT DOWNEY (6-7, 290) each received a long look from the coaches during the Spring and will compete for playing time at tackle. Redshirt freshman walkon tackle AUSTIN HILL (6-5, 283) will also be looking for a chance to perform.

A group of four freshmen – NIK ABELE (6-7, 275) from Irvine, CA, GREG CAPELLA (6-4, 312) from Visalia, CA, STANLEY HASIAK (6-5, 318) from Kapolei, HI, and XAVIER SU'A-FILO (6-4, 310) from Provo, UT – will join the Bruins in August. Abele and Capella earned All-Region acclaim while Hasiak and Su'a-Filo earned All-America honors and were ranked among the top 10 prep tackles and/or guards in the nation. Redshirt junior EDDIE WILLIAMS (6-1, 331), who earned junior college All-America honors at Mt. San Antonio College, is also expected to report to Fall camp in August.

"We did not play well as a unit a year ago, but the good news is we have a lot of guys who gained valuable experience," Neuheisel said. "That experience should help us as we move forward. We look forward to having our injured players and newcomers available to join what should be a very competitive Fall camp. We will identify our best unit and work to make them the best they can be."

DEFENSE

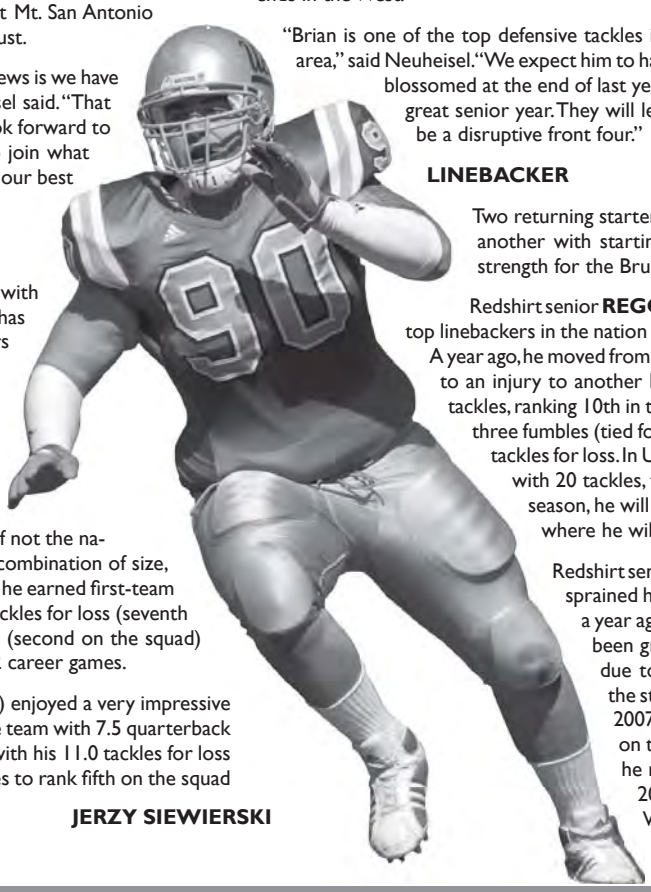
UCLA returns six starters plus several other performers with starting experience. New coordinator Chuck Bullough has not changed the defensive philosophy, meaning the players are now into their fourth season with the scheme.

DEFENSIVE LINE

This unit returns two full-time and two part-time starters from a year ago.

True junior BRIAN PRICE (6-2, 300) enters the 2009 season as one of the top defensive tackles in the West, if not the nation. Price, who can dominate an opponent due to his combination of size, strength and speed, is the anchor of the line. Last season, he earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors while topping the Bruins with 14.0 tackles for loss (seventh in the Pac-10) in his 12 games. He also made 4.5 sacks (second on the squad) among his 35 tackles and has 21.0 tackles for loss in 22 career games.

Redshirt senior end KOREY BOSWORTH (6-1, 242) enjoyed a very impressive junior campaign. In his first season as a starter, he led the team with 7.5 quarterback sacks (seventh in the Pac-10) and was second to Price with his 11.0 tackles for loss (tied for 13th in Pac-10). On the year, he made 55 tackles to rank fifth on the squad and should be even more productive as a senior.



JERZY SIEWIERSKI

True senior JERZY SIEWIERSKI (6-2, 296) is listed No. 1 at a tackle slot opposite Price following Spring Practice, but he will get plenty of competition from redshirt senior JESS WARD (6-4, 296) in the Fall.

Siewierski has appeared in 23 games in the past two years, including 11 in 2008. He has made 19 tackles in that span, including 6.0 for loss. Ward started six games as a sophomore before being sidelined with a knee injury that required surgery. He played in seven of the final eight games a year ago, including the Washington State game on offense (guard). He made six tackles, including a career-best matching four at Cal. He also recorded his first career interception against Stanford.

Redshirt junior REGINALD STOKES (6-3, 266) and true sophomore DATONE JONES (6-4, 267) are the frontrunners for the end position opposite Bosworth. Stokes started five of the final seven games a year ago, missing one game and two starts due to arthroscopic knee surgery. He totaled 20 tackles, including 2.5 for loss. Stokes was credited with a career-high five stops and a blocked field goal versus Oregon in his first start. Jones played in each of the final 10 games, starting twice when Stokes was sidelined. A youngster with big-play potential, he made 15 tackles, including six versus California in his first start, and earned Pac-10 All-Freshman honors.

Redshirt senior CHINONSO ANYANWU (6-4, 225) will compete for playing time at the end positions. Anyanwu, who possesses good pass-rushing skills, played in nine games a year ago, recording seven tackles. However, he missed three of the final four games due to illness.

Redshirt freshman DAMIEN HOLMES (6-3, 261) will also get a chance to compete at the end positions. He sat out most of the Spring session with a shoulder injury. Last year, he was the defensive co-winner of UCLA's Charles Pike Memorial Award for Outstanding Scout Team Player.

Redshirt juniors DAVID CARTER (6-5, 290) and ANDY KEANE (6-2, 301) and redshirt sophomore JUSTIN EDISON (6-4, 278) figure to add depth at the tackle positions. Carter played in all 12 games a year ago, eight on defense, and made 13 tackles. Keane moved to defense last year but did not appear in a game. Edison played in five games and was credited with one tackle. All three will look to impress during the Fall. Redshirt freshmen IAN DAVIS (6-5, 226), an end, and JUSTIN MANN (6-3, 275), a tackle, will also add depth.

True freshmen ends KEENAN GRAHAM (6-2, 228) from Las Vegas, NV and IUTA TEPA (6-1, 225) from Long Beach, CA, will join the squad in August. Both earned prep All-America honors and were ranked among the top five defensive ends in the West.

"Brian is one of the top defensive tackles in the nation and the anchor in this area," said Neuheisel. "We expect him to have a spectacular season. Korey really blossomed at the end of last year and we feel he is poised to have a great senior year. They will lead the charge in what we think can be a disruptive front four."

LINEBACKER

Two returning starters from last year, one from 2007 and another with starting experience make this an area of strength for the Bruin defense.

Redshirt senior REGGIE CARTER (6-1, 240) is one of the top linebackers in the nation and the anchor of the Bruin defense. A year ago, he moved from the middle to outside linebacker due to an injury to another Bruin and still led the team with 83 tackles, ranking 10th in the Pac-10 (6.9/g). Carter also forced three fumbles (tied for fourth in the Pac-10) and made 4.5 tackles for loss. In UCLA's game at BYU, he was credited with 20 tackles, the most by a Bruin since 1989. This season, he will return to the middle of the defense, where he will call the signals.

Redshirt senior KYLE BOSWORTH (6-1, 234) sprained his knee in the second game (at BYU) a year ago and was not able to return. He has been granted a substitute year of eligibility due to medical hardship and is set to be the starter again at weakside linebacker. In 2007, he started seven of the final 10 games on the strong side. A physical performer, he made 74 tackles to rank fifth on the 2007 squad. He recorded 19 tackles at Washington State and added 12 versus BYU in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Redshirt sophomore STEVE SLOAN (6-4, 231) moved into the starting lineup at middle linebacker for the year's third game (Arizona) and went on to start in nine of the final 10 contests, missing only when the Bruins began in the nickel formation. The first-year player made the defensive calls and was a solid performer, making 29 total tackles, including a career-best six, 1.5 for loss, versus USC.

Another redshirt sophomore, AKEEM AYERS (6-4, 252), emerged from Spring Practice as the frontrunner on the strong side. A fine all-around athlete, Ayers played in all 12 games in his first year of action, starting three times. He finished the season with 40 tackles and his 4.0 sacks ranked third (tied for 19th in Pac-10) on the team behind Bosworth and Price. He saw much of his action in nickel formations in order to take advantage of his ability to cover the field. Ayers was named a defensive co-winner of UCLA's Rookie of the Year Award.

True sophomore SEAN WESTGATE (5-11, 205) was a standout on special teams in 2008. He also gained some valuable experience on defense and figures into the competition at outside linebacker. On the year, Westgate made 18 tackles, including eight at BYU. He also scored a touchdown after picking up a blocked punt against Tennessee. In addition, the sophomore was credited with a blocked punt of his own at Cal which was recovered in the end zone for a Bruin touchdown.

Redshirt junior MIKE SCHMITT (6-1, 227) saw action in 12 games a year ago, primarily on special teams. He was credited with one tackle and a fumble recovery.

Two talented redshirt freshmen -- DONOVAN CARTER (6-1, 247) and PATRICK LARIMORE (6-3, 247) -- will supply quality depth. Carter will line up at one of the outside spots and Larimore in man the middle. Both benefited greatly from their first Spring with the program. Three walk-ons -- redshirt junior FRANK GUZMAN (6-1, 224), redshirt sophomore LUCAS BARBOSA (6-0, 234) and redshirt freshman RYAN MEDINA (6-3, 234) -- add depth.

True freshmen ISAIAH BOWENS (6-1, 232) from LaVerne, CA, TODD GOLPER (6-0, 222) from Arcadia, CA, JARED KOSTER (6-1, 217) from Norco, CA and TANIELA MAKA (6-1, 226) from Long Beach, CA will join the team in August. Bowens, Golper and Maka were each ranked among the top six players in the West at their respective positions while Koster earned All-CIF-SS division honors.

"I feel like we have four returning starters in this area. Reggie is a gifted linebacker and one of our leaders," said Neuheisel. "I believe he is as good as anyone in the nation at his position. Kyle is a tough, solid player whose aggressiveness was missed last season. Akeem is a gifted athlete who flashed his potential as a part-time starter and Steve did a fine job in the middle when injuries forced us to move Reggie outside. We will get a chance to develop some of our younger players during the Fall."

SECONDARY

The Bruins return two starters in the secondary and several talented young players. Spring Practice enabled some of the candidates to gain much-needed seasoning and experience.

Senior cornerback ALTERRAUN VERNER (5-11, 180) is the leader of the secondary and a candidate for All-America honors. A shutdown corner, he led the nation in passes defensed in 2008 (1.67/g). In addition, he ranked second on the squad with 73 tackles, including 13 versus BYU and 10 against Fresno State. In the past two years, he has started 23 of 25 games and made 148 tackles and six interceptions. A two-time first-team All-Pac-10 Academic performer, he earned All-Pac-10 honors from ESPN.com in 2008. Of his eight career interceptions, three have been returned for touchdowns.

True sophomore free safety RAHIM MOORE (6-1, 197) is the other returning starter in the secondary. In 2008, he became the first Bruin true freshman since Matt Ware in 2001 to start every game. On the year, he made 60 tackles to rank fourth on the squad, tied for the team lead with three interceptions (tied for 11th in the Pac-10) and also recovered two fumbles (tied for sixth in the Pac-10, 0.17/g). He made nine tackles against California and eight versus BYU and USC.

True sophomore TONY DYE (5-11, 199) is listed as the backup at free safety entering Fall camp. Dye appeared in 11 games in 2008 and made one start (Oregon State). He was the primary nickel back during the latter half of the season, finishing with 15 tackles. He can play safety or corner but will open practice at the former position.

Redshirt freshman AARON HESTER (6-1, 203) showed plenty of promise during Spring Practice and enters Fall camp as the leader at left cornerback. Hester, a prep All-American in 2007, possesses fine cover skills and impressed the coaches on a regular basis last season while on the scout team. Redshirt sophomore COURTNEY VINEY (5-8, 160) also displays fine cover skills. He was the nickel corner during the first third of the season and played well on special teams, totaling 17 tackles. He was credited with six tackles in the games against Tennessee and Fresno State. Redshirt freshman walkon ANDREW ABBOTT (5-10, 176) could also figure in the rotation at cornerback.

Redshirt sophomore GLENN LOVE (6-4, 210) enjoyed a very productive Spring and is listed No. 1 at the strong safety spot entering fall camp. Love played well on the kick coverage units a year ago and saw limited action at safety. He played most of the USC game due to an injury to another player and responded with a career-best seven tackles. He totaled 23 tackles on the season and was one of three winners of the Prothro Award for Outstanding Special Teams Player.

Other safety candidates include redshirt senior AARON WARE (6-0, 202). Ware appeared in every game as a nickel safety a year ago, starting once against Tennessee at strong safety. He also excels on special teams and was credited with 15 tackles on the year.

Two non-scholarship performers -- redshirt junior safety GARRETT RUBIO (5-10, 193) and redshirt freshman cornerback JEFF DICKMANN (5-9, 183) -- figure to add depth in the secondary.

A quintet of prep All-Americans -- ALEX MASCARENAS (5-10, 176) from Mission Viejo, CA, STAN McKAY (6-1, 188) from Long Beach, CA, MARLON POLLARD (6-0, 158) from San Bernardino, CA, SHELDON PRICE (6-2, 163) from Chino Hills, CA, and BRANDON SERMONS (5-11, 183) from Diamond Bar, CA -- will join the secondary competition in Fall camp. These five athletes will bring additional speed, athleticism and depth to this unit.

"Alterraun is one of the elite cornerbacks in the nation," Neuheisel said. "He has outstanding coverage ability and is an outstanding leader. Rahim did a great job as a freshman and demonstrated the skills to be a fine safety. Aaron impressed during the Spring at the cornerback spot opposite Alterraun. Glenn showed he can handle the duties at strong safety. Aaron Ware, Courtney, E.J., Tony and our youngsters will make this a competitive situation throughout the Fall."

SPECIALISTS

Redshirt junior KAI FORBATH (6-0, 192) enters the 2009 season as perhaps the top field goal kicker in the nation. A third-team All-American a year ago, he made 19 (tied for first in Pac-10) of 22 field goals, including his final 13 attempts of the season. His 53-yard boot versus Arizona State was the longest in the Pac-10 in the 2008 season. In two seasons, he has made 44 of 52 attempts, including all six from 50 yards or longer. Nationally, he ranked ninth (tied) in field goals per game (1.58) which tied him for the Pac-10 lead.

Redshirt freshman JEFF LOCKE (6-1, 204) enters the fall as the successor to Aaron Perez, who handled the punting chores for the past four years and led the conference with a 45.2 average in 2008. Locke was a Parade All-American in high school and averaged 43.6 yards as a prep senior. Redshirt junior walkon DANNY REES (6-3, 190) provides depth at punter. Forbath and Locke will also compete for the responsibility of handling kickoffs in 2009.

True junior CHRISTIAN YOUNT (6-1, 238) has done an outstanding job in his two seasons as the team's long snapper and figures to be a fixture for the next few years. Walkon redshirt freshman KEVIN McDERMOTT (6-3, 231) adds depth at long snapper. A new holder will be determined in the fall.

True senior TERRENCE AUSTIN (5-11, 172) set school records for all-purpose yards (1,878, 16th in the NCAA, second in Pac-10 at 156.5/g), kickoff returns in a season (46) and kickoff return yardage in a game (206) and for a season (1,109). He figures to be the frontrunner for the kickoff and punt return chores again in 2009 but several of the young backs and receivers will also have the opportunity to contribute.

"During his two years at UCLA, Kai has shown he is as good as any kicker in the nation," said the head coach. "To make 19 of 22 field goals a year ago and to be perfect on six attempts from 50 or more yards in his career is all you can ask for as a coach. We will solidify the punting game in the Fall because you need to be able to win the field position game. Having Christian back as our longsnapper is another big plus for this unit.

"In terms of returns, Terrence did a fine job a year ago. Hopefully, he will not have as much opportunity on kickoff returns and more on punt returns. We will also take a look at some other candidates and might spread the duties around a bit more."

1 UCLA 27, TENNESSEE 24 (OT)

September 1 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - The Rick Neuheisel era at UCLA began with a bang as Kai Forbath's game-winning field goal in overtime gave the new coach his first Bruin win. Freshman Sean Westgate took a blocked punt 17 yards into the endzone to put UCLA up 7-0. Tennessee scored the next 14 points on a rushing touchdown and an interception return. The Bruins crept closer on a third quarter field goal, and opened up the fourth with a three-yard touchdown run by Raymond Carter to take a 17-14 lead. Tennessee answered with a scoring run, but Ryan Moya caught a three-yard pass from Kevin Craft to put the Bruins back in front (24-21) with 27 seconds to play. Tennessee tied the game with a field goal as time expired. UCLA struck first in the extra period on a 42-yard field goal by Forbath. Tennessee tried to counter with their own field goal, but it was wide left.

4 FRESNO STATE 36, UCLA 31
September 27 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - The Bruins ended their non-conference slate by dropping a hard-fought battle with the Bulldogs. FSU started off the game with a 63-yard punt return for a touchdown, but the Bruins answered with a one-yard scoring run by Kahlil Bell. Fresno State took a one-point lead into the halftime break after posting 13 points in the second quarter, while UCLA tallied 12 points of their own. The Bulldogs outscored UCLA 16-5 in the third quarter, but the return of a blocked FSU PAT by Bret Lockett saw the momentum shift in UCLA's direction. The Bruins picked up seven points off a 20-yard touchdown catch by Chane Moline and were driving for the endzone again, but a fumble by freshman Derrick Coleman in the redzone sealed the Bruins' fate. Lockett led the defense in tackles with 11. The Bruins rushed for 234 yards with Coleman leading all rushers with 86 yards, including a 44-yard run.

Game Notes - The Bruins earned their first Pac-10 win of the season with a victory over the visiting Cougars. Kevin Craft put together a solid game, throwing for 225 yards and two touchdown passes. After a scoreless first quarter, the Bruins struck for two second quarter touchdowns on a 15-yard pass play to Ryan Moya and a one-yard run by Kahlil Bell. Moya caught his second scoring pass in the third quarter, this time a 12-yard shot from Craft, as the Bruins went up 21-3 heading into the final quarter. Bell picked up his second rushing touchdown of the game with 11:28 to play to wrap up the victory. The Bruin defense was solid, holding WSU to just 26 net yards rushing, as well as limiting the Cougars to just 2-of-14 on third-down conversions. The Bruins tallied four sacks in the game, while Alterraun Verner led the defense wtih seven tackles.

October 11 in Eugene, OR

Game Notes - The Bruins suffered a loss in their first Pac-10 road contest of the season. Oregon scored first and tacked on seven more points to close out the first half up 14-0. UCLA opened up the third quarter with a touchdown drive capped off by Derrick Coleman's first career score, but Oregon answered with their own touchdown run to push their lead to 21-7. Kahlil Bell's two-yard scoring run brought the Bruins to within 21-14 at the end of the third period. After Oregon and UCLA traded field goals, the Ducks led 24-17 with just under three minutes to play. A 69-yard touchdown run by the Ducks pushed their lead to 31-17 with 2:22 to play. Tight end Jeff Miller picked up UCLA's final score on a one-yard pass from Kevin Craft as the Bruins fell 31-24. Craft had a career day for passing yards with 288, while Oregon QB Jeremiah Masoli racked up 170 yards rushing. Bret Lockett led the defense with seven tackles.

7 UCLA 23, STANFORD 20

October 18 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - UCLA used last-second heroics to even their Pac-10 record at 2-2 with a Homecoming win over the Cardinal. A Kevin Craft scoring pass to Cory Harkey with 10 seconds remaining gave the Bruins a dramatic victory. After Stanford had jumped out to a 14-6 halftime lead, the Bruins scored first in the second half. Craft connected on a two-yard pass to Terrence Austin to close to within 14-13. A 28-yard field goal by Kai Forbath put UCLA up 16-14 at the start of the fourth quarter, but the Cardinal answered with two field goals to take a 20-16 lead with 2:31 left. A two-minute Bruin offense was capped off by a seven-yard touchdown pass to Harkey. The UCLA defense held Stanford to 51 yards passing as Alterraun Verner led the team with seven tackles. Craft threw for 285 yards and two touchdowns.

8 CALIFORNIA 41, UCLA 20

October 25 in Berkeley, CA

Game Notes - Twenty-four fourth quarter Cal points broke open a close game and did in the Bruins in Berkeley. After Cal took an early 3-0 lead, UCLA's Glenn Love recovered a blocked punt in the endzone for a Bruin touchdown to start the second quarter. However, Cal would pick up 14 points in the quarter off a 34-yard run and an interception return. A field goal by Kai Forbath moved the Bruins to within 17-10 at the half. UCLA held Cal scoreless in the third and picked up 3 more points on a field goal to make it 17-13 entering the fourth quarter. Cal used a field goal, two touchdown passes and another interception return for a touchdown to push their lead to 41-13 with just under two minutes to play. Chris Forcier entered the game at quarterback for UCLA in the final minutes, leading the Bruins to their final score, a nine-yard touchdown pass to Dominique Johnson. Terrence Austin tallied 203 yards on kickoff returns, while Rahim Moore led the defense with nine tackles in the game.

9 OREGON ST. 34, UCLA 6

November 8 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - A strong second-half effort by the visiting Beavers was too much for the Bruins to overcome. Both teams traded field goals in the first 15 minutes of play for the only scores of the first half. OSU came out of the break and put 14 unanswered points on the board to take a 17-3 lead with just under eight minutes left in the third quarter. UCLA tacked on three points after a Kai Forbath field goal to make it 17-6 with just over three minutes left in the quarter. However, the Beavers picked off two Bruin passes in the fourth quarter, with one of those picks leading to a touchdown drive and OSU doubled its scoring total in the final 15 minutes of play. Aaron Perez recorded a 67-yard punt, while Taylor Embree led the Bruins with five receptions for 64 yards. Reggie Carter tallied 10 tackles.

10 UCLA 27, WASHINGTON 7

November 15 in Seattle, WA

Game Notes - The Bruins recorded their first road win of the season in head coach Rick Neuheisel's return to Seattle. The Bruins held an opponent to the fewest total yards in a game (135) since the 1989 Cotton Bowl with a strong all-around team performance. UCLA got on the board first with an efficient opening drive that was capped off by an 11-yard scoring run by Derrick Coleman. UW answered with a touchdown of their own, but it would be their only score of the game as the Bruins would go on to win 27-7. Tailback Kahlil Bell tallied two rushing touchdowns and was just shy of a 100-yard rushing game (97). The defense totaled three sacks in the contest, two by Akeem Ayers, while Rahim Moore had a game-high six tackles.

11 ARIZONA ST. 34, UCLA 9

November 28 in Tempe, AZ

Game Notes - The Bruins were knocked out of bowl game consideration with a 34-9 loss in the desert. UCLA managed just three field goals during the contest, including a 53-yarder by Kai Forbath, but a strong defensive showing by the Sun Devils doomed the Bruins. ASU scored four defensive touchdowns during the game, including a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown. The Bruin defense was on fire as they held Arizona State to just eight yards rushing and 122 total yards of total offense. Marcus Everett had his best game of the season as he caught eight balls for 75 yards. Michael Norris led the defense with six tackles, while Korey Bosworth tallied two sacks. Aaron Perez broke the school record for total career punt yards during the game and Terrence Austin racked up 188 all-purpose yards, 131 on kickoffs.

12 USC 28, UCLA 7

December 6 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - Despite scoring first, the Bruins fell to USC 28-7 in the final game of the season. Brian Price forced a Trojan fumble early in the first quarter, and a few plays later, the Bruins were on the board after a trick play. Wide receiver Dominique Johnson threw a 21-yard scoring pass to Kahlil Bell to put the Bruins up 7-0, but the Trojan defense would not allow another score for the balance of the game. USC went on to score 28 unanswered points. Rahim Moore led the Bruin defense with eight tackles.

Easton and UCLA Athletics.

Together, We're Built To Win.

Fifty-five years ago, UCLA fielded the finest football team in the school's history. The 1954 Bruins compiled a perfect 9-0 record and were voted National Champions by United Press International at the end of the season.

Most of the key players from the 1953 Bruins, who were 8-2, returned in 1954, led by legendary head coach Henry R. "Red" Sanders. During his nine seasons in Westwood, Sanders' winning percentage was .773 and he won three Pacific Coast Conference titles.

The Bruins opened the 1954 season on Sept. 18 with a 67-0 victory over San Diego Navy at the Coliseum. The point total was the highest in school history at the time. The following week, the Bruins improved to 2-0 with a 32-7 victory at Kansas.

On Friday night, Oct. 1, amid much pre-game hype, defending national champion Maryland invaded the Coliseum. Playing in front of 73,376 fans, Bob Davenport rushed for 87 yards and both touchdowns in a 12-7 Bruin victory.

The next week, UCLA received its sternest test of the year. Playing Washington on the road in Seattle, UCLA built a 21-0 lead. However, the Husky passing attack brought the home team within striking distance and a missed PAT turned out to be the difference in a 21-20 Bruin win.

Stanford was next on the hit parade and the Indians were hit often. The Bruins rushed for 418 yards and threw for 59 more. Defensively, UCLA intercepted Stanford, led by quarterback John Brodie, eight times. UCLA scored early and often en route to a 72-0 win and a victory margin that is still the school record.

The carnage continued the following week as the Bruins won 61-0 at Oregon State. UCLA accounted for 593 yards total offense, including 498 on the ground.

The following week, California scored the only touchdown UCLA's defense allowed in the season's final five games, but it wasn't nearly enough. The Bruins won 27-6 in Berkeley behind 113 yards rushing and 120 yards passing by Primo Villanueva.

The Bruins improved to 8-0 the following week, shutting out Oregon, 41-0 in the Coliseum.

On Nov. 20, the Bruins faced USC before 102,548 fans in the sold out Coliseum. UCLA held a 7-0 lead entering the fourth quarter before exploding for 27 points in the final 15 minutes to finish the season with a perfect 9-0 record.

UCLA did not play in the Rose Bowl following that magical season because of the "no-repeat" rule. It was voted No. 1 on the United Press International poll and shared the national championship with Ohio State (the Associated Press champ).

The 1954 team set numerous records, including points in a season (367), points in a game (72) and touchdowns in a season (55). It led the nation in scoring offense (40.8 average) and scoring defense (4.4 average). Today, it still ranks No. 1 in school history in rushing defense (659 yards), total defense (1,708 yards) and scoring defense (40 points) while its 40.8 scoring average ranks second in school history.

Tackle Jack Ellena, who finished seventh in the 1954 Heisman Trophy balloting, along with guard Jim Salsbury, fullback Bob Davenport and halfback Primo Villanueva each earned first-team All-America honors, as well as All-Coast and All-PCC acclaim. Eight other Bruins were named All-America honorable mention, including guard Sam Boghosian, who earned Academic All-America acclaim and was first-team All-Coast. Terry Debay was the team's most valuable player and a second-team Academic All-American.

Other All-America honorable mentions included Hardiman Cureton (All-Coast and All-PCC second team), John Peterson (All-Coast second team), Bob Heydenfeldt (All-Coast second team), Jim Decker (All-PCC second team), Joe Ray (All-Coast and All-PCC second team) and Rommie Loudd. Bob Long was selected second-team All-Coast and All-PCC while Gil Moreno and Warner Benjamin earned All-Coast honorable mention.

Decker led the team and ranked fifth in the PCC in rushing with 508 yards, followed by Villanueva with 486 and Davenport with 479. Villanueva passed for 400 yards and five touchdowns to lead the team while Davenport led the PCC in scoring with 11 touchdowns and Sam Brown led the league in punt returns (26.2 average and three touchdowns). Heydenfeldt ranked second in punting (39.9).

Tommy Prothro, who would later become head coach at UCLA after a successful stint at Oregon State, was a key assistant coach on this team. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1991.

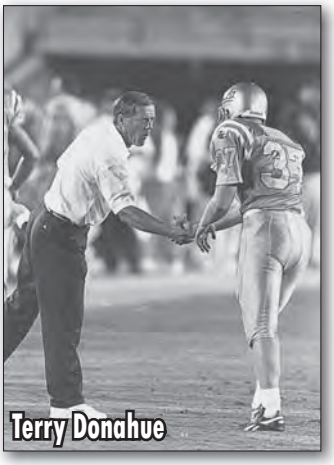
Jerry Robinson



Terry Donahue

Gary Beban

Kenny Easley

Here is UCLA's list of all-time All-Americans. UCLA has had 89 first-team All-American selections (80 players), headed by three-time consensus choices Jerry Robinson and Kenny Easley. Robinson (1976-77-78), an inside linebacker, and Easley (1978-79-80), a free safety, are the only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pac-10 history.

The list also includes 1967 Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban, 1988 Davey O'Brien Award winner Troy Aikman, Outland Trophy winners Jonathan Ogden (1995) and Kris Farris (1998), 1998 Unitas Award winner Cade McNown, 2005 Mackey Award winner Marcedes Lewis and two-time All-Americans Donn Moomaw, Paul Cameron, Bob Davenport, John Lee and Chris Sailer. Sailer is the only Bruin to earn first-team All-America honors at two positions in the same season.

UCLA BOWL RESULTS (13-15-1 OVERALL, 11-8 IN LAST 19 APPEARANCES)

January 1, 1943 — Rose Bowl Georgia 9, UCLA 0

UCLA's first ever bowl appearance did not end on a successful note, as the No. 1-ranked Bulldogs defeated the Bruins. Playing one of its best games of the season, UCLA held the Bulldogs scoreless for three quarters. However, the powerful UGA defense held the Bruins without any points as well. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Georgia's Red Boyd blocked Bob Waterfield's punt deep in the end zone for a safety. Georgia added a touchdown following an interception of a Waterfield pass by Clyde Ehrhardt. The Bulldogs' All-American Frankie Sinkwich powered over from the one-yard line for the lone touchdown in the contest.

January 1, 1947 — Rose Bowl Illinois 45, UCLA 14

The Bruins scored their first ever post-season points when quarterback Ernie Case scored on a sneak to give the Bruins a slim 7-6 first-quarter lead. However, it was the fourth-ranked Illini who tallied quickly and often, outscoring unranked UCLA 39-7 from that point on en route to a 45-14 victory. Illinois dominated the Bruins on the ground, compiling 320 yards to the Bruins 62. UCLA's Al Hoisch returned Illinois kicker Don Maechtle's kickoff 103 yards, establishing a Rose Bowl record which still stands today.

January 1, 1954 — Rose Bowl Michigan State 28, UCLA 20

Fifth-ranked UCLA completely dominated the first half of the game and capitalized on two Spartan fumbles to score the first 14 points in the contest. However, a missed blocking assignment allowed MSU's Ellis Duckett room to block a Paul Cameron kick and score from the Bruin six-yard line with 4:45 left in the half. The Bruins left the field at halftime ahead 14-7 after allowing No. 3 Michigan State only one completed pass, for a seven-yard loss, and a net gain of 56 total yards.
MSU outscored the Bruins 14-0 afer two long third quarter drives to grab a 21-14 lead. After another Spartan fumble, Cameron connected on a 28-yard pass to Rommie Loudd who made a great leaping catch. The reception pulled the Bruins to within one point, 21-20 with 12:36 to play in the fourth quarter. UCLA failed on its conversion attempt, leaving the Spartans clinging to a one-point lead. Bruin hopes of regaining the lead were thwarted when Billy Wells returned a Cameron punt 62 yards for a touchdown with 4:51 left in the game.

January 1, 1956 — Rose Bowl Michigan State 17, UCLA 14

David Kaiser's field goal with seven seconds remaining provided a sensational finish to a spectacular game as the second-ranked Spartans earned a 17-14 decision over fourth-ranked UCLA. The Bruins scored first when fullback Bob Davenport scored from the two-yard line four plays after Jim Decker picked off an Earl Morral pass. Michigan State scored the next two touchdowns but the Bruins tied the score at 14 in the fourth quarter when Doug Peters dove over from the one-yard line. With time running out in the game, UCLA was called for an intentional grounding infraction which pushed the ball back to its own one-yard line. A poor punt gave the Spartans the ball at the UCLA 40. However, the Bruins were cited for interference with the kick returner and the Spartans received the ball at the Bruin 19, setting up Kaiser's game-winning 41-yard field goal.

January 1, 1962 — Rose Bowl Minnesota 21, UCLA 3

With 16 players returning from their 1961 Rose Bowl loss, the Golden Gophers were primed and ready for the 1962 renewal, and they used that experience to defeat the Bruins, 21-3. The Bruins opened the scoring when Bobby Smith kicked a 28-yard field goal at the 8:40 mark of the first quarter. However, that was all the offense the Bruins could muster and Minnesota scored touchdowns in the first, second, and fourth quarters.

January 1, 1966 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 14, Michigan State 12

Fifth-ranked UCLA earned its first Rose Bowl victory by upsetting No. 1-ranked and previously unbeaten, Michigan State. Quarterback Gary Beban ran for two touchdowns and threw for 147 yards in leading the Bruins to victory. UCLA took a 7-0 lead on the first play of the second quarter on a one-yard run by Beban after John Erquiaga had recovered a fumbled punt return. A successful onside kick was recovered by Dallas Grider at the MSU 42-yard line. A 21-yard run by Mel Farr and a 20-yard pass from Beban to Kurt Altenberg gave the Bruins the ball at the one-yard line. On the next play, with 11:50 left in the first half, Beban sneaked in for a touchdown and a 14-0 lead. Michigan State finally got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter when Bob Apisa scored on a 38-yard run at the 6:13 mark but the Spartans failed on a two-point pass attempt. On the next series, Bubba Smith partially blocked Larry Cox's punt to give MSU the ball at the UCLA 49. Steve Juday finished off a 14-play scoring drive with a one-yard sneak with 31 seconds to play. Bob Stiles and Grider stopped Apisa short of the goal line on the two-point try.

January 1, 1976 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 23, Ohio State 10

On Jan. 1, 1976, the 11th-ranked Bruins returned to Pasadena to take on Woody Hayes' top-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes and two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin. During a first half in which Ohio State had the ball for 20 of the 24 minutes, kicker Tom Klaban provided the only points with a second-quarter field goal, giving the Buckeyes a 3-0 halftime lead. The Bruins tied the game early in the third quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Brett White. On UCLA's next possession, John Sciarra and Wally Henry hooked up on a 16-yard touchdown play. Late in the third quarter, Sciarra and Henry combined for a 67-yard touchdown play. OSU's Pete Johnson countered with a three-yard touchdown but Wendell Tyler, who rushed for 172 yards, countered with a 54-yard touchdown. Sciarra was named Rose Bowl MVP for completing 13-of-19 passes for 212 yards and two touchdowns.

December 20, 1976 — Liberty Bowl
Alabama 36, UCLA 6

The 1976 Liberty Bowl marked the first time the Bruins participated in a bowl game other than the Rose, but were soundly defeated by the Crimson Tide in a game played in windy and near-freezing conditions. No. 16 Alabama took control early, scoring 17 first quarter points on a Bruin team that had allowed only 23 all year. Alabama pulled away to a 30-0 lead before running back Theotis Brown dashed 61-yards for the lone score by the No. 7 Bruins. UCLA totaled 380 offensive yards, but commited four turnovers and was stopped on downs inside the Alabama five-yard line on two occasions. Brown (1,092) and Wendell Tyler (1,003) became the school's first twin-thousand yard rushers for a season during the contest.

December 31, 1981 — Bluebonnet Bowl
Michigan 33, UCLA 14

In what would be their last bowl defeat for over a decade, No. 19 UCLA was held to 33 yards rushing in the 33-14 loss to No. 16 Michigan. Despite its inability to move the ball, UCLA trailed by only five points midway through the final period. With 7:37 remaining in the contest, the Bruins closed to within 19-14 when Tom Ramsey threw his second touchdown pass of the game, 16th of the year, covering nine yards to Tim Wrightman. Michigan answered with a couple of touchdowns in the final five minutes, including one with just eight seconds remaining in the game, to produce the deceptively large final margin.

January 1, 1983 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 24, Michigan 14

The fifth-ranked Bruins began their record-setting bowl streak by defeating the 19th-ranked Michigan Wolverines, 24-10, in the 1983 Rose Bowl. Earlier in the year, the two teams had played in Ann Arbor and the Bruins had rallied from a 21-0 second-quarter deficit for a 31-27 victory. UCLA, 9-1-1 during the regular season, outscored the Wolverines 10-0 in the first half on Tom Ramsey's one-yard touchdown run and John Lee's 39-yard field goal. Michigan closed the gap to three points early in the third quarter, but Danny Andrews countered with a nine-yard touchdown scamper. The Bruins put the game out of reach with just over eight minutes remaining when Blanchard Montgomery intercepted a pass and returned it 11 yards to make the score 24-7. Ramsey was voted Player of the Game, completing 18 of 25 passes for 162 yards.

January 2, 1984 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 45, Illinois 9

Unranked UCLA won its fourth straight Rose Bowl, upsetting highly-favored No. 4 Illinois (10-1 entering the game). Quarterback Rick Neuheisel, who was ill the previous night, was the star, completing 22 of 31 passes for 298 yards and four touchdowns. Don Rogers' interception 43 seconds into the game led to Neuheisel's first TD pass, a three-yarder to Paul Bergmann. After an Illini field goal made the score 7-3, UCLA scored 21 points in the next eight minutes. Kevin Nelson ran 28 yards for a score, Neuheisel found Karl Dorrell with a 16-yard TD pass following another Rogers interception and Mike Young's 53-yard touchdown reception made it 28-3 at intermission. Neuheisel tossed another touchdown pass to Dorrell in the second half and the Bruins added one more touchdown to make the final score 45-9.

January 1, 1985 — Fiesta Bowl
UCLA 39, Miami (FL) 37

UCLA, ranked 14th, rallied from a fourth-quarter deficit to earn its third consecutive New Year's Day victory, defeating 13th-ranked Miami 39-37, in the Fiesta Bowl. Tailback Gaston Green, in his first career start, rushed for 144 yards and scored two touchdowns and was named Offensive Player of the Game. James Washington intercepted his fifth pass of the year to earn Defensive Player of the Game honors. With Miami leading 21-7 in the second quarter, Green's 72-yard run and two John Lee field goals gave UCLA a 22-21 halftime lead. Miami rallied, taking a 37-36 lead with 2:58 remaining, but Steve Bono moved the Bruins down the field and Lee kicked a 22-yard field goal for the winning points. Miami mounted one last charge but Terry Tumey forced a fumble after a sack of Bernie Kosar to seal the win.

January 1, 1986 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 45, Iowa 28

Redshirt freshman Eric Ball rushed for 227 yards, the second highest total in Rose Bowl annals, and four touchdowns to lead 13th-ranked UCLA to a 45-28 victory, its fourth in as many years on New Year's Day. The tailback was not the only star of the day. Junior quarterback Matt Stevens, starting in place of injured David Norrie, completed 16 of 26 passes for 189 yards and one touchdown and scored UCLA's last TD on a fourth-quarter sneak. James Washington, Tommy Taylor and Ken Norton, with 10 tackles each, led a Bruin defense that limited the fourth-ranked Hawkeyes to 13 points during a 45-minute span in which the Bruin offense was scoring 45 points.

December 30, 1986 — Freedom Bowl
UCLA 31, Brigham Young 10

For the fifth consecutive year, No. 15 UCLA capped a successful campaign with a post-season victory, defeating BYU, 31-10. Tailback Gaston Green had a record-setting performance against the Cougars and the Bruin defense held BYU without a touchdown until just under two minutes remained in the contest. Green scored three touchdowns and passed for a fourth en route to setting a major-bowl record with 266 net yards rushing. By the end of the third quarter, he had already rushed for 262 yards and three scores. UCLA led just 7-3 at halftime, but the Bruins broke the game open with 17 third-quarter points.

December 25, 1987 — Aloha Bowl UCLA 20, Florida 16

UCLA became only the fifth school in college football history to win six consecutive bowl games with its 20-16 triumph over Florida in the Aloha Bowl. Florida built a 10-3 lead in the second quarter, but the 10th-ranked Bruins mounted an 81-yard drive over the final four minutes which resulted in Brian Brown's one-yard TD run with three seconds remaining in the half. The Bruins took the lead for good with 1:18 remaining in the third quarter as tailback Danny Thompson grabbed a tipped pass in the end zone for a 17-10 lead. Velasco's second field goal of the contest made the score 20-10, but Kerwin Bell's second touchdown pass of the day, with 7:51 remaining, closed the gap to four points, 20-16.

January 2, 1989 — Cotton Bowl UCLA 17, Arkansas 3

UCLA became the first school in college football history to win seven consecutive bowl games with its 17-3 triumph over Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. In addition, Terry Donahue became the first coach in history to accomplish that feat. No. 9 UCLA built a 14-0 halftime lead on a one-yard run by Mark Estwick and Troy Aikman's one-yard pass to Corwin Anthony. Eighth-ranked Arkansas got on the board late in the third quarter when Kendall Trainor kicked a 49-yard field goal. UCLA's Alfredo Velasco countered with a 32-yard three-pointer with just under six minutes remaining in the game. UCLA held Arkansas to just 42 net yards and four first downs on 36 plays. Tailback Shawn Wills became the first freshman in the history of the Cotton Bowl game to rush for over 100 yards (120).

December 31, 1991 — John Hancock Bowl UCLA 6, Illinois 3

No. 22 UCLA increased its record of consecutive bowl victories to eight with a 6-3 victory over Illinois in the John Hancock Bowl. UCLA took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 32-yard Louis Perez field goal, after Michael Williams blocked a punt by Illinois' Forrey Wells. Illinois tied the score in the third quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Chris Richardson. The game remained tied until the fourth quarter, when the Bruin special teams unit came through again, with senior Randy Cole recovering a fumbled punt by Filmel Johnson on the Illini 11-yard line to set up a game-winning 19-yard field goal by Perez. The Illini took the ensuing kickoff and drove all the way to the UCLA 29, but were stopped when senior linebacker Stacy Argo intercepted a Jason Verduzco pass and returned it to the UCLA 34. Linebacker Arnold Ale, who made a first-quarter goal-line interception, was named the game's MVP.

January 1, 1994 — Rose Bowl Wisconsin 21, UCLA 16

UCLA was playing in its 10th bowl in 13 seasons, but despite a record-setting performance by receiver J.J. Stokes, the 14th-ranked Bruins were unable to pull out a victory against the ninth-ranked Badgers. Putting the finishing touches on his All-American season, Stokes set Rose Bowl records for receptions (14) and receiving yards (176) in the Bruins' losing effort. Playing only days after a serious bout with the flu caused him to miss three practices during game week, UCLA quarterback Wayne Cook passed for 288 yards while completing 28 passes, the third-highest total in school history at the time. UCLA trailed most of the game, but pulled to within five points with 3:38 remaining in the game. On its next possession, UCLA moved from its own 38-yard line to the Badger 15-yard line as the clock ticked away the final seconds.

December 25, 1995 — Aloha Bowl
Kansas 51, UCLA 30

It was Terry Donahue's final game as head coach of the Bruins, but 11th-ranked Kansas dominated it from the start. The Jayhawks, moving the ball on the ground and in the air, built a 17-0 halftime lead en route to the victory. Early in the third quarter, Kansas built the lead to 23 points. The unranked Bruins came back to put numbers on the scoreboard. A Cade McNown touchdown pass to Brad Melsby capped a 10-play, 80-yard drive that narrowed the Kansas lead to 23-7. Trailing 37-7 entering the fourth quarter, the Bruins staged a fourth-quarter rally that made things interesting. Behind the passing and scrambling of McNown, the Bruins scored 23 points in the quarter but it wasn't enough to avert defeat.

January 1, 1998 — Cotton Bowl
UCLA 29, Texas A&M 23

In their first bowl game under second-year coach Bob Toledo, the No. 5 Bruins fell behind 16-0 before making a dramatic second half comeback to beat 20th-ranked Texas A&M, 29-23. Trailing 16-0 late in the first half, the Bruins faced a third-and-thirteen at the Aggie 42 with twenty-four seconds to go. McNown hit Danny Farmer over the middle with a twenty-yard pass, and two plays later, hit Jim McElroy for a touchdown with two seconds to go before halftime. On UCLA's first possession of the second half, Skip Hicks took a McNown pass 41 yards to cut the deficit to 16-14. Hicks would finish the day with 193 all-purpose yards (140 on the ground and 53 receiving). After an Aggie touchdown, McNown's 20-yard touchdown run made the score 23-21. In the fourth quarter, the Bruins defense stepped it up. The Aggies had no first downs in the fourth quarter and had minus-one yard of total offense. The Bruins finally took the lead when Ryan Neufeld took a reverse and ran five yards into the end zone. McNown carried in the two-point conversion and it was 29-23 UCLA. The Bruins stopped the Aggies on their final two possessions and ran out the clock for the win.

January 1, 1999 — Rose Bowl
Wisconsin 38, UCLA 31

Despite setting the single team Rose Bowl record for total yards, the sixth-ranked Bruins were unable to overcome Ron Dayne's four touchdowns as No. 9 Wisconsin defeated the Bruins 38-31 in front of 93,872. Both teams started slowly offensively before exploding midway through the first quarter. The teams would shatter the old record of 931 combined yards of offense, combining for 1,035 yards before the game ended. In the second quarter, UCLA took its only lead of the game (21-14) with back-to-back touchdowns. Freddie Mitchell hit a wide open Durell Price with a 61-yard bomb on a halfback pass and on UCLA's next possession, Danny Farmer slipped behind the defense and caught a 41-yard touchdown pass from Cade McNown. Wisconsin scored the final 10 points of the half to take a three-point lead (24-21). The teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Wisconsin grabbed a 10-point fourth quarter lead following an interception return, and UCLA could manage to score only a field goal the remainder of the period. In his final game, McNown passed for 340 yards, the fourth-highest total in bowl history, and UCLA finished with 538 yards, 418 in the air.

December 29, 2000 — Sun Bowl
Wisconsin 21, UCLA 20

The already hobbled Bruins lost five starters during the course of the game to injury, including quarterback Cory Paus, and dropped a one-point decision. After the Badgers opened the scoring, Paus teammed up with Freddie Mitchell on a 64-yard scoring play and Chris Griffith followed with a field goal to give the Bruins a 10-7 lead. DeShaun Foster rushed for 100 yards in the first half, including a seven-yard scoring run which gave the Bruins a 17-7 halftime lead. However, the Bruins would return to the field without Paus, who suffered a broken collarbone on the final play of the first half. Also missing were starting cornerbacks Jason Bell (foot) and Ricky Manning (concussion). By the time the game was over, the Bruins would also be playing without safety Marques Anderson (ankle) and linebacker Robert Thomas (foot). Back-up Scott McEwan completed four of five passes on the initial drive of the second half, and Griffith booted a field goal which gave UCLA a 20-7 lead. The Badger offense began to frustrate the depleted Bruin defense as the game wore on, and the UW defense held Foster to just seven second-half rushing yards. After UW closed to 20-14 on a late third quarter scoring pass, the Badgers drove 70 yards in 12 plays for the go-ahead score on its first possession of the fourth quarter. Later in the quarter, Mitchell grabbed his ninth pass of the day good for 180 receiving yards, which set a Sun Bowl game record.

December 25, 2002 — Las Vegas Bowl
UCLA 27, New Mexico 13

UCLA won its 10th bowl game in its last 14 outings with a 27-13 defeat of New Mexico in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl. Interim head coach Ed Kezirian guided the Bruin team to victory in a game dominated by the defenses. Neither team managed an offensive touchdown until the fourth quarter. A 74-yard punt return for a touchdown by Craig Bragg turned the momentum to the Bruin's side after New Mexico was forced to punt on its first possession of the second half. True freshman safety Jarrad Page added a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, and Tyler Ebell made it 27-6 with a one-yard scoring run with 10:40 left. Senior Chris Griffith converted following Page's touchdown and in the process set a school record for most career extra points (136). In the first half, Nate Fikse connected on a pair of field goals and tied the score at six-all at the half. The successful kicks marked his 11th and 12th consecutive made field goals of the season. After Fikse's 49-yarder in the first quarter, Desmar Black intercepted a Drew Olson pass and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown. The extra point, attempted by Katie Hnida, the first woman to play in a Division I-A football game, was blocked by Brandon Chillar.

December 30, 2003 — Silicon Valley Classic
Fresno State 17, UCLA 9

Fresno State scored early and held off a determined second half effort by UCLA to gain a 17-9 win in the Silicon Valley Football Classic, played on a crisp and wet evening at San Jose State's Spartan Stadium. Fresno State led 14-0 after one quarter, and a Bulldog field goal early in the second quarter made it 17-0. It was not until late in the quarter that the Bruin offense gained some momentum. UCLA managed a 97-yard drive to narrow the gap to 17-7 at the half. With 20 seconds remaining in the half, Drew Olson connected with Craig Bragg, who made a spectacular diving catch in the right side of the end zone for a 27-yard touchdown. UCLA began the second half by driving to Fresno State's 29-yard line, but Justin Medlock's 47-yard attempt fell short in the poor weather and sloppy field conditions. However, the Bruin defense held tough and Asi Faoa broke free and blocked Fresno State's punt for a safety to pull UCLA within 17-9 with 7:11 left to play in the third quarter. The Bruins had one more chance late in the fourth quarter, getting the ball at their own 25-yard line with 3:55 to play. After a couple of completions to Marcedes Lewis, Olson had a pass deflected at the line and intercepted to end the Bruin hopes.

December 23, 2004 — Las Vegas Bowl
Wyoming 24, UCLA 21

UCLA played most of the game without starting quartback Drew Olson, who left the contest in the second quarter with a sprained knee. Linebacker Spencer Havner, the Pac-10's leading tackler, did not dress for the game due to injury. David Koral took over for Olson and added a spark to the UCLA offense. Throwing just the second college pass of his career, Koral scrambled out of the pocket and connected with Craig Bragg for a 17-yard touchdown to stake UCLA to a 14-10 lead at the half. The two connected on another scoring play in the third quarter to propel the Bruins to a 21-10 lead. The pair of scoring catches by Bragg tied the Bruin bowl game record. Wyoming mounted a late comeback, using a trick play early in the fourth quarter as Jovon Bouknight threw a 22-yard scoring pass to J.J. Raterink off a reverse. Later in the quarter, faced with a fourth-and-one at the Bruins' 27, Wyoming used a quarterback sneak to keep a drive alive. A pass interference call against Matt Clark moved the Cowboys to the 12-yard line, setting up a game-winning touchdown pass with just 0:57 on the clock.

December 30, 2005 — Sun Bowl
UCLA 50, Northwestern 38

The Bruins rebounded from an early 22-point deficit to record the biggest comeback victory in school history, as they defeated Northwestern 50-38 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, TX. Led by a pair of young running backs, true sophomore Chris Markey and true freshman Kahlil Bell, the Bruins racked up 310 yards on the ground. Senior quarterback Drew Olson, who threw just three interceptions during the regular season, struggled early as he was picked off three times in the first quarter. Two of those interceptions were returned for TDs, while the third set up a Northwestern scoring drive. Down 22-0, UCLA got on the board after a five-yard run by Bell to end the first quarter. In the second quarter, the Bruins scored 22 unanswered points, highlighted by a 58-yard strike from Olson to freshman tight end Ryan Moya. In the third quarter, Northwestern managed a field goal, while junior Michael Pitre tacked on seven more points for the Bruins after catching a five-yard pass from Olson. With most of the fourth quarter gone, Northwestern scored first (2:29 remaining) on an eight-yard pass play. On the ensuing kickoff, an onside kick bounced directly up into the hands of sophomore wide receiver Brandon Breazell who returned it 42 yards for a score. With just 0:24 seconds to play, the Wildcats scored on a five-yard touchdown reception to close to within 43-38. Another onside kick by the Wildcats was picked up by Breazell, who this time ran 45 yards for the final touchdown of the game. The two schools combined to set a Sun Bowl record for total offensive yards (1,037 yards) and highest combined score (88 points). Markey (161 yards) and Bell (136 yards, two TD's) were named the game's co-MVPs, while Breazell was named the Special Teams Player of the Game. Junior tailback Maurice Drew, who was sidelined by an injury early in the game, broke the NCAA record for punt-return average after recording his 15th punt return of the season (28.5 avg. yards).

December 27, 2006 — Emerald Bowl Florida State 44, UCLA 27

In front of a sold out, predominantly Bruin-friendly crowd at AT&T Ball Park in San Francisco, the Bruins dropped a 44-27 decision to Florida State in the Emerald Bowl. Despite an impressive offensive performance, the Bruins couldn't overcome a 21-0 run by FSU in the fourth quarter. The Seminoles scored first on a 25-yard touchdown run, but UCLA then scored 10 unanswered points, highlighted by Patrick Cowan's 78-yard touchdown strike to Brandon Breazell, to end the first quarter up 10-7. The defense held Florida State to just two second quarter field goals, while the Bruins put up 10 more points on an amazing seven-yard touchdown catch by Junior Taylor and a 19-yard field goal by Justin Medlock to head into the halftime break up 20-13. The Seminoles opened up the second half with a field goal, then tacked on seven more points after a UCLA punt was blocked and returned 25-yards for a touchdown. UCLA's Chane Moline rushed for an eight-yard touchdown to put the Bruins up, 27-23, at the end of the third quarter. Florida State held the Bruins scoreless in the fourth quarter, scoring 21 unanswered points, capped off by an 86-yard interception return for a score, as the Seminoles would go on to win, 44-27. In the game, UCLA racked up 434 yards of total offense with Patrick Cowan throwing for 240 yards. Running back Chris Markey broke the 1,000-yard rushing (11th Bruin to do so) mark with his 144-yard performance. The Bruin defense was led by Alterraun Verner, who equaled his career-high with nine tackles.

December 27, 2007 — Las Vegas Bowl BYU 17, UCLA 16

In the second meeting of the season between the two schools, the Cougars came out on top in a close game. The first quarter saw the two teams trade field goals. BYU took a 10-3 lead early in the second quarter on a 14-yard pass play. Another field goal by Kai Forbath pulled the Bruins to within four, but BYU once again marched down the field to score on a pass play for a 17-6 advantage. A Cougar fumble, just before the end of the first half, gave the Bruins the ball on BYU's four-yard line. UCLA took advantage of the opportunity, scoring on a four-yard pass play from McLeod Bethel-Thompson to Brandon Breazell to close to within four points at the break. After a scoreless third quarter, UCLA tacked on another field goal with 6:24 remaining in the contest to trail by just one, 17-16. The Bruin offense got the ball back one last time with two minutes to play and marched almost the length of the field to set up a potential game-winning field goal try with just seconds remaining. However, the Cougars blocked the kick and were awarded the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl trophy. Chris Markey led all rushers with 117 yards, while Bethel-Thompson threw for 154 yards and one touchdown. Kyle Bosworth led the defense with 12 tackles, while Bruce Davis tallied 2.5 sacks.

Largest Overall Comeback Win

Dec. 30, 2005 - UCLA 50, Northwestern 38 at Sun Bowl

Northwestern	22	0	3	13	—	38
UCLA	7	22	7	14	—	50

Attn.: 50,426 Weather: Clear (56°)

(22-point deficit in the first quarter) UCLA trailed Northwestern 22-0 with 4:21 remaining in the first quarter of the Sun Bowl game in El Paso, TX before rallying for a 50-38 win, completing the largest comeback in school history.

The Bruins began their comeback with 15 seconds left in the first quarter when running back Kahlil Bell scored on a five-yard run. UCLA tallied three touchdowns in the second quarter on a 58-yard pass play from Drew Olson to tight end Ryan Moya with 13:57 to play in the quarter; a six-yard run by Bell with 8:26 to play and an eight-yard scoring pass from Olson to wide receiver Marcus Everett with 29 seconds left before the half to take a 29-22 lead into the locker room at intermission.

Michael Pitre grabbed a five-yard scoring pass from Olson as the Bruins extended their lead to 36-22 midway through the third quarter. Northwestern closed to 36-25 after a third quarter (4:40) field goal. In the fourth quarter, the Wildcats narrowed the margin to 36-31 after a touchdown pass with 2:29 left in the game, but misfired on a two-point conversion pass.

Breazell then returned the onside kickoff 42 yards for a touchdown to make it 43-31 Bruins. Northwestern drove down the field and scored with 24 seconds to play and kicked the extra point to make the score 43-38. Breazell then repeated his earlier feat by fielding the onside kickoff attempt and returning it 45 yards for a touchdown.

Largest Fourth-Quarter Comeback Win

Oct. 29, 2005 - UCLA 30, Stanford 27 at Stanford, CA

UCLA	0	3	0	21	6	—	30
Stanford	7	0	7	10	3	—	27

Attn.: 42,850 Weather: Partly Cloudy (70°)

(21-point deficit in the fourth quarter) UCLA trailed Stanford 24-3 after the Cardinal converted a Bruin fumble into a score with 8:26 remaining in the fourth quarter of the contest.

UCLA began its comeback on a Maurice Drew six-yard run with 7:04 to play in the fourth quarter, culminating a 65-yard drive which took just 1:22 off the clock. The Bruin defense then forced Stanford to punt without a first down. This time it took just 34 seconds to drive 72 yards, with Drew Olson hitting Drew for a 22-yard gain, Marcus Everett for 19 more and Joe Cowan for a 31-yard touchdown. Stanford made one first down on its subsequent possession before kicking the ball back to the Bruins. UCLA took over at its own 34-yard line with 2:30 showing on the clock. On a third-and-five, Olson found Marcedes Lewis for 20 yards to the Stanford 41-yard line. Two consecutive pass interference calls moved the ball to the Cardinal 14-yard line. On fourth-and-one at the six-yard line, Olson found Cowan at the one for a first down. Drew scored on the next play with 46 seconds remaining on the clock.

In overtime, Stanford kicked a 42-yard field goal after Justin Hickman recorded his third sack on a third-and-three play at the 18-yard line. On the second play of UCLA's possession, Olson found Brandon Breazell in the left corner of the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown and the victory.

Largest Comeback Win Versus USC

Nov. 23, 1996 - UCLA 48, USC 41 at Rose Bowl

USC	10	14	7	7	3	0	— 41
UCLA	0	7	14	17	3	7	— 48

Attn.: 80,644 Weather: Light Fog (74°)

(17-point deficit in fourth quarter) Do you believe in miracles? Now you do, after the Bruins rallied from a 17-point, fourth quarter deficit to secure their sixth straight win in the city-series, 48-41, in overtime, before 80,644 spectators in the Rose Bowl.

After the teams traded field goals in the first overtime period, Skip Hicks scored the game-winner on a 25-yard run, breaking several Trojan tackles, on the first play of the second overtime period. UCLA then clinched the win when Anthony Cobbs intercepted a fourth-down pass in the end zone and the four-hour, 23-minute battle was over.

USC dominated the game for three quarters, like UCLA had for the previous five seasons — forcing turnovers and making the big play on offense. The Trojans marched out to a 17-0 lead in the first 21 minutes of the game, and led 31-21 entering the fourth quarter and 38-21 after R. Jay Soward streaked down the right sideline on his way to a 78-yard scoring play with 11:06 to play in the game.

The Bruins narrowed the deficit to 38-24 on a 47-yard field goal by Bjorn Merten with 6:12 remaining. The Bruins quickly got the ball back after pinning USC against its own goal-line and forcing a short punt. Nine plays and 41 yards later, freshman Keith Brown scored from the one-yard line to slice the margin to 38-31 at the 2:49 mark.

The ensuing onside kick was recovered by USC. Two plays later the Trojans had a first-and-ten at the Bruin 41 with less than two minutes to play. However, on the next play, junior linebacker Danjuan Magee reached in and hit running back LaVale Woods as he was about to break away from the pack, forcing a fumble. Senior cornerback Kusanti Abdul-Salaam recovered and returned the ball to the Bruin 44. UCLA had 1:27 left on the clock and a single timeout remaining to negotiate 56 yards, trailing 38-31.

Quarterback Cade McNown began the drive by connecting with Jim McElroy for 17 yards and three plays later lofted a 23-yarder to Rodney Lee, who made a spectacular diving grab at the USC 11. On the next play, Skip Hicks found the end zone on a burst up the middle. The game was tied when Merten sent the extra point through the uprights and 39 seconds showed on the clock.

USC had one last chance to win the game in regulation, after a 39-yard pass play and a pass interference penalty put the ball at the UCLA 23. But Adam Abrams' 40-yard field goal attempt sailed into the Bruin line, and it was on to overtime for the first time in the series.

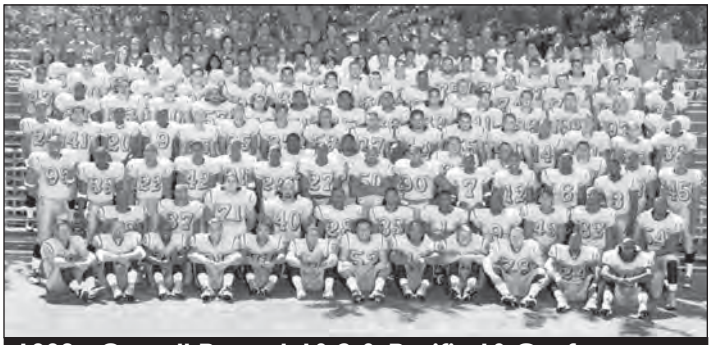
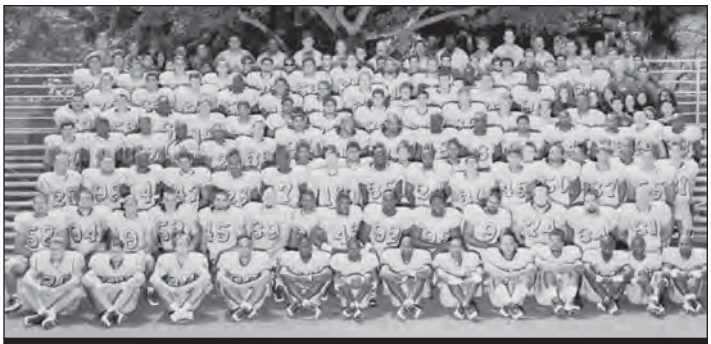
UCLA LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS



1998 • Overall Record: 10-2-0; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 8-0; AP Rank: 8; Coach: Bob Toledo

The Bruins opened the year with 10 wins in a row to extend the school record win streak to 20, including an eighth straight victory over USC. UCLA climbed as high as No. 2 in the polls and became just the fourth team in Pac-10 history to post a perfect 8-0 league mark. Kris Farris won the Outland Trophy. Cade McNown set single season records for passing yards and total offense.

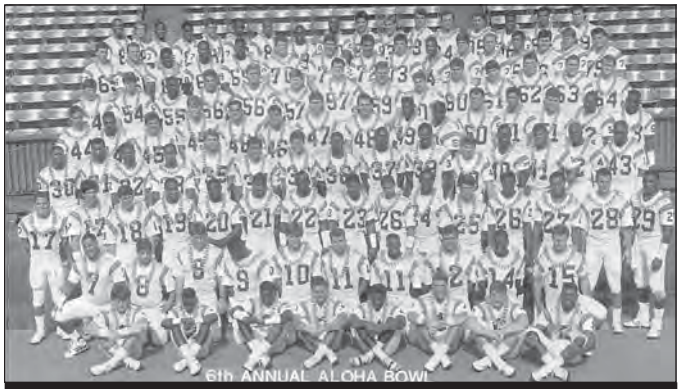


1997 • Overall Record: 10-2-0; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 7-1; AP Rank: 5; Coach: Bob Toledo

The Bruins won the last 10 games of the season, concluding the year with a Cotton Bowl triumph over Texas A&M. It was the first time since 1946 that the Bruins had won 10 straight games in a season. Cade McNown led the nation in pass efficiency and over 85,000 fans turned out for the Washington game, the largest non-USC home crowd in 50 years. Skip Hicks set a school mark with 26 touchdowns and the Bruin offense scored 477 points, the most in school history.

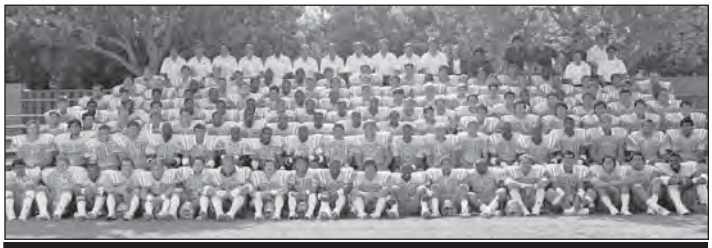
1993 • Overall Record: 8-4-0; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 6-2; AP Rank: 18; Coach: Terry Donahue

The Bruins won seven straight Pac-10 games to tie for the conference title and a win over USC clinched a trip to the Rose Bowl game. UCLA led the nation in turnover margin (+1.73). J.J. Stokes set a school mark with 17 touchdown receptions in a season. Stokes went on to set a Rose Bowl game mark with 14 catches against Wisconsin.



1987 • Overall Record: 10-2-0; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 7-1; AP Rank: 9; Coach: Terry Donahue

The Bruins tied a school record with 10 wins and tied for the league title after posting a then school record seven conference wins. The team ranked fourth in the nation in defense. Troy Aikman and Gaston Green became the first Bruin duo to throw for over 2,000 yards and run for over 1,000 yards in the same season. The Bruins won a sixth straight bowl game with a win over Florida and Emmitt Smith in the Aloha Bowl.



1985 • Overall Record: 9-2-1; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 6-2; AP Rank: 7; Coach: Terry Donahue

The season started with a win over defending national champion BYU and ended with a third trip to the Rose Bowl game in four seasons. The Bruins led the nation in rush defense (70.3 yards per game) and placed seventh in total defense behind the play of such future NFL performers as James Washington, Mark Walen, Ken Norton, Jr., Jim Wahler, Carnell Lake and Darryl Henley. Despite a 17-13 loss at USC, the Bruins finished in a first-place tie in the conference. About five hours after the Bruin loss to the Trojans, Arizona's defeat of Arizona State left all three teams tied at 6-2 in the league race. UCLA won the championship tie-breaker and went on to defeat Iowa in the Rose Bowl game.

1983 • Overall Record: 7-4-1; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 6-1-1; AP Rank: 17; Coach: Terry Donahue

After an 0-3-1 start, the Bruins rallied behind quarterback Rick Neuheisel and won seven of their next eight games, earning a trip to the Rose Bowl with a 27-17 victory over USC. The win over USC, combined with Washington State's win over Washington, clinched the Bruins' return trip to Pasadena. In UCLA's win over Washington, Neuheisel completed 25 of 27 passes for an NCAA-record .926 percentage. In the Rose Bowl game, UCLA jumped out to a 28-3 halftime advantage and went on to post a 45-9 upset win over No. 4-ranked Illinois. It marked UCLA's fourth-straight win in the Rose Bowl game. Karl Dorrell caught two of Neuheisel's four touchdown passes in the game.

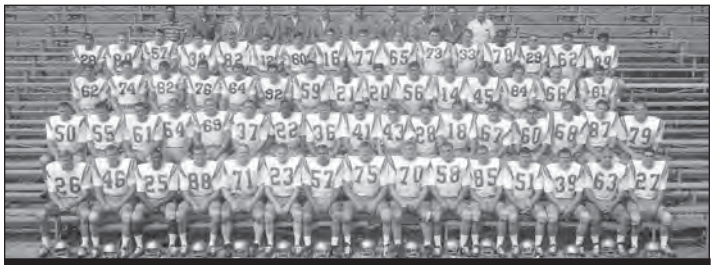
UCLA LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

1982 • Overall Record: 10-1-1; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 5-1-1; AP Rank: 5; Coach: Terry Donahue

After a loss at Washington, the Bruins needed to beat USC to earn a Rose Bowl bid in their first season of playing home games in the Arroyo Seco. With time having already expired, Karl Morgan stopped USC's two-point conversion attempt to preserve the win that sent the Bruins home to Pasadena. On New Year's Day, they beat Michigan for the second time that season, by a score of 24-14. In the earlier contest, UCLA had rallied from a 21-0 second quarter deficit to hand the Wolverines a 31-27 setback in Ann Arbor. UCLA totaled 10 wins for just the second time in history and the team ranked third nationally in scoring offense. Tom Ramsey led the nation in passing efficiency (153.5).

1975 • Overall Record: 9-2-1; Pacific-8 Conference Record: 6-1; AP Rank: 5; Coach: Dick Vermeil

Just like in 1965, the Bruins avenged an early-season loss in the Rose Bowl with a 23-10 win over then No. 1 ranked Ohio State in a game played before 105,464 fans. It also turned out to be coach Dick Vermeil's final game as Bruin head coach. An earlier conference loss to Washington meant that the Bruins had to defeat USC to earn a bid to the Rose Bowl game. UCLA posted a 25-22 win despite fumbling 11 times in the contest. It did manage to rack up over 400 yards in offense for the game against the toughest defense in the Pac-8. Wendell Tyler gained 130 yards on the ground against the Trojans to break Kermit Johnson's single-season rushing record. For the season, quarterback John Sciarra rushed for 787 yards and threw for 1,313 more yards.

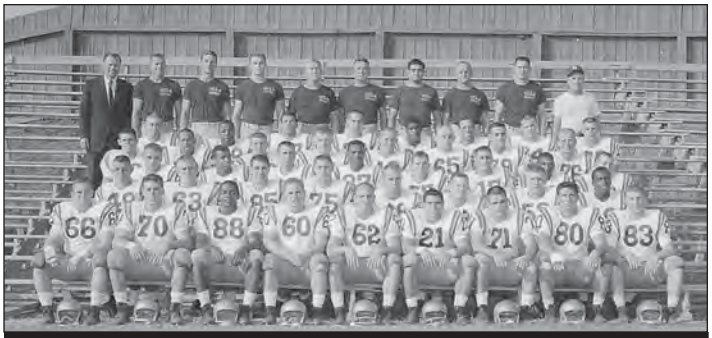


1965 • Overall Record: 8-2-1; AAWU Record: 4-0; AP Rank:4; Coach: Tommy Prothro

The Bruins proceeded to record their first ever win in a Rose Bowl game with a 14-12 victory over then top-ranked Michigan State. Bob Stiles and Jim Colletto combined to stop the Spartan's two-point conversion attempt in the fourth quarter and preserve UCLA's initial post-season win. Two touchdown passes by quarterback Gary Beban in the final four minutes of the USC game pulled out a 20-16 win and completed a perfect conference slate. First-year head coach Tommy Prothro was voted Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

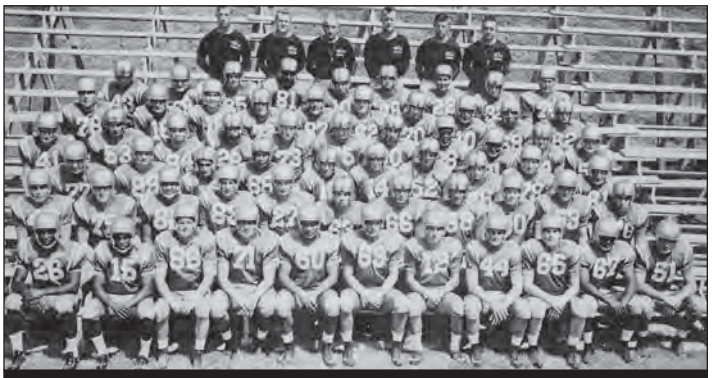
1961 • Overall Record: 7-4; AAWU Record: 3-1; AP Rank: 16; Coach: Bill Barnes

The 1961 Bruins were known for their strong running game and stingy defense. The team totaled 413 yards on the ground in a win over California. Sophomore Mike Haffner won the conference rushing title (703 yards) and senior Bobby Smith led the league in scoring (85) and total offense (966 yards). The Bruins beat USC, 10-7, in a rainstorm at the Coliseum to earn their way to the Rose Bowl. Minnesota handed the Bruins a 21-3 setback in the Arroyo Seco to ruin UCLA's fifth trip to the Rose Bowl game.



1959 • Overall Record: 5-4-1; AAWU Record: 3-1; AP Rank: n/a; Coach: Bill Barnes

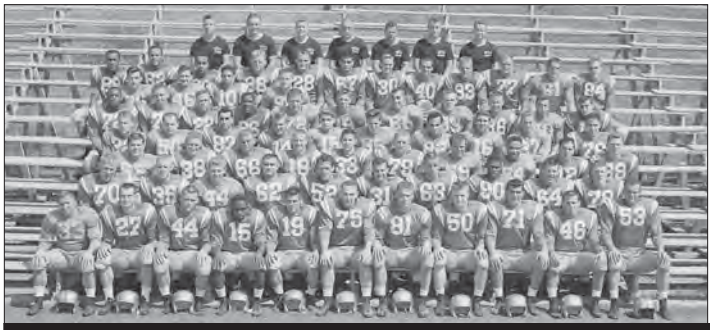
The Bruins, behind the play of Bill Kilmer, handed an unbeaten, No.2 ranked USC its first loss and went on to tie for the championship of the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The upset win over the Trojans sent a crowd of over 5,000 into the streets of Westwood to celebrate. Kilmer led the team in total offense that season with 702 yards passing and 388 yards rushing. It was the first full season as head coach for Bill Barnes, a former assistant on Red Sanders' staff. He was elevated to the top spot in the middle of the previous season after an illness to George Dickerson.



1955 • Overall Record: 9-2; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 6-0; AP Rank: 4; Coach: Red Sanders

The Bruins opened the season with a 21-0 win over Bear Bryant's Texas A&M team. The next week, the No.1 ranked Bruins traveled to the East for the first time to meet No. 5- ranked Maryland and were handed a 7-0 loss by the Terrapins, snapping UCLA's 10-game winning streak. UCLA went on to win its final eight games in the regular season, four were shutouts, and met Michigan State in the Rose Bowl. A last-second Spartan field goal ruined the Bruin chances for a first-ever Rose Bowl victory, 17-14. Guard Hardiman Cureton earned All-America honors and running back Bob Davenport finished his career with over 1,100 yards. Red Sanders became the first head coach in history to win three straight PCC titles.

UCLA LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS



1954 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • Overall Record: 9-0; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 6-0; AP Rank: 2; UPI Rank: 1; Coach: Red Sanders

The Bruins captured their first National Championship (UPI) and fielded their highest scoring team (40.8 points) in history (to date) as they won back-to-back conference titles for the first time ever. The total of 367 points over nine games ranked first in the nation and the defense limited opponents to just 40 points and 73.2 yards rushing per game to lead the nation in those categories as well. The Bruins clinched the conference championship in 110-degree heat with a 34-0 win over USC before 102,548 fans in the Coliseum. During the year, the Bruins set a school record that still stands with a 72-0 blanking of Stanford. They also handed No. 6 ranked Maryland a 12-7 loss early in the season. Guard Jim Salsbury, tackle Jack Ellena and fullback Bob Davenport each were named to at least one All-America first team. Left half back Primo Villanueva, a second-team All-American, led the team with 886 yards in total offense. The team completed the year ranked at the top of the UPI poll and second in the Associated Press poll.

1953 • Overall Record: 8-2-0; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 6-1; AP Rank: 5; Coach: Red Sanders

Only a 21-20 loss at Stanford in the fifth game of the year spoiled a perfect UCLA record during the regular season. The Bruins fielded one of the greatest defenses in college football history (yielding just 2.91 yds/play), allowing just 48 points in nine regular season games. Chuck Doud, Jack Ellena, Hardiman Cureton and Myron Berliner keyed the defense. Tailback Paul Cameron led the PCC in rushing and came up just short of Kenny Washington's record for most yards gained in a career. According to newspaper accounts, an estimated 12,000 students gathered at the corner of Westwood and Wilshire for a two-hour rally to celebrate UCLA's selection to the Rose Bowl game.

1946 • Overall Record: 10-1; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 7-0; AP Rank 4; Coach: Bert LaBrucherie

UCLA recorded its first-ever unbeaten, untied regular season and advanced to the Rose Bowl game for the second time. The Bruins averaged a then school-best total of 60,885 fans during their home games. The team rolled up a school record (at the time) 327 points and was selected for the Rose Bowl game opposite Illinois. Despite an upset loss to the Fighting Illini, the Bruins finished with their highest national ranking to date, fourth by the Associated Press. Ernie Case threw for a then Rose Bowl record 165 yards in the setback.

1942 • Overall Record: 7-4-0; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 6-1; AP Rank: 13; Coach: Edwin Horrell

The 1942 season marked UCLA's first appearance in the Rose Bowl game. After opening the season with two losses, the Bruins won seven of the next eight contests to close the regular season. Bob Waterfield became the first Bruin to throw for over 1,000 yards in a season. Fullback Ken Snelling and left halfback Al Solari keyed the rushing attack. Georgia then handed the Bruins a 9-0 setback in the Rose Bowl game. The Bruins finished the year ranked 13th by the Associated Press.

1935 • Overall Record: 8-2; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 4-1; Coach: William Spaulding

(No team photo available)

The Bruins opened the 1935 season with an impressive 39-0 shutout over Utah State. A 20-7 win over Oregon State followed as did two more wins at Stanford, 7-6, and versus Oregon, 33-6. California and SMU then handed the Bruins back-to-back losses. UCLA finished the season with four straight wins over Hawaii, Loyola, Idaho and at St. Mary's. The season marked the first-ever conference championship for a UCLA football team, which began participating in the PCC in 1928. A third-place finish in 1932 had been its best previous result in the league standings.

TOP CROWDS (1944-2008)

In 1996, UCLA played before the two largest crowds in school history. Since 1944, the Bruins have played before 85,000 or more fans 65 times, topped by Tennessee's crowd of 106,297 in 1996. In 1982, for the first time in school history, UCLA had two crowds of better than 100,000 and three of better than 95,000.

THE VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game is given the Victory Bell. The 295-pound bell originally hung atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For the next two seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of the 1941 UCLA football season, six members of a USC fraternity mixed in among the Bruin supporters and after the game helped them load the Bell onto a waiting truck which was bound for Westwood. While the Bruin well-wishers were searching for the missing keys to the truck, the Trojan supporters drove off with the bell. The bell remained hidden for more than a year in various locations.

The controversy quieted somewhat until a picture of the bell was featured in a USC publication. This action re-ignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus. Trojan students then acted by burning their school's initials on several UCLA lawns. Police and school administrators had to be called to help quell the uprisings.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both institutions signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the rivalry football game would keep possession of the bell for the next year. In that first season on the gridiron following the pact, the Bruins, under the direction of coach Edwin Horrell, defeated the Trojans, 14-7, to mark the first-ever Bruin win in the series. Later that season, the Bruin team went on to make its first ever post-season appearance in the 1943 Rose Bowl game.

James Washington, who earned All-America honors as a safety at UCLA and helped the Dallas Cowboys win two Super Bowls, is one of many Bruin football alumni who have served as an Honorary Captain and participated in the pre-game coin flip.

HONORARY CAPTAINS

For each UCLA home game, UCLA honors a star from its past as an Honorary Captain. The selected Bruin alum speaks to the football team on Friday, stays at the team hotel on Friday night, is on the sideline prior to and during the game and participates in the pre-game coin flip with the Bruin captains.

Bruin standouts who have participated as an Honorary Captain include: three-time consensus All-Americans and College Football Hall of Fame members Kenny Easley and Jerry Robinson; former head coach and College Football Hall of Fame member Terry Donahue; James Washington, Bruin All-American and two-time Super Bowl champion; and Billy Kilmer, also in the College Football Hall of Fame, just to name a few.

THE ANNUAL UCLA-USC GAUNTLET

The UCLA-USC rivalry is one of the most storied in the history of collegiate athletics. The schools, which share the same city, have competed against each other since the 1920's and claim two of the most successful athletic programs in the nation.

Beginning in the 2001-2002 school year, whenever UCLA and USC meet in athletic competition, not only are city bragging rights up for grabs, but the crosstown rivals now compete for the Gauntlet. The trophy is awarded annually to the University with the most successful athletic year against the other in the 18 common sports.

USC leads the competition with five Gauntlet wins to three, winning it by a score of 65.0-45.0 in 2008-09 and 67.5-42.5 in 2007-08. UCLA won the Gauntlet for the 2006-07 school year while registering a series-high 72.5 points to 37.5 for the Trojans. In 2005-06, USC won, (60-50). In 2004-2005, the Bruins scored 67.5 points to 42.5 for the Trojans. In 2003-2004, USC earned the Gauntlet with 57.5 points to 52.5 for the Bruins.

UCLA won its first Gauntlet in the 2002-2003 school year. The schools tied with 55 points each and were also deadlocked after the first tie-breaker (head-to-head regular-season competitions), 16-16. However, UCLA won the second tie-breaker (post-season head-to-head competition), 4-0 to clinch the Gauntlet. USC won the first Gauntlet in 2001-2002. The schools tied with 55 points each, but USC won the first tie-breaker, 16-15.

THE ORIGIN OF THE BRUIN MASCOTS

The first athletic mascot for UCLA teams appeared as the result of spirited student demand. In the 1930's, a live bear and its trainer were rented by Associated Students to appear at all UCLA home football games. However, wild animals became increasingly difficult to handle in a large crowd, and the Coliseum outlawed their appearances.

UCLA was without a mascot again until the early 1950's, when student and alumni united to bring "Little Joe Bruin" to Westwood. Only six months of age during the football season, this first official "Little Joe" was a Himalayan bear cub from India. However, after a short time he grew too large and was transferred to a circus.

The first "Josephine" arrived in 1961, after a long search to fill "Little Joe Bruin's" place. She was purchased by the alumni, and was kept in the backyard of the Rally Committee chairman. She also grew too large and was soon moved to the San Diego Zoo.

The difficulty in obtaining and caring for live bears eventually led to the appearance of costumed student mascots. In the mid-1960's several male students were selected to take turns playing the part of Joe Bruin. In 1967, the first female to become a UCLA mascot created the role of Josephine Bruin and joined Joe at athletic events. The various versions of the duo have been a fixture on the UCLA sporting scene ever since that time.

THE ORIGIN OF THE "UCLA BRUIN"

Back in 1919 UCLA was known as the "Southern Branch" of the University of California. The UCLA football team, playing its first season, was then known as the "Cubs" owing to their younger relationship to the California Bears in Berkeley.

In 1923, under new coach Jimmie Cline, the football team adopted the name "Grizzlies" instead of Cubs. In 1925, Bill Spaulding came west from the University of Minnesota to help upgrade the football program. In 1928, the Grizzlies joined the Pacific Coast Conference. However, there was a problem with the nickname, since the University of Montana, also a member of the PCC at the time, had prior rights to the nickname "Grizzlies". UCLA, which had changed its name from the Southern Branch in 1927, became the "Bruins" in 1928 and has been recognized as such ever since.

UCLA ON RADIO/TELEVISION

This season, UCLA's football games will be broadcast on AM 570 (KLAC). This is the 13th year of UCLA's association with Clear Channel Radio and its fourth on AM 570.

The games will again be produced by International Sports Properties (ISP), UCLA's corporate and media rights holder. ISP is also building a network on the West Coast and KLAC serves as the flagship station of the UCLA/ISP Sports Network.

The game broadcasts are also available on the Bruin web site at www.uclabruins.com.

Chris Roberts will be in his 18th year as the play-by-play voice of the Bruins. A four-time Golden Mike winner, he also handles the play-by-play duties for men's basketball. He has been nominated three times for the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn. "Play-by-Play Broadcaster of the Year" award. He has also authored two books, Stadium Stories, UCLA Bruins and The Football Vault, UCLA, co-authored with Bill Bennett. Prior to joining the Bruin crew in 1992, he served as the voice of the Long Beach State 49ers for 10 years. During that time, he was the sports director at KFI/KOST 103 FM. Over the last 27 years, no one has done more Division I radio play-by-play in Southern California.

Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens ('83-86) will be in his 13th season as a member of the broadcast team and his ninth as the analyst following four years as the sideline reporter. He will also serve as co-host of the pre-game show.

Wayne Cook ('91-94), another former Bruin quarterback, will be in his eighth year as a sideline reporter and pre-game show host.

UCLA's complete television plans were not definite at press time.

ESPN will televise the Tennessee game to a national audience. ABC/ESPN is expected to select other games 12 days prior to kickoff in accordance with its contract with the Pac-10 Conference (20 total Pac-10 home games with at least 12 on ABC and the others on ESPN or ESPN2).

Fox Sports Net will televise 18 Pac-10 football contests throughout the nation on its cable network for the 12th consecutive year. FSN has already selected UCLA's games versus USC and Kansas State for national telecasts. In conjunction with Fox Sports Net, Versus will produce and televise five Pac-10 home games nationally. Both entities are expected to select other Bruin games during the season.

Left to Right: Matt Stevens, Chris Roberts and Wayne Cook

FS West and Prime Ticket, Los Angeles-based regional sports cable stations, also available nation-wide on DIRECTV (West - 692, PT - 694), will televise some games on a local basis, including the San Diego State contest. Bill Macdonald will again handle the play-by-play duties (17th year) with James Washington serving as the analyst.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Admission to the Rose Bowl press box, sidelines and dressing area is by credential only. Due to space limitations, credentials will be limited to media members who cover UCLA on a regular basis, media members who cover the visiting team or national media. Local weekly publications will be credentialed only if space is available after filling requests from daily publications. Freelancers will not be accommodated. Requests should be submitted in writing by the media agency's Sports Editor or Sports Director at least two weeks prior to the game and addressed to Marc Dellins, Sports Information Director, UCLA Athletic Department, P.O. Box 24044, Los Angeles, CA 90024-0044 (mdellins@athletics.ucla.edu). Writers covering the UCLA beat may request credentials for road games through Dellins.

CREDENTIAL PICKUP

Credentials are available during the week at the Sports Information Office. Credentials not claimed by Friday afternoon will be available on Saturday at the "Press Will Call" window, which is located outside of Gate B at the southeast side of the Rose Bowl. Photo credentials are not available for advance pick-up and are issued on the day of the game. "Press Will Call" opens two hours prior to kickoff.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of parking permits are available from the Sports Information Office. The media area is located on the west side of the Rose Bowl. A map showing lot locations is printed on the back of the pass.

MEDIA ENTRANCE/SEATING

The press gate is located adjacent to Gate F on the west side of the Rose Bowl. Three press box elevators are located in the lobby area opposite Gate F. Media seating is located on the south side of Level Two of the press box. Television and radio booths are located on Level Three of the press box. Press box credentials are not good on the sidelines until the final five minutes of the game. Please be aware that all people and bags are subject to search.

MEDIA SERVICES

A play-by-play of each quarter, plus halftime and final statistics and post-game quotes from both coaches, are supplied to media. Programs, pre-game notes and flip cards will be distributed prior to the game. Food is available in the press box for the media and in the field level work area for photographers.

TELEPHONE/INTERNET/FAX SERVICE

Media wishing to order telephones should place their order through AT&T — (800/339-3204). Telephone instruments are not provided. Radio stations wishing to order broadcast lines should contact AT&T Program Services (800/400-6990 from anywhere in the country). Two charge-call telephones are located in the press box for use by the media.

Internet access is available in the press box by both network/ethernet connection at each seat and by wireless connection.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Television and Photo credentials entitle video and still photographers to shoot from the sidelines. In accordance with NCAA rules, members of the media (still photographers, television cameramen and reporters) are not allowed in the team area (between the 25-yard lines). Only photographers wearing proper credentials and working are allowed on the sideline. Photo credentials will not be mailed and may only be picked up on game day at the Photo Will Call booth at Gate A. Please have picture identification available and be aware that all people and bags are subject to search. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. In addition, a limited amount of space is available on the Photo Mezzanine, which is located in front of Press Box Level One.

A new photo transmission room has been established on the field level on the east side of Tunnel 23A (the west tunnel). Photographers may order telephone lines installed in this area for digital transmission. Electrical power, game programs and rosters will be available in this area. In addition, food and drinks will also be available in this area.

POST-GAME PROCEDURE

Following a cooling-off period, head coach Rick Neuheisel and selected Bruin players will be available in the Interview Room, located on the east side of Tunnel 23A (west tunnel). Soon after Coach Neuheisel addresses the media, the UCLA locker room will be open to credentialed members of the media. The UCLA locker room is located down the hallway from the interview room. The visiting coach will meet the media in an interview room just north of the visiting locker room. In the case of a night game, questions and answers from the Interview Room (UCLA interviews only) will be shown on the press box television monitors.

WEEKLY INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITIES

Head Coach: Rick Neuheisel hosts a media conference every Monday at 1:00 p.m. in the Press Room of the J.D. Morgan Center. Coach Neuheisel will also be available following practice sessions on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. In addition, an audio tape of his Monday news conference will be available for play-back throughout the week, beginning late Monday afternoon.

Coach Neuheisel will also be available weekly on the Pac-10 Coaches conference call. Contact the Pac-10 office for the telephone number and schedule of coaches.

Coach Neuheisel will not be available to the media on Sundays.

Players: All interviews must be arranged by the Sports Information Office. Players have been instructed not to grant any interview, in person or by telephone, not arranged by the SID staff. Player telephone numbers are private and will not be released.

Players will not be available on Sundays. Interviews may be arranged for Mondays (a non-practice day), prior to coach Neuheisel's regular media session, by making a request to SID Marc Dellins or Associate SID - Football Steve Rourke on Sunday. Please do not expect players to be available if you have not made prior arrangements.

On Monday through Wednesday of game week, interviews may also be scheduled around the lunch hour, if the request is made the previous day and the player is available. Players will usually be available for brief interviews after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays once they have completed their football obligations. Players will not be available on Thursday, Friday or before a game. Post-practice interviews will be conducted on Spaulding Field or in Pauley Pavilion. The locker room, training room and weight room are off-limits to everyone with the exception of team members and Athletic Department personnel.

Radio stations may schedule telephone interviews following the guidelines listed above. All interviews must be completed before the players leave the locker room area after practice. Night interviews will not be scheduled.

WEEKLY RELEASES

The weekly UCLA football release is available on the official school internet site — uclabruins.com. Audio and video interviews will also be available on the site during the season.

PRACTICE

The UCLA football team practices on Spaulding Field, located just south of Pauley Pavilion. This season, practice sessions on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays will be open to the media outlets that cover UCLA on a regular basis, national media and other media outlets at the discretion of the Sports Information Office. Media expecting to attend practice should contact the SID office (310-206-6831) to have their name placed on a list.

No live/real-time transmissions are allowed during practice, including radio reports or blogging. Video and still photographers may shoot isolation footage of players to be interviewed but not wide-angle formations. Video and still photographic shooting is only allowed during the first 30-40 minutes of practice. Media must call in advance to make sure that their name is on a list to be admitted to the practice session.

The team will have a light workout on Sundays this season. The Sunday workout is closed to all media and no interviews will be conducted that day.

DIRECTIONS TO UCLA

From Los Angeles International Airport, take Century Blvd. east to the San Diego Freeway (405). Take the San Diego Freeway north to Wilshire Blvd. (approx. 15 miles). Go east on Wilshire and continue to Westwood. Turn left on Westwood and stop at the parking kiosk. Media parking is available in Lot 6 and Lot 8, located near Pauley Pavilion.

DIRECTIONS TO THE ROSE BOWL

From Los Angeles International Airport, take Century Blvd. east to the San Diego Freeway (405). Take the San Diego Freeway north to the Ventura Fwy (101) — approx. 20 miles. Take the Ventura Freeway east to the junction of the Hollywood (101) and Ventura (134) Freeways — approx. five miles. Take the Ventura Freeway east past the Golden State Freeway (5) into Pasadena — approx. 15 miles. Exit at Linda Vista and follow the signs to the Rose Bowl.

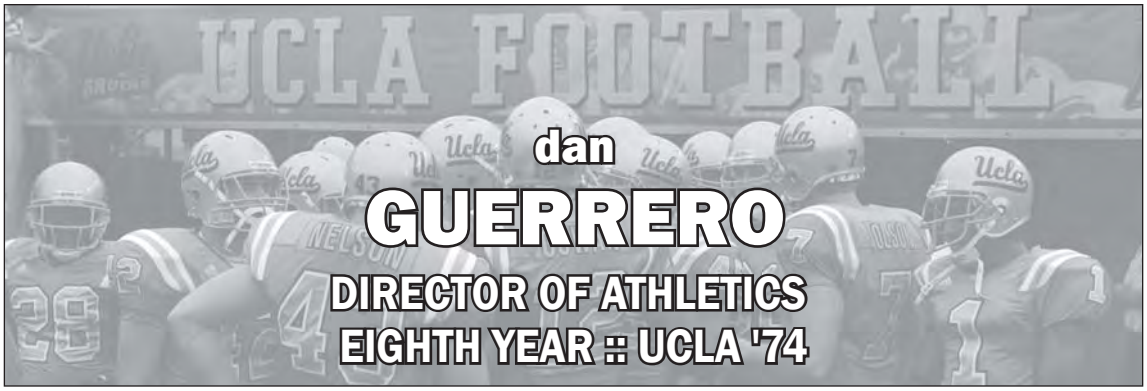
Television stations desiring highlights and/or interviews with Bruin players should contact Dennis Kirkpatrick at Bayview Productions (310/543-1835).



dan GUERRERO

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
EIGHTH YEAR :: UCLA '74

On April 25, 2002, Daniel G. Guerrero was named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, has enjoyed great success and exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is now calling the shots at his alma mater.

Guerrero, one of the most respected and talented administrators in intercollegiate athletics, has placed his mark on the program as the director of athletics at UCLA. He is currently serving as the chair of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee and is in his fifth year on that committee. In addition, he is the second vice-president of the National Assn. of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), serves on the NACDA Executive Committee and is also the first vice-president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association. He recently completed his service as chair of the NCAA's Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Group. In June of 2007, he was named NACDA Division I West Region Athletic Director of the Year.

In his seven years as AD, Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA team championships (104) won, a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those seven years, UCLA teams have won 18 NCAA team titles (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 14 times and have had an additional 24 Top Five finishes (67 total). A staggering 131 teams (of 161 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in six bowl games. The program has also won 42 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced 387 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing, China, 39 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and nine other nations. They won 15 medals, including four gold.

In the last seven years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07 and 2005-06), third twice (2004-05 and 2003-04), sixth (2002-03) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Director's Cup.

This past year, UCLA won its fifth consecutive NCAA women's water polo championship. The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in women's soccer (sixth straight College Cup) and men's tennis, placed seventh in women's gymnastics and ninth (tied) in softball, women's volleyball and women's tennis, 16th (tied) in women's outdoor track and field and 17th (tied) in men's basketball. UCLA also won six conference titles.

In 2007-08, UCLA won three NCAA championships in women's water polo (fourth straight), women's tennis (first) and men's golf (second). The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in men's basketball (third straight Final Four), women's soccer (fifth straight College Cup) and men's tennis, placed fifth (tied) in women's volleyball and softball, seventh in women's gymnastics, 14th in men's indoor track and field and 17th (tied) in baseball and men's soccer. UCLA also played in its sixth consecutive bowl game and won four conference championships and two league tournaments.

In 2006-07, UCLA won an NCAA championship in women's water polo, the school's 100th NCAA team title, and placed second in men's soccer and women's tennis, third in women's golf, tied for third in men's basketball, women's soccer and women's volleyball, fourth in women's gymnastics, fifth in women's outdoor track and field, tied for fifth in men's tennis, seventh in men's golf and women's indoor track and field, ninth in men's outdoor track and field and tied for ninth in baseball. UCLA played in its fifth straight bowl game in football and won four league titles.

In 2005-06, UCLA won two NCAA titles (men's volleyball and women's water polo) and placed second in men's basketball and women's soccer, tied for third in softball, tied for fifth in men's tennis, tied for seventh in men's golf and tied for ninth in women's volleyball and women's tennis. UCLA also won the Vitalis Sun Bowl in football and captured seven conference championships and two post-season tournaments.

In 2004-05, UCLA won three NCAA titles (men's water polo, men's tennis and women's water polo) and placed second in women's soccer, men's volleyball, women's golf and softball, tied for second in women's outdoor track and field, fourth in women's gymnastics, tied for fifth in women's volleyball and tied for ninth in men's soccer. UCLA also earned its first NCAA post-season appearance in women's rowing (varsity eight) and won eight conference championships.

In 2003-04, the Bruins won four NCAA titles (women's outdoor track and field, softball, women's golf and women's gymnastics). They also placed second in men's tennis, women's tennis and men's golf, tied for third in women's soccer, tied for fifth in men's soccer and women's volleyball, fifth in women's indoor track and field and seventh in women's swimming and women's cross country. In addition, the Bruins captured seven league titles.

In Guerrero's first year at UCLA (2002-03), UCLA won four NCAA titles (men's soccer, women's gymnastics, women's water polo and women's softball). The Bruins placed third in men's golf, tied for third in men's tennis, tied for fifth in women's golf and women's tennis, eighth in women's outdoor track and field, tied for eighth in women's indoor track and field and tied for ninth in women's soccer. UCLA also earned six conference titles.

Over the past seven years, Guerrero has earned numerous honors. In June of 2007, he was named the NACDA Division I West Region Athletic Director of the Year. His other honors include 2002 UCLA Latino Alumnus of the Year (October 2002); Cal State Dominguez Hills' Alumnus of the Year (March 2003); and 2003 "Father of the Year" by the Father's Day Council of the American Diabetes Association (June). On September 10, 2002, the Los Angeles City Council honored him with Dan Guerrero Day. He also became the first athlete in any sport at Banning (Wilmington, CA) High School to have his jersey (#8 in baseball) retired (2003).

Guerrero was named one of the nation's Top 100 Most Influential Hispanics by Hispanic Business Magazine (October 2004) and the May 5, 2003 issue of Sports Illustrated listed him #28 among the 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports. He was one of 28 people whose photo was featured on that issue's cover.

In addition to unparalleled success in the playing arena, his seven years at the helm have also demonstrated the overall excellence Guerrero has made a priority for the program. Belief in conducting a program of integrity has been a cornerstone of Guerrero's leadership throughout his career. Named as a 1999 Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport, Guerrero has fostered a strong sense of commitment and dedication among his coaches and staff to the development of the total student-athlete experience. He has also served as an Executive Board member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sport for over a decade and is resolute in his desire to support academic achievement and life skills development for UCLA student-athletes. As a result, he has spearheaded unprecedented growth in the Academic Support and Life Skills program at UCLA. In Guerrero's seven and two-thirds years (20 quarters), student-athletes earned 4,744 spots on the Director's Honor Roll (3.0 or higher grade-point average for a quarter) and community service activities for the program are at an all-time high.

Resource development has always been a strength for Guerrero and his tenure at UCLA has demonstrated continued evidence of this skill. In 2004-05, he successfully negotiated two blockbuster deals: a new multi-million dollar agreement with ISP Sports, a premier national collegiate sports marketing organization, and a six-year, multi-million dollar extension with adidas, equipment provider for all of UCLA's 24 sports.

Guerrero also led the negotiations that solidified the relationship between UCLA and the Rose Bowl, inking a 20-year agreement, which included over $13 million in facility enhancements to benefit the UCLA football program. He has also reorganized the External Relations area, integrating Corporate Sponsorships, Marketing and Development under one umbrella, in anticipation of a major revenue generating initiative designed to address capital project needs, operational support and program endowments.

Under Guerrero's guidance, UCLA continues to aggressively enhance its athletic facilities, including the completion of the Bud Knapp Football wing of the Acosta Center, and the sports medicine and athletic performance centers in the same complex. A new golf practice facility and the Easton Softball Stadium renovation, benefitting the Bruins' golf and softball powers, respectively, were completed for the 2004-05 season. The installation of synthetic turf at Spaulding Field was completed in 2006, the final phase of the Acosta Center project (Olympic sport locker rooms) was completed in 2007. Spieker Aquatic Center was completed in the summer of 2009. The renovation of Pauley Pavilion is the next project slated for completion.

Guerrero has extensive experience in committee work at both the NCAA and conference level. He is serving his fifth year as a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee (he is the 2009-10 chair) and also served on the "College Basketball Partnership," a group formed by NCAA president Myles Brand, that included many of the most influential people in the sport. He has served as Chair of both the Pac-10 Athletic Directors Committee and the Budget and Finance Committee, has served on several Pac-10 committees and is currently a member of the Pac-10 Television and Rose Bowl Management committees. He has also served on other NCAA committees, including the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee and the Baseball Academic Enhancement Committee and at the time of his hire by UCLA was serving as the second vice president of the Division I-AAA Athletic Director's Association.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002). The broad competitive success of its athletic teams, the academic excellence of its student-athletes, the development of new and improved facilities and enhanced relations with the UCI community, reflect the progress UC Irvine Athletics experienced under Guerrero's direction. During his tenure, the program continued to accumulate conference championships, garner national rankings, feature graduation rates among the nation's best, and win numerous post-season honors for its student-athletes. In June of 2002 while still at UC Irvine, he was named the 2001-02 Division I-AA/I-AAA West Region NACDA Athletic Director of the Year.

Resulting from Guerrero's resourcefulness and creativity, UCI experienced unprecedented activity in the area of athletic facilities development. In his final five years, Guerrero was the driving force behind $38 million of newly constructed or renovated facilities. These projects included a newly renovated track and soccer complex, a new 64-meter competitive swimming pool, a new baseball stadium and the Anteater Recreation Center, one of the premier recreation centers in the country.

Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, Dan came from Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92).

Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. His batting average in Pacific-8 Conference games over three seasons as a varsity performer was .343. Guerrero, known as "Warrior" during his playing career, was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. The Bruin Athletic Director earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year.

Guerrero, born on November 10, 1951 in Tucson, AZ, was raised in Wilmington, CA. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters: Jenna and Katie.

When it comes to athletic success, UCLA ranks second to none, as evidenced by its 104 NCAA team championships. Over the past three-plus decades, no school can match UCLA's combination of NCAA team and individual championships, football bowl games, men's basketball NCAA Tournament appearances and Olympic participation. In April of 2005, Sports Illustrated On Campus stated that "UCLA has the most complete athletic program in the country."

In 2007-08, UCLA placed second nationally in competition for the annual NACDA Directors' Cup for the third consecutive year. The cup recognizes the school with the best overall sports performance each year and awards points based on finishes in NCAA competition. UCLA has finished in the Top Six in 15 of the 16 years of the Directors' Cup, placing second in 2007-08, 2006-07, 2005-06, 2000-2001, 1999-2000 and 1995-96, third in 2004-05, 2003-04, 1996-97, 1994-95 and 1993-94, fourth in 1997-98, fifth in 1998-99 and 2001-2002, sixth in 2002-2003 and 16th in 2008-09.

This past year, UCLA won its fifth consecutive NCAA women's water polo championship. The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in women's soccer (sixth straight College Cup) and men's tennis, placed seventh in women's gymnastics and ninth (tied) in softball, women's volleyball and women's tennis, 16th (tied) in women's outdoor track and field and 17th (tied) in men's basketball. UCLA also won six conference titles.

In 2007-08, UCLA won three NCAA championships in women's water polo (fourth straight), women's tennis (first) and men's golf (second). The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in men's basketball (third straight Final Four), women's soccer and men's tennis, placed fifth (tied) in women's volleyball and softball, seventh in women's gymnastics, 14th in men's indoor track and field and 17th (tied) in baseball and men's soccer. UCLA also played in its sixth consecutive bowl game and won five conference championships and two league tournaments.

In 2006-07, UCLA won an NCAA championship in women's water polo, the school's 100th NCAA team title, and placed second in men's soccer and women's tennis, third in women's golf, tied for third in men's basketball, women's soccer and women's volleyball, fourth in women's gymnastics, fifth in women's outdoor track and field, tied for fifth in men's tennis, seventh in men's golf and women's indoor track and field, ninth in men's outdoor track and field and tied for ninth in baseball.

COMBINED PROGRAM

UCLA has won more NCAA team championships than any school in the nation — 104 (71 men's and 33 women's), including 18 in the last seven years, more than any other school in the country. Those 104 titles have been won in 17 different programs. In the 28 years that the NCAA has awarded both men's and women's championships, UCLA has won 64 NCAA team titles (31 men's and 33 women's). Overall, UCLA has won a nation-leading total of 125 collegiate championships — 104 NCAA crowns and 21 other titles.

UCLA has won at least one NCAA team title (men's or women's) in 27 of the last 29 years. In addition, the school has won at least one collegiate title (NCAA or AIAW) in 43 of the last 46 years, missing only in 1979-80, 1993-94 and 2001-02. Over the last 38 years, UCLA has won at least two collegiate titles 29 times.

UCLA has placed amongst the top five schools in 14 of the 16 years of the Directors' Cup. In 1992-93, UCLA earned the award as the nation's top combined program, according to the annual USA Today All-Sports Survey. Prior to 1993-94, USA Today conducted separate surveys for men's and women's programs. In the 23-year history of the All-Sports Survey for men's programs (formerly conducted by the Knoxville Journal), UCLA finished first 11 times (no other school had more than six titles), second seven times, third once and fourth once and was in the top 10 each year. The Bruins won five of the last eight men's surveys and placed fifth in 1993. In the women's survey (formerly sponsored by the Santa Monica Evening Outlook), UCLA won 10 titles in 18 years, including four straight (1988-1991), and finished second in 1992 and 1993.

In the last 40 years, the Bruin men have won 57 NCAA championships, nine more than second-place Stanford and 29 more than third-place USC. Eight times they have won at least three titles in a single year. UCLA is the only school to win four men's titles in a single year more than once, accomplishing the feat in 1969-70 (basketball, tennis, volleyball, and water polo), 1970-71 (basketball, tennis, volleyball, and outdoor track) and 1971-72 (basketball, volleyball, outdoor track, and water polo).

In 1981-82, the first year in which the NCAA hosted women's championships, UCLA became the first school in history to win five NCAA titles (men's swimming, men's tennis, men's volleyball, softball, and women's track) in a single year.

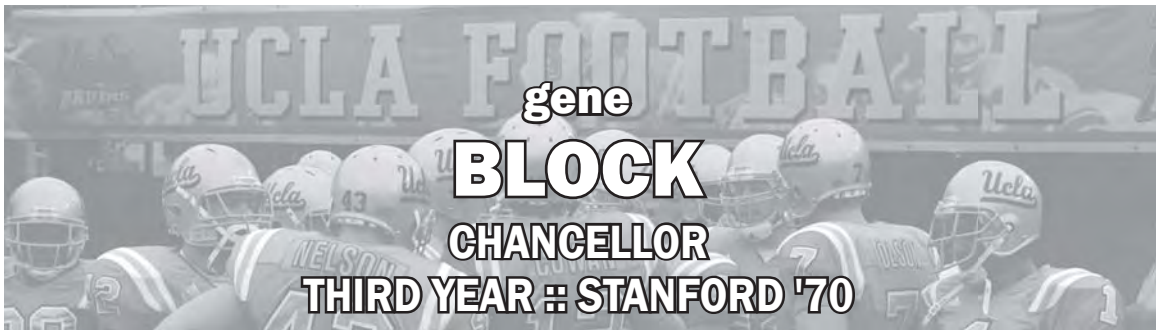
2008-09 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Women's Water Polo

NCAA Finish: 1st; Record: 25-6 (Fifth Straight NCAA Title)

The 2009 UCLA women's water polo team captured its fifth consecutive NCAA title, defeating crosstown rival USC, 5-4, in the championship match at Maryland's Eppley Recreation Center on Sunday, May 10. The Bruins' win capped a season in which they placed third in the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation and third in the MPSF postseason tournament. UCLA entered the NCAA championships as the No. 3 seed and defeated Michigan in first-round action, 13-6. In the semifinals, the Bruins rallied to defeat No. 2 seed Stanford for the first time all year, 12-11, when sophomore Megan Burmeister scored the game-winning goal at the buzzer. In the championship match against No. 1 seed USC, senior Tanya Gandy led the Bruins with three goals and senior goalkeeper Brittany Fullen collected 12 saves. The Bruins also received one goal each from senior Anne Belden and sophomore Priscilla Orozco. UCLA never trailed in the contest, securing a 5-3 lead by halftime. UCLA's senior class of Anne Belden, Brittany Fullen, Tanya Gandy and Katie Rulon finished with four NCAA titles and a perfect 12-0 mark in NCAA Tournament play. Gandy, who earned NCAA Tournament Most Valuable Player honors and scored a school-record 79 goals, including three in the title match.



gene BLOCK

CHANCELLOR
THIRD YEAR :: STANFORD '70

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block quickly called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with Los Angeles and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations. An advocate of interdisciplinary scholarship, he has spearheaded a process of broad-based, campuswide strategic planning.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH).

Previously, Chancellor Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups. In 1998, he received the Commonwealth of Virginia's Outstanding Public Service Award for his work with Virginia's business community.

A native of Monticello, N.Y., Chancellor Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

don MORRISON

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE
16TH YEAR :: MIT '61

Donald G. Morrison is in his 16th year as UCLA's Faculty Athletic Representative. Last year, he served as President of the Pacific-10 Conference, a role he also filled in 1997-98.

Morrison, a specialist in management science and marketing, is the William E. Leonhard Professor in the Anderson Graduate School of Management.

A 1961 graduate of M.I.T. with a B.S. in mechanical engineering, Morrison earned a Ph.D. in operations research at Stanford University in 1965. He joined the Columbia Business School faculty the following year as assistant professor, served as associate professor from 1968 and was named professor of business in 1973. He has also served as visiting professor at Stanford and at the University of California, Berkeley. He joined the UCLA faculty in 1987.

Over the past 40 years, Morrison has supervised the doctoral dissertations of a number of students who are now faculty members of other leading institutions. Many are now on key editorial boards and six have endowed chairs. Morrison was the founding editor of the professional journal, Marketing Science and was editor-in-chief of Management Science for eight years. He has served as departmental editor or editorial board member of several other professional journals.

In 2002, Morrison was awarded the highest honor in the American Marketing Association, when he was named the McGraw-Hill/ Irwin Distinguished Educator of the Year.

He is the author or co-author of over 90 articles, with a special emphasis on marketing research and applied statistics. He has been an expert witness as a statistician in a number of legal cases and a consultant to industrial firms and government agencies.

Morrison, who will be 71 next February 26, served as captain of the M.I.T. track team. In 1961, he was the Eastern Conference long jump champion and placed third in the long jump at the New England Championships.

Morrison's wife Sherie is a professor in UCLA's Microbiology, Immunology and Molecular Genetics department. Their daughters, Heather Felix and Michelle Oliva, earned their MBA degrees from the Anderson Graduate School of Management at UCLA. The Morrisons also have three grandsons, Parker Graham Felix, Spencer Andrew Felix and Jake Carmine Oliva.

UCLA is among the world's leading research universities, known for the breadth and quality of its academic, research, health care, cultural, continuing education and athletic programs. A shared public asset, UCLA enriches our neighborhoods, our nation and our world on a daily basis by creating knowledge, educating students, powering the economy and serving the community. Many of its 11 professional schools and academic departments and programs are ranked among the best in the nation. UCLA is a university with the size and scope to allow for unimagined diversity, unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship, and limitless possibility for its 26,500 undergraduates and 11,500 graduate students.

FACULTY, STUDENTS & ALUMNI

Five UCLA faculty have been awarded Nobel Prizes — the two most recent are Louis Ignarro in medicine (1998) and biochemist Paul Boyer in chemistry (1997). Among faculty there have been nine National Medals of Science recipients, and hundreds of Guggenheim Fellowships, Fulbright Awards and other academic distinctions. At UCLA, thousands of students extend their educations beyond the classroom by working directly with faculty on research projects. Many UCLA undergraduates participate in major research studies, working one-on-one with world-renowned scholars as they discover and create new knowledge. UCLA's alumni are bright stars on the world stage. They include leaders of industry and commerce — Oscar, Grammy, Tony, and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians and professional athletes; educators, engineers, bankers, and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves 88,000 members, part of the larger network of more than 380,000 UCLA alumni, with a comprehensive array of services, programs and activities.

BOOKS & TECHNOLOGY

The UCLA Library is ranked among the top ten academic research libraries in North America with holdings of more than eight million volumes as well as digital resources and services. From the birth of the Internet at UCLA in 1969, UCLA continues to be a leader in resources for learning. UCLA is nationally recognized for developing ground-breaking computer services for undergraduates and was the first university to have a Web site for every undergraduate student. The university provides an innovative, on-line tool called "myucla.edu," which provides a Web page tailored to each student's academic needs.

OUTREACH & COMMUNITY SERVICE

From its founding, UCLA has been an integral and contributing part of the greater Los Angeles community. Outreach programs and volunteerism are as much a part of UCLA as academics and research, with hundreds of UCLA-sponsored programs providing a wide range of opportunities. Many of UCLA's undergraduates volunteer for these programs, including tutoring youths, adults and incarcerated youths; addressing health and educational needs of underserved communities; combating poverty and homelessness; aiding the elderly and disabled; and providing legal, social, medical and educational assistance to community residents.

Through outreach and academic preparation programs, UCLA works with K-12 schools throughout Los Angeles to help greater numbers of students prepare to compete successfully for college. UCLA also partners with community colleges to increase the number of underrepresented students transferring to the university. Additionally, UCLA faculty, researchers and students provide leadership and public service in health care, law, economic development, social welfare, urban planning, public policy, arts and the environment. Most academic departments have major research projects, field studies or student internships that directly affect people's lives in Los Angeles, the state and the nation.

HEALTH CARE

UCLA Health System has been a leader in patient care, medical research and teaching for more than 50 years. Today, our physicians provide an array of cutting-edge and research-based primary and specialty services in four hospitals on two campuses, and in more than 75 clinic locations. Physicians provide specialty services in offices located on the Westwood campus and throughout Santa Monica. Primary care physicians provide healthcare for children and adults in community offices from Manhattan Beach to Malibu. Patients from Southern California, the U.S. and around the globe enter our clinics more than one million times annually, and our hospitals, more than 80,000 times a year to be treated at the world-renowned Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, the Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital, primary care offices and community outreach health programs. The four schools in the medical enterprise are medicine, dentistry, nursing and public health. The Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center has been ranked as one of the top hospitals in the country by U.S. News & World Report, including "Best in the West" for 19 consecutive years. A new state-of-the-art medical center, which includes the Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, Stewart and Lynda Resnick Neuropsychiatric Hospital and Mattel Children's Hospital UCLA, opened in the summer of 2008. Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital's rebuilding project is scheduled for completion in late 2010. Groundbreaking research is constantly taking place in the Jonsson Comprehensive Cancer Center, the Gonda (Goldschmied) Neuroscience and Genetics Research Center and in many other centers and laboratories on campus.

ARTS

A diverse array of public arts programming makes UCLA the leading arts and cultural center of the West. More than 500,000 people annually attend arts events including theater, music, opera and dance performances, lectures, poetry readings, exhibitions, film screenings, and media arts that are presented by UCLA's two professional arts schools. Check the web sites at www.arts.ucla.edu and www.tft.ucla.edu for more information.

LIFELONG LEARNING

One of the nation's leading university based institutions for continuing education, UCLA Extension offers 4,300 classroom and online courses and programs each year, helping 47,000 individuals in Los Angeles and around the world advance their goals for career, academic and personal educational development. More information about UCLA Extension is available at www.uclaextension.edu.

In addition, the university conducts guided walking tours and distributes self-guided tour maps. For further information, call (310) 825-8764 or check out UCLA on the Web at www.ucla.edu.

UCLA ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame enters its 26th year of its existence and its ninth in a new location facing Westwood Plaza. The current Hall of Fame, double the size of its predecessor, opened in July of 2001.

The first floor in the east wing of the J.D. Morgan Athletics Center features the 8,000-square foot Athletics Hall of Fame and serves as the main entrance to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The Hall of Fame features state-of-the-art interactive displays; a mini-theater where Bruin video clips and highlights re-create past championship moments; a timeline of important U.S., California and UCLA dates showing how sports weave into the great moments in history; a collection of Bruin memorabilia and much more.

UCLA athletic teams have won 104 NCAA team championships and each of those first-place trophies grace the Hall of Champions. Other exhibits include photos of UCLA's first-team All-Americans in football and basketball, Gary Beban's Heisman Trophy, Wooden Awards won by Marques Johnson and Ed O'Bannon and a special display highlighting all of UCLA's Honda and Broderick Cup winners. Displays on UCLA's football bowl victories, the Bruins' NCAA basketball tradition and UCLA's Olympic Games medal winners are featured in the new Hall of Fame.

Each of UCLA's sports has its own individual display area within the Hall of Fame. In addition, there are displays honoring Jackie Robinson, UCLA's Academic All-Americans and women in sports. There are also sample lockers of former Bruin greats in various sports.

John Wooden

In connection with the building, which originally opened in November of 1983, UCLA established a Hall of Fame with 25 charter members representing a cross-section of the school's athletic history. Each year, a minimum of one and a maximum of eight former UCLA athletes, coaches or administrators are added to the Hall of Fame. The nation's most famous college football stadium — The Rose Bowl — is now in its 28th season as the home of the UCLA Bruin football team. One of the finest football stadiums in America, the Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but was used for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games and was also the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also been the site of four Super Bowls, most recently Super Bowl XXVII on January 31, 1993, and was a venue for the 1994 World Cup and 1999 Women's World Cup soccer tournaments, including the championship games.

On January 7, 2010, the Rose Bowl will play host to the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) National Championship for the third time. The last time Pasadena welcomed the BCS National Championship football game, Texas bested USC to win the title on January 4, 2006. Miami won the first BCS National Championship contest played in the Rose Bowl, defeating Nebraska on January 3, 2003 at the Rose Bowl.

Beginning with the 2007 season, UCLA and its opponents dressed in new state-of-the-art locker rooms. Located underneath the south concourse of the stadium, the locker area features all of the latest amenities to benefit the players, coaches, sports medicine staff and equipment staff. A new media interview room and working area was included as part of the upgrades. These items were the first step in a $16.3 million capital improvement program launched by the Rose Bowl and the City of Pasadena that will benefit both UCLA and the Tournament of Roses.

In 1998, new individual chairs were installed in the seating areas between the end zones as part of a plan to bring the Rose Bowl into the 21st Century as America's premier college football stadium. Also, improved seating areas for the physically challenged have been installed, as has a new sound system. In 1997, a state-of-the-art video board, as well as new matrix-style scoreboards, were added to the the Rose Bowl. In the last few years, new concession stands and restrooms have been built and the team dressing rooms have been renovated.

At Home with the Bruins: UCLA played its home games at Moore Field from 1919-1928 with the following exceptions: 1919, Los Angeles JC at Los Angeles High; 1926, Occidental and Iowa State at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum; 1927, Occidental, Pomona and Drake at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum; 1928, Pomona and Oregon at the Los Angeles Coliseum. UCLA played all of its home games from the 1929 through 1981 seasons at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum with the following exceptions: 1929, Fresno State at Westwood; 1933, Los Angeles JC and San Diego State at Westwood; 1934, Pomona and San Diego State at Westwood. The Bruins moved to the Rose Bowl prior to the 1982 season.

Prior to the 1992 season, the Rose Bowl built a new three-level press box. In addition to modern facilities for the print and electronic media, the new press box has two levels of executive and club suites, some of which are still available for lease. Three elevators service this state-of-the-art facility. In addition, the Rose Bowl also received a new state-of-the art lighting system prior to the 1992 season, including new lights, fixtures and towers.

Completed in 1922, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California game that year. The stadium was horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 persons when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end was enclosed prior to the 1929 game and enlarged to seat 76,000 spectators. Demands for more and more seats led to further enlargements; to 83,677 in 1932 and to 100,807 in 1949.

With the new seating configuration, the current seating capacity is 91,136, though a record 106,869 witnessed the 1973 USC-Ohio State Rose Bowl contest.

In conjunction with UCLA's move in 1982 and the Olympics, a Rose Bowl improvement program resulted in the refurbishing of the press box, adding permanent concession stands and backs for more than 50,000 seats. In recent years, all of those areas have enjoyed additional enhancements.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts to its record. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, the UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide hookup.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original

WOODEN ATHLETIC FUND/ATHLETIC ENDOWMENT

The UCLA Athletics Campaign has endowed 205 of the 282 NCAA allowable athletic grants-in-aid. UCLA Athletics expresses its sincere gratitude to the individuals listed for their support in the continuing effort to distinguish UCLA as the nation's premier academic and athletics institution.

An endowment generates income to the University in perpetuity. By investing the gift principal and using just the interest earned to help meet the cost of a grant-in-aid assures the Athletic Department of on-going funds to maintain the quality and diversity of its program.

Currently, UCLA provides financial assistance to over 400 student-athletes participating in 24 intercollegiate sports. However, expenses such as the cost of tuition for student-athletes have increased dramatically in the last several years while department revenues have remained relatively stable.

Tax-deductible gifts to the Wooden Athletic Fund play a pivotal role in meeting the escalating costs of team travel, recruiting, equipment replacement and, most importantly, in providing athletic scholarships. Now more than ever, private support is necessary if UCLA is to maintain its position as the best athletic program in the country. Your help is truly needed and greatly appreciated.

To encourage private support of our program, the best football and basketball tickets are allocated to our most generous donors. Members of the Wooden Athletic Fund receive priority in the assignment of tickets for home contests in the Rose Bowl and in Pauley Pavilion in accordance with the UCLA Priority Seating Policy. Please refer to the donor benefits chart to determine season ticket opportunities. In many cases, special reserved parking is also available for our donors.

If you have any questions regarding the Wooden Athletic Fund or the benefits members receive, please contact the Athletic Development Office at 310/206-3302.

Entering the 2009-10 school year, the Pacific-10 Conference continues to uphold its tradition as the "Conference of Champions."® Pac-10 members have claimed an incredible 170 NCAA team titles over the past 19 seasons, for an average of almost nine championships per academic year.

Even more impressive is the breadth of the Pac-10's success, as those 170 team titles have come in 26 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-10 has led the nation in NCAA Championships 43 of the last 49 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievement, the Pac-10 has captured 382 NCAA titles (264 men's, 118 women's), far outdistancing the runner-up Big Ten Conference's 221 titles.

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual Leerfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD won the Directors' Cup and while USC, CALIFORNIA, ARIZONA STATE, WASHINGTON and UCLA also placed in the Top 20.

The Pac-10 captured 11 NCAA titles in 2008-09 to finish first nationally, and has won 24 titles in the last two years. NCAA team champions from the Pac-10 came from UCLA (women's water polo), ARIZONA STATE (women's golf), CALIFORNIA (women's swimming and diving), OREGON (men's cross country and men's indoor track), STANFORD (men's gymnastics and women's rowing), USC (men's water polo and men's tennis) and WASHINGTON (women's cross country and softball).

The Pac-10 experienced continued success in football as the league sent five teams to bowl games -- ARIZONA, CALIFORNIA, OREGON, OREGON STATE and USC.

The Pac-10 was one of the premier basketball conferences, sending six teams to the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship. UCLA was selected for the fifth straight year. On the women's side, three teams competed in the NCAA Tournament with STANFORD reaching the Final Four.

On the men's side, Pac-10 members have won 264 NCAA team championships, far ahead of the the 198 claimed by the runner-up Big Ten. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-10 - 15 basketball titles by five schools (more than any other conference), 50 tennis titles, 45 outdoor track and field crowns and 26 baseball titles. Pac-10 members have won 25 of the 40 NCAA titles in volleyball, 35 of the 40 in water polo, and 21 total swimming and diving national championships.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 28 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 20 occasions. Overall, the Pac-10 has captured 118 NCAA women's crowns, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 75. Pac-10 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 21 softball titles, 18 tennis crowns, 11 of the last 19 volleyball titles and 13 of the last 20 trophies in golf.

ROSE BOWL SELECTION PROCEDURES

The Pacific-10 Conference has agreements with six bowls. The Pac-10 champion shall play in the Rose Bowl Game unless it is ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) ranking system. In that case, the Pac-10 champion would participate in the FedEx BCS National Championship Game. This year, that game will be played in the Rose Bowl on January 7.

If that is not the case, the following procedures will determine the Pacific-10 representative in the Rose Bowl. The Pac-10's Rose Bowl representative shall be that member's team with the best record in Conference games. If, however, the records in Conference games of two or more members are identical, determination of the Rose Bowl representative shall be as follows:

Two-Team Tie: If two teams are tied for the conference championship, the team that won the head-to-head meeting shall be the Pac-10's representative in the Rose Bowl.

Multiple Ties: (1) When three or more teams are tied in Conference play, if one has defeated all others, it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, a comparison of the tied teams' records against the other tied teams shall be made and the team having the best record against the other tied teams shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If two or more teams are still tied after this comparison, the appropriate two-team or multiple-team tie-breaking procedures shall be repeated among those teams still under consideration.

(2) If more than two teams are still tied after the process above is completed, each remaining tied team's record against the team occupying the highest position in the final regular season standings shall be compared, with the procedure continuing down through the standings until one team gains an advantage. When arriving at another group of tied teams while comparing records, each team's collective record against the tied teams as a group shall be used.

If at any point in the process the multiple-team tie is reduced to two teams, the two-team tie-breaking procedure shall be applied.

If more than two teams are still tied after comparing their records all the way through the Conference standings, the team among the tied teams with the highest ranking in the final BCS standings shall be the Rose Bowl representative.

If a tie remains, the team most recently earning Rose Bowl or Bowl Championship Series automatic selection shall be eliminated.

Ineligible Team: Teams ineligible to participate in the Rose Bowl shall not be included in the tie-breaking formulae, except their games against other institutions shall count and may be utilized to break ties between other eligible teams.
